

The VINE & BRANCHES

4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
JANUARY 28, 2024

Many of us have read and heard much about servant leadership over the past couple of decades. To be a servant leader does not mean we abandon our authority, it means we avoid talking down to people, and trying to ensure our word has integrity. Today we hear about how Jesus taught “with authority,” that is, he was the author of what he said; it never became his habit to quote rabbis and other authors, as the scribes used to do. Jesus’ authority arose out of who he was. His message was lived. His lifestyle and preaching enriched the Word of God. What he said, went straight to the hearts of his listeners. The tool he used most often to reach them was the parable, in which the listener is invited to discover his or her self. ... Continued on p. 2

... Continued A parable is a fresh way of looking at ordinary experience. His parables were drawn from the world of farming, fishing, viniculture...their world. Parables are meant to show people that their ordinary experience can be an open path to God; the scribes of every age would prefer that only their sacred text should do this. People realized that here was a teacher who understood and respected them, and not a scribe discharging his erudition over them. They were "astonished," because this was so unusual. From the beginning of the book of Genesis, and throughout the scripture, God's word is living and active. God said "let there be light and there was light!" In the same way Jesus' words: his prayer and preaching made things happen. He cast out demons. In other words he liberated people who were tormented and in every way.

In today's reading, the demon being cast out shouts out a strange profession of faith: "I know who you are, the Holy One of God." but it comes from a believer, but a believer who has rebelled. This poor man was possessed by a demon. I imagine he had to force his body to approach Jesus, perhaps even knowing that Jesus would want to heal him.

The devil in the man also knows Jesus. He also knows that in being healed he will no longer have dominion over the man's freedom. That is approaching Jesus the man is seeking to be liberated from the devil. And that is the will of the "Holy One of God." In fact, that is what makes Jesus holy: that He is God, and he comes to be our liberation from sin and death forever.

This dramatic scene invites our reflection on the reality of evil and the reality of the person of Satan. The resistance the devil manifests to Jesus seems almost 'personal' in a surprising way. We should never be surprised when we understand that evil exists in the world, and that the devil tempts us and trips us up. This is not frequently in the dramatic and scary way depicted in films. Instead the devil is subtle, which enables him to surprise us and catch us off guard. But we, like Satan, know who Jesus is "The Holy One of God!" In him we are liberated from sin and death forever. The man who approached Jesus did so because he knew he was in need of healing. Do we have the courage to do the same? How can we acknowledge the authority of the one who has the power to heal us?

Human Trafficking - The Church's Response

Human trafficking is an evil in our own back yards and God is not pleased, because His children are not for sale.

Join us for an informative evening where we will learn the truth about this evil, how to protect our children and how we can make a difference.

Volunteer Roundtable for our Family of Parishes

This coming Monday is our next installment of a volunteer roundtable, where we want to hear from you! We want to share what we're doing, get new ideas from you, and look to the future! We're at St. Cyprian at 7 pm on Monday, January 29.

Middle School and Confirmation Gatherings

We are so blessed to have access to Lifeteen which is the programming we use for our Middle School (6th-8th grade) and Confirmation (8/9 grade) programs. It's a great program where we gather for prayer, we offer a "proclaim," which is a teaching on whatever topic we're covering, we offer opportunity for small groups, and we come back for a "send," which are like our marching orders as Catholics. The engagement and excitement, along with the sharing our young people engage in is inspiring to me. Our wonderful pastors engage in some of the teaching along with other parish leaders and catechists. Here, Fr. Bob is speaking with a Confirmation Preparation group at Our Lady of the Woods, which is comprised of young people from all of our parishes. Each program has 2 offerings - Confirmation preparation is at St. Roch and St. Cyprian. The EDGE program happens at Sacred Heart and Our Lady of the Woods. If you would like to get involved in any way - hospitality, catechist, greeter, or any other way you think you can share your gifts, please let me know!

Feast of the Presentation of the Lord

This Friday, February 2 is the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. Some would call this the official end of the Christmas season, where Jesus is presented in the Temple. Please consider joining one of our parishes for Mass:

Rite of Acceptance and Welcoming

On Sunday, January 21, at the 11:00 a.m. Mass, we celebrated the first of the public rites celebrated in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). The Rite of Acceptance is an ancient rite that recognizes the decision of a Catechumen John Teringo (JT), (unbaptized), to continue the process of becoming a member of the Catholic Church through Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation. We also welcomed the candidate (Alexander Track), baptized in another faith, into the process of full communion with the Catholic faith through Eucharist and Confirmation.

Throughout the past several months, our catechumen and candidate have been inquiring about the Catholic faith and have been meeting weekly. This rite recognized their decision to continue this spiritual journey of growth and conversion, learn the basic teachings of the Catholic faith, hear the Gospel proclaimed at the Sunday liturgy, and are gradually introduced to the customs and practices of the Catholic life as a preparation for full initiation into the Catholic faith through Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil.

Are you exploring Catholicism?

If you are interested in becoming Catholic or know someone who is contact helen@sacredheartgi.com or the parish office at 734-676-1378.

Blessing Bags

Teens from throughout of Family of Parishes who are preparing for the holy sacrament of Confirmation during the Easter season, gathered at St. Cyprian with their families last Sunday to learn about using our gifts from God and doing service for those in need!

We learned about the ministry and service St. Cyprian Food Pantry does for our Riverview community and sorted so many boxes of food donated at Kroger in early January! We also made Blessing Bags (a tote filled with emergency supplies, a rosary and prayer card, and note of blessing and encouragement) to share with unhoused men and women. Teens and families took home Blessing Bags to give to anyone they find in need.

Many, many thanks to the St. Cyprian Crafters for making hats, scarves, and mittens to add to the Blessings Bags!

There are extra blessing bags available for parish members to take and share with anyone they find in need. You might keep your blessing bag in your car to share with an unhoused or endangered person you see anywhere you go! Blessing Bags are available in the gathering space this weekend!

St. Cyprian Food Pantry

Our Food Pantry was chosen to participate in the community Food Drive Jan 6-7 hosted by Gleaners and Krogers. Thank you for all the volunteers that helped during the two days of asking for donations and loading and unloading truck and vans to transport back and forth from the Krogers in Brownstown to our pantry! Also, to those that help sort (including our confirmation candidates) and still putting away. These generous donations will help us continue to serve the growing number of pantry clients the Food Pantry has.

Love and Peace, Patty

St. Joseph's 4th Graders

The fourth graders have been having fun learning lots of interesting things in the new year! In Religion, we are learning about the different images of God. We looked at lots of pictures of the face of Jesus and created our own visions. They all turned out so good, yet so different, and they all looked like Jesus. We just finished a narrative nation in our Reading books called Antarctic Journal: Four Months at the Bottom of the World. It was a collection of journal entries and sketches about a woman's journey to Antarctica. It really gave you a detailed image of all her experiences. We read our first novel, Because of Winn-Dixie, and absolutely loved it! We were able to watch the movie in class to compare and contrast the book and the movie. It always turns out, the kids like the book better because of all the details. Our next novel will be Holes, by Louis Sachar. In Social Studies, we have been learning about the neighboring countries to the United States and will begin learning about each of the different regions of the United States, starting in the Northeast where our country first began. We have learned in Math that multiplication and division go hand in hand and long division is both fun and exciting. We are now working with fractions. Most importantly, we have learned that getting along with our classmates, sharing our knowledge, and helping each other are the ways that Jesus wants us to live our lives and continue to be good Christians!
