Let us approach with a sincere heart and in absolute trust, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed in pure water. Let us hold unwaveringly to our confession that gives us hope, for he who made the promise is trustworthy. We must consider how to rouse one another to love and good works. We should not stay away from our assembly, as is the custom of some, but encourage one another, and this all the more as you see the day drawing near. Heb 10:22-25

I Will Walk Before the Lord...

This phrase from Psalm 116 is part of our Responsorial Psalm this weekend. We are called to walk with the Lord no matter the cost. There's so much going on in our Scripture readings this weekend that show the challenges of walking before the Lord in our daily lives. The Old Testament Reading from Genesis recalls the sacrifice of Abraham, being instructed to take his son Isaac to be sacrificed. Of course, the end of the story is the Lord's messenger ended up telling Abraham not to sacrifice Isaac, knowing how faithful Abraham was to God. Then comes the story of the Transfiguration of Jesus. Mark's account (9:2-10) shows Jesus' most intimate circle of disciples, Peter, James and John, being led up a high mountain. Here, Jesus's humanity was radiating his majesty as the Son of God as His clothes become dazzling white. White clothing signifies the holiness that can come only from God.

No matter the path our life puts us on, God is calling us to two things here this weekend: faithfulness and holiness. To walk before the Lord is to walk in faithfulness. As Abraham, Peter, James, and John were faithful to the Lord in what He asked of them, so we must be faithful to God's command and call in our lives. God calls us to holiness. As I mentioned above, white clothing signifies the holiness that can only come from God. Where else do we see this in Church? In baptism, we receive a white garment, children wear white as they receive the Eucharist for the first time, brides wear white wedding dresses, deacons and priests are ordained with white vestments. White is a sign of purity and holiness. In this baptismal season of Lent, let us recall our own baptism, where we were given a white garment, as our parents and godparents heard the words:

"You have become a new creation and have clothed yourself in Christ. May this white garment be a sign to you of your Christian dignity. With your family and friends to help you by word and example, bring that dignity unstained into eternal life." (from the Rite of Baptism)

As a baptized disciple of Christ, let us walk with Him always, being clothed in Christ, living as a new creation, created in the image and likeness of God. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

God bless, Sean Calvin

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA) 2024 Lent

At the beginning of Lent, the Church celebrates the Rite of Election and the Rite of Calling the Candidates to Continuing Conversion. Prior to this rite, the Church, through its delegates, must make a decision regarding the readiness of the catechumens/candidates to continue to the next stage of the RCIA process. They must, on their part, decide whether or not they want to go on and eventually receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist. Readiness for the next step (from the Catechumenate Stage to the Purification and Enlightenment Stage) is indicated by signs of conversion of heart, sufficient acquaintance with Catholic teaching and deliberate intention of receiving the sacraments of the Church.

On Sunday afternoon, February 18, the First Sunday of Lent, our catechumen, John Teringo, (unbaptized) celebrated the Rite of Election with Archbishop Vigneron at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral in Detroit. Our candidate, Alex Track, (baptized) was received into full communion with the Catholic Church, and celebrated the recognition by the Archbishop.

Continue to pray for these people as they continue their spiritual journey.

St. Vincent De Paul Conference

Since 1955, the St. Cyprian-St. Vincent De Paul Conference has been assisting Riverview residents, and other persons in the downriver area, with rental payments, utilities, food, household items, and numerous other ways. We have been able to do this ministry thanks to the generous support of St. Cyprian parishioners, parish staff members, and especially the support and cooperation of so many pastors through the years. During the time of the covid pandemic, we saw a reduction in the number of persons in our area seeking assistance. This past year, however, there has been an increase in numbers. Reflecting on future options, and after consultation with the St. Joseph, Trenton, SVDP Conference, we have concluded that a merger between our two Conferences would strengthen our ministry going forward. Because St. Cyprian and St. Joseph parishes belong to the same Family of Parishes and are under the same leadership of Fr. Marc Gawronski, who supports this merger, both Conferences feel this merger would be a good fit. The ministry of assisting Riverview residents would continue with this new merger. Also, we would continue to seek financial support from St. Cyprian parishioners as we have done over the years. We see this possible merger as a gradual process over the coming months. St. Cyprian parishioners have always been very generous in so many ways and we ask your prayers and support going forward with this new venture.

Thank you. Sr. Ann Kasparek

6th Grade News

The 6th graders had a blast celebrating Catholic Schools Week! They especially enjoyed making Valentine's for community members and cheering at the staff vs. student volleyball game! In religion, the students have been discussing God's Covenants, learning about vocations, and researching Pope Francis. In geography we continue our journey through the Western Hemisphere by learning about Mexico. The class did an amazing job working in groups to decipher Mayan codes and investigated the Aztec while learning about ancient civilizations. During science, we have been learning about the influences on weather and climate. The students enjoyed labs demonstrating how wind is formed and ocean surface currents.

Many blessings,
The 6th Grade Class

7th Grade News

The 7th grade class has learned, created, and completed many things since you heard from them last. In religion class, students put their own, creative, faith-based twist on ordinary traffic signs (see the photos above). Can you recognize any of their signs?

In social studies class, they have been studying the subcontinent of India. They learned about the Hindu holiday of Diwali, also known as the Festival of Lights. They also have been discussing some of the major differences between Hinduism and Christianity.

In their literature class, students read the classic story A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens. Students were able to read about the transformation of Ebenezer Scrooge from a cold and miserly businessman to a jovial and caring business owner, friend, and uncle.

Lenten Blessings,
Mrs. Katie Darin and the 7th grade
