Go Make of All Disciples

Peace I leave with you

These words of Jesus in today's gospel are also words our new Pope Leo XIV has echoed enough to be called the "pope of peace." But it isn't just up to Jesus or the pope to bring peace. It is up to each of us. And not just peace but the peace of Christ. When we offer a sign of peace at Mass, it's not just a moment to say hello to the people around us or to catch up with those we haven't seen in a while. That can happen after Mass. In that particular moment, right before we receive the Eucharist, we offer Christ's peace. It's also a recognition that we should not receive the Eucharist before making peace with our brother or sister in Christ.

When we prepare ourselves to receive the Eucharist, our hearts should not be troubled. Jesus proclaims this today as well. Not only should we approach the table of the Lord with clean hands and pure hearts, we should do so untroubled, and at peace with our brothers and sisters in Christ. As Jesus reminds us today, the Holy Spirit will remain with each of us. That presence prompts us and reminds us all of what Jesus taught us. All of this is what Jesus instructed us: because Jesus gave us His peace, we must extend that peace to others. To do so untroubled and unafraid, recalling all that Jesus taught us is a gift from God that we must share with others. As Jesus prepares his disciples for his Ascension into heaven (as we will celebrate next Sunday), the Lord's presence will always be within us, reminding us of all that the Lord has told us.

As a follower of Jesus, as a disciple, we are reminded today to love the Lord, keep His words, bring peace, recognize the presence of the Holy Spirit in each of our lives - prompting and guiding us toward life in Christ. Allow the Lord to make His dwelling within you, so you can truly be the peace of Christ in the world.

God bless,
Sean Calvin
Director of Discipleship Formation

An Opportunity to Grow Spiritually

Marian Apparitions of the 20th Century

A Message of Urgency

Deeply rooted in humanity's history, the Blessed Virgin Mary has been making repeated visitations throughout the world, particularly in the latter part of the 20th century, to warn us that we are on the brink of destruction unless we heed her messages for repentance, prayer, conversion, fasting and reconciliation. Is humanity on the verge of self-destruction? Can the world be delivered from the fear engulfing it today? Discover in this award-winning documentary some of the most fascinating apparitions of the 20th century and the urgency of the message Mary is giving to the world from Fatima, Portugal; Beauraing and Banneux, Belgium; Garabandal, Spain; Zeitun, Egypt; Akita, Japan; Medjugorje; Bethania, Venezuela; Kibeho Rwanda; Naju, South Korea; Ukraine and more...

Marian Pilgrimage to Fatima

Join Fr. Bob Johnson from Our Lady of the Woods on a Special Marian Pilgrimage to Fatima, Santiago de Compostela, and Lourdes

September 29 - October 8, 2025

Embark on an unforgettable spiritual journey with fellow pilgrims from our family of parishes on a remarkable Catholic pilgrimage to Fatima, Santiago de Compostela, and Lourdes. From September 29th to October 8th, 2025, experience three of the most revered Marian and apostolic sites in Portugal, Spain, and France.

Begin in Fatima, where the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to three shepherd children in 1917, calling the world to prayer and conversion. Continue to Santiago de Compostela, home to the sacred tomb of St. James the Apostle, a destination for countless pilgrims walking the Camino de Santiago. Conclude your journey in Lourdes, France, where Saint Bernadette Soubirous encountered the Virgin Mary in 1858, and where millions seek the healing waters and profound spiritual renewal.

Why is it important to support the Catholic Services Appeal?

The CSA raises crucial funds that support more than 170 ministries, services, and programs that fuel the Archdiocese, including: Catholic Schools, Clergy and Consecrated Life, Communication and Marketing, Evangelization, and Support to Parishes. This support is critical so we can respond to the material and spiritual needs of individuals and families throughout Southeast Michigan. This is how we act from the heart, putting Christ and his mission above all else.
