Go Make of All Disciples

What does it mean to witness?

As we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord into heaven, the Gospel (Luke 24:46-53) as well as the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, which is a continuation of the Gospel of Luke (Acts 1:1-11), we are told we are to be witnesses. We are often encouraged to witness to the faith. But what does that mean? If we are witnesses to a crime, we may have to sit on the witness stand and tell the account of what we saw. But what are we witnessing to in relation to our faith? Psalm 126 tells us that "The Lord has done great things for us." If God has done something great for us, of course we want to tell others. Today's responsorial Psalm (47) exclaims, "Shout to God with cries of gladness," and "Sing praise to God."

What are we praising? We are praising the Lord who has fulfilled all that He has promised. Everything from the Old Testament that was prophesied, as well as all that Jesus said would happen, really happened! Unfortunately, many do not feel the Lord's presence in their lives. That does not mean the Lord is truly making Himself present to us (particularly in the Word and the Eucharist), but the witnesses of these things need to be louder! Our second reading (Ephesians 1:17-23) tells us, "May the eyes of your hearts be enlightened, that you may know what is the hope that belongs to his call."

This draws me to one word: hope. In this Jubilee Year of Hope, we are invited to pause, pray, seek the Lord's pardon, and praise him for his merciful grace. I encourage you to participate in this Jubilee Year by going to <https://www.aod.org/jubilee>. Allow this to be a moment of renewed faith in your life, so you can be witnesses to God's love and mercy in your life. St. Paul begins this weekend's second reading: "May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a Spirit of wisdom and revelation resulting in knowledge of him." I hope in this Jubilee Year we will all take time for prayer and reflection on all that God has done for us, that we be His witnesses.

God bless,
Sean Calvin

This pilgrimage promises inspiring moments of prayer, reflection, and a deep renewal of faith. Brochures are available at the parish. For more information, contact David O'Brien at Corporate Travel at 734.223.3348. Don't miss this life-changing opportunity!

May/June: Month of Mary

It is a centuries-old custom of Catholics to dedicate the month of May to the Blessed Virgin Mary. The month of May is always a part of the Easter season. The fifty days that we celebrate the Resurrection of Our Lord in the liturgy, is also a time of awaiting the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. Mary was present in the upper room with the apostles prayerfully awaiting the Holy Spirit. The celebration of May as a Marian month fits well with the liturgical celebrations of Easter and Pentecost.

June 3: "Marian Apparitions of the 20th Century" An apparition of Mary is a supernatural appearance of the Blessed Virgin Mary with a message for the world and often emerge during times of great social or spiritual needs. We will reflect on some of the most famous of those apparitions.

Tuesdays in May, Room B, Parish Center, 6:30pm
Presented by Sr. Helen Therese and the Adult Faith Formation Team

Adult Faith Formation: Spring Series

The Church celebrates several major feasts during the month of June during the Sunday liturgies. We invite you to a prayerful, scriptural reflection and dialogue on some of these themes.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christie)

In anticipation of the Church's celebration of this feast on Sunday, June 22, join us for a prayerful and theological reflection on this extraordinary and unique gift that is the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist.

Tuesday, June 17, 6:30 pm – 8:00 pm
 Parish Center, Room B
 Sr. Helen Therese and Adult Faith Formation Team

The Gifts and Fruits of the Holy Spirit

The descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost (Acts 2:1-11) was the moment that the Church was specifically endowed with power with the manifestation of the Holy Spirit's gifts. Christians receive these gifts at Baptism and they are renewed at Confirmation. We will reflect on the many gifts and virtues that are within each person who has received these sacraments, that they will be stirred into flame and become manifest in our personal lives and in our life in the Church.

Tuesdays, June 24 – July 1, 6:30pm – 8:00pm
Parish Center, Room B
Sr. Helen Therese and the Adult Faith Formation Team

The students in the preschool 3's class celebrated learning letters Q & U with a Queens & Kings parade! Each student dressed in their best royal attire and paraded in front of our school as family and SJS students cheered them on!

We learned that letters Q & U are best friends and often stick together to form words!

It was a lovely day for all and a wonderful way for the preschoolers to wrap up their study of the letters!
