Go Make of All Disciples

Do you find following Jesus hard?

Jesus in today's Gospel (Luke 12:49-53) warns his followers not to be taken by surprise if his message provokes conflict and division. I am certainly aware that following Jesus is hard. The way Jesus commands us to live is countercultural to the way society is now. But in a way, it's always been that way. In today's Gospel, he comes to set the earth on fire! Now, is it a literal fire? No. The division is for each of us to determine for ourselves - do I want to walk the way Jesus wants me to or do I want to walk the way I want to? This path entails struggle (sin, desire, selfishness, the list goes on). If we look to our baptism, we can find some answers to this difficult question and path. Baptism brings both refreshment and joy from being washed of sin, as well as an induction into a difficult, lifelong burning away of anything within that stands opposed to the Gospel.

Those baptized in Christ are called and empowered to continue Jesus' mission of healing divisions. Our Psalm today from Psalm 40 gives us some marching orders: "He put a new song into my mouth." Words matter: they tear people down or build people up. Part of healing divisions is using our mouths for good. Our simple but profound Psalm response is, "Lord, come to my aid!" I invite you to offer that prayer to the Lord - to come to your aid. Allow your heart to be opened to the areas in your life where there is division. Consider what areas of your life need to be burned away so you can live more freely in the light of the Gospel.

God bless, Sean Calvin / Director of Discipleship Formation

Studying the Sunday Readings

Besides prayerful meditation on Sacred Scripture and attentive listening when it is read at Mass, one of the most effective ways to grow in understanding and love for the Bible is to join a group that meets to discuss the Sunday Readings which will be proclaimed at the next Eucharistic liturgy.

There are numerous benefits to this study which includes spiritual growth, a deeper understanding of God's inspired word, fostering a more vibrant faith and strengthened relationships with others. This study offers a profound guidance and wisdom for navigating life's challenges and making sound decisions.

NEEDING: Back Packs and School Supplies for Our Children and Children in Shelters

We are collecting back packs and school supplies for Grosse Ile schools and the shelters for the next 3 weeks. Every year we have gotten a request from the teachers at the schools, for the children whose parents cannot purchase these items. Thank you for your support! Backpacks can be dropped off at the church or the office, 734-676-1378.

A Journey from Grief to Hope

Sacred Heart parish is offering a four-week seminar dealing with the loss of a loved one. The goal of the seminar is to reach out to others who have lost a loved one, to comfort them, to console them, and to listen to them. On your journey we want to offer you hope.

A Grief Seminar - Sacred Heart Parish

Sundays, continuing through August 24, Parish Center, Room A

Immediately following the 11:00 Mass, 12:15 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Facilitator: Sr. Helen Therese, OSF

For more information and to register call Sr. Helen Therese at the Parish Office, 734-676-1378, or e-mail helen@sacredheartgi.com.

Food Pantry Thank You!

July was a month of incredible generosity, and we are truly grateful for our parishioners' outpouring of support. Thanks to your kindness, we were able to provide nutritious food to 70 of the local families who rely on our Food Pantry.

Every dollar, every can of food, every thoughtful act made a difference. Your donations helped fill pantry shelves, and ensure we have the funds to buy meat and produce so that families had what they needed to prepare healthy meals. In a time when costs continue to rise, your contributions gave hope, comfort, and nourishment to our neighbors in need.

We are blessed to be part of a parish that steps forward with compassion. Because of your generosity in July, we can continue to serve families with dignity and care.

From the bottom of our hearts, thank you for making a difference. Your giving spirit is what keeps our Food Pantry thriving and our community strong.

*For I was hungry, and you gave me something to eat,
 I was thirsty, and you gave me something to drink,
 I was a stranger, and you invited me in.*
 (Matthew 25:35)

Peace and Love, Patty

Why is it important to support the Catholic Services Appeal?

The CSA raises crucial funds that support more than 170 ministries, services, and programs that fuel the Archdiocese, including: Catholic Schools, Clergy and Consecrated Life, Communication and Marketing, Evangelization, and Support to Parishes. This support is critical so we can respond to the material and spiritual needs of individuals and families throughout Southeast Michigan. This is how we act from the heart, putting Christ and his mission above all else.

O.C.I.A. Inquiry Invitation - Sunday, August 24 in the Courtyard after the 10:30 a.m. Mass

Come and learn more about what the O.C.I.A. journey entails, through a simple, friendly conversation about how you can begin to enter into a living faith and relationship with God in the Catholic Church. Our team members will be available in the courtyard, in between the Church and Activity Center, after the 10:30 a.m. Mass to personally meet with you and answer any questions you may have, along with providing information about why the Catholic Church is part of God's plan for salvation.

Also, know that you can still join O.C.I.A. without having decided to become Catholic as the first period is for inquiry and is dedicated to evangelization, to answering your questions about the Catholic faith and to help you prayerfully reach a decision about becoming Catholic.

St. Joseph's Book Club

Join us for our next St. Joseph's Book Club meeting on Sunday, September 7 from 6 PM to 8 PM in the St. Joseph Parish Center. All are welcome! On September 7, Deacon Bob will lead a discussion on his book, "Eleazar and the Messiah" [1]. This book presents an eyewitness narrative on Jesus' ministry with passages from the New Testament and portions of Acts. Eleazar, the narrator, represents us as we struggle to understand the gospels and their meaning and purpose in our lives. In his commentary, Deacon Bob places us with Jesus on his mission to help us understand the gospel message.
