Go Make of All Disciples

Did you know we have a ministry to those who are grieving?

Our one-on-one Stephen Ministry is available for anyone experiencing any grief or loss in their lives. We have over 30 trained Stephen Ministers, who are parishioners of the parishes in our Family of Parishes. We have 13 people currently in the care of a Stephen Minister. I know it can be a humbling experience, acknowledging the fact that you may need some spiritual support with your grief. The only way people know of this opportunity of healing is for you to tell them about it. If you know someone in your life who is hurting in some way, we can help. Direct them to our Stephen Ministry. If nothing else, they can call the parish office, but also email fopstephenministry@gmail.com.

So what do we do when we meet in Stephen Ministry? It's simply a safe and confidential place to share whatever is on your heart and mind. We would meet individually, typically once a week, for as long as you need. Some begin to taper off after a while of working through some healing. So, you may go to bi-weekly, then monthly. The goal is to get you in a place of healing where you can work through a new normal in your life. Our Stephen Ministers are trained in spiritual care and support of people in moments of grief and loss. Pray for our Stephen Ministers, but also pray that those whose hearts are stuck in a place in their lives that healing is needed.

This is also for people who aren't necessarily stuck but who need some spiritual care and guidance after a loss. The worst thing that happens is that you meet with a Stephen Minister a few times and find in that encounter the healing and peace that you have sought out. Know that our Stephen Ministry is here for anyone who seeks, anyone who comes searching for healing and peace in their lives.

God bless, Sean Calvin

A Special Thank You...

Dear Fr. Marc,

Thank you for opening your doors to me and to the Roman Catholic Diocese of Kafanchan! I had fun being with the incredible people you left to look after me and to help me get by over the weekend.

Thank you for the opportunity to preach this year's MCP at St. Cyprian, Sacred Heart, and the beautiful chapel of St. Anne. Bishop Julius sends his regards and deep appreciation.

Thank you again for your charity and solidarity.

Kind regards, Fr. Williams Abba

Stephen Ministry is a high-quality, one-to-one, Christ-centered care to people in the congregation and the community experiencing life difficulties. Some difficulties include death of a loved one, loss of job, divorce, etc.

Studying the Sunday Readings

Besides prayerful meditation on Sacred Scripture and attentive listening when it is read at Mass, one of the most effective ways to grow in understanding and love for the Bible is to join a group that meets to discuss the Sunday Readings which will be proclaimed at the next Eucharistic liturgy.

There are numerous benefits to this study which includes spiritual growth, a deeper understanding of God's inspired word, fostering a more vibrant faith and strengthened relationships with others. This study offers a profound guidance and wisdom for navigating life's challenges and making sound decisions.

From Archbishop Weisenburger: Special Collection for Gaza

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops asks all dioceses across the U.S. are asked to take up an emergency collection for the suffering of Gaza. The issue is catastrophic and I'm humbly asking you to take up a second collection as requested at your earliest convenience.

Joining bishops across the United States, Archbishop Edward J. Weisenburger is urging Detroit-area Catholics "to be most generous" this week and next in supporting a "critical collection" to provide emergency humanitarian aid for the starving people of Gaza, a crisis that has reached "catastrophic" levels, he said. The collection, sponsored by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, will be taken up the weekends of August 16-17 and August 23-24 in Detroit-area parishes.

Why is it important to support the Catholic Services Appeal?

The CSA raises crucial funds that support more than 170 ministries, services, and programs that fuel the Archdiocese, including: Catholic Schools, Clergy and Consecrated Life, Communication and Marketing, Evangelization, and Support to Parishes. This support is critical so we can respond to the material and spiritual needs of individuals and families throughout Southeast Michigan. This is how we act from the heart, putting Christ and his mission above all else.

St. Joseph's Book Club

Join us for our next St. Joseph's Book Club meeting on Sunday, September 7 from 6 PM to 8 PM in the St. Joseph Parish Center. All are welcome! On September 7, Deacon Bob will lead a discussion on his book, "Eleazar and the Messiah" [1]. This book presents an eyewitness narrative on Jesus' ministry with passages from the New Testament and portions of Acts. Eleazar, the narrator, represents us as we struggle to understand the gospels and their meaning and purpose in our lives. In his commentary, Deacon Bob places us with Jesus on his mission to help us understand the gospel message.
