Go Make of All Disciples

Have you ever asked someone to pray for you?

I sure have! There's real power in prayer. Prayer for someone or something doesn't change God: it changes us! Catholics sometimes get questions around why we have saints. Not only are saints wonderful examples of living the Catholic faith, they are interceding for us. To pray to the saints for intercession is absolutely different than praying to God. Saint Brigid, for example, will not answer prayers. God answers prayers, in God's own time. It would be appropriate to pray to Saint Bridgid to intercede on your behalf. I raise this as the Church has two new saints: St. Pier Giorgio Frassati and St. Carlo Acutis. It has surely drawn a lot of media attention as these are the first saints Pope Leo XIV has canonized, but also because St. Carlo particularly, was the first millennial to be canonized.

Canonization is a declaration by the Pope that a deceased person is raised to full honors of the altar. Two miracles must be credited to the person, meaning someone prayed to that person for their intercession and were healed of some ailment. For example, the healing of Domenico Sellan through the intercession of St. Pier Giorgio Frassati, who was dying of tuberculosis in 1933. As the fall unfolds toward the Solemnity of All Saints on November 1, I encourage you to pray about a patron saint for your life. Maybe it is connected to your profession (St. Florian for firefighters for example), or maybe revisiting your Confirmation name (mine is St. Joseph!).

Our Faith Formation Year opens on Monday, September 29!

Our children's faith formation programs in our family of parishes begins with a Mass at 6 pm at St. Cyprian for all of our faith formation programs. Everyone is welcome to attend and pray for our young people exploring the faith. The Mass is for the Feast of Sts. Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael, Archangels. This is another way to pray to the saints for intercession. I pray for our young people, entrusting them to the Archangels and to their Guardian Angels as they embark on a new catechetical year. I invite you into that prayer as well.

If you are a family who has not yet registered, you are still welcome to register by scanning the QR code!

God Bless,
Sean Calvin

Priest's Pension Plan

The Archdiocese of Detroit is blessed to have 93 senior priests who are no longer assigned to parishes. Many of these men continue to give of themselves in countless ways of service for which we are most grateful.

During Masses next weekend, our parish will take up a special collection, With Thanks for Their Service in Christ, to support the Priests' Pension Plan and to help our parish pay its annual per-priest assessment. Please reflect on the ways priests have had a positive impact on your life and prayerfully consider contributing to support our priests' retirement.

Studying the Sunday Readings

Besides prayerful meditation on Sacred Scripture and attentive listening when it is read at Mass, one of the most effective ways to grow in understanding and love for the Bible is to join a group that meets to discuss the Sunday Readings which will be proclaimed at the next Eucharistic liturgy.

There are numerous benefits to this study which includes spiritual growth, a deeper understanding of God's inspired word, fostering a more vibrant faith and strengthened relationships with others. This study offers a profound guidance and wisdom for navigating life's challenges and making sound decisions.

They have been learning about the ancient civilizations of Mesopotamia and Sumer, the mystery of the Holy Trinity, and compound sentences. They also learned about protagonists and antagonists in works of fiction. In the pictures below, students illustrated their favorite main character and villain duos like Snow White and the Evil Queen, Anna and Hans (from Frozen), Super Mario and Bowser, and Iron Man and Thanos.
