The Mission Statement of St. Anne Parish

"We, the people of St. Anne, are a growing Catholic Community with various gifts and talents, and we are open to the Spirit among us. Rooting ourselves in The Word of God, we reach out to all in loving service, witnessing, and celebrating the life of Jesus Christ in our midst."

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

St. Oscar Romero said, "We cannot do everything, and there is a sense of liberation in realizing that. This enables us to do something and to do it very well. It may be incomplete, but it is the beginning, a step along the way, an opportunity for the Lord's grace to enter and do the rest."

There were a group of ladies many years ago who made quilts. They were beautiful creations reflecting inspirational designs artfully composed from the simple scraps of fabric each woman would bring to their individual pieces. There was no plan for the finished project as each finished work became the combined creation of what each woman contributed. They abounded in vibrant colors and dazzled the beholder with intricate patterns and their myriad textures. They were so beautiful that they became coveted family treasures passed from generation to generation. Those women never realized the power of their work. Countless babies rested in the comfort of those quilts warmly nestled in the legacy of tradition they were fortunate to inherit. They adorned countless homes with their beauty and brought joy and solace to many faces.

We cannot do everything. We are not meant to. Our work in life is to contribute our individual piece, a piece that reflects the unique thumbprint I claim as my own. We only have to do small things well. Then, as St. Oscar Romero reminds us, the Lord's grace will enter and do the rest. We have to trust that this is true just as those women trusted in the eventual beauty of their final work.

Eucharistic blessings are blessings that start small and multiply. We all come to life with only a few loaves of bread and a few fish. Not any single one of us has all that it takes to transform our world. Who knows what God will do with the little we have and how many will benefit from our kindness, compassion, wisdom, courage, conviction, love, warmth, zeal, faith, and hope? That young lad never dreamed that his few leftovers would do all that they did. God shows up in unexpected ways! Where would life's adventure and fun be if it were any other way? Being able to be part of bringing God's creative, transforming, healing to the world opens us up to wonder, awe, and excitement! We can all bring our little piece to the bigger work of God that can result in being a coveted jewel passed generation to generation. This is good news indeed!

Bread and wine transform into Christ's Body and Blood and we become what we eat. Trust that.

St. Frederick's School Memorial Mass and Reunion

A Summer Prayer for Children

Joyful God, we thank you for Summer time.

We thank for the sun in the sky, the cool lake water, and the sand.

We thank you for picnics, swim days, bike rides and play days.

We thank you for our family and friends.

We ask that you bless us on this beautiful day and we praise you for this beautiful Creation that you have given to us.

Amen

LITURGICAL LIFE

RESPONDING to the Call

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

It's All in the Basket

St. Therese of Lisieux made a point of going the extra mile in kindness towards those people who really got under her skin. It was part of her own brand of Everyday Stewardship — thanking God for all His creation, even the parts with which, in her own humanness, she struggled to cope.

I think about this a lot when I challenge myself to give thanks for things that bother me and people who challenge me. When I do this, I envision Christ giving thanks over those insufficient loaves. How many of us would see that paltry little basket and kick a rock in frustration because we can't feed all our people? "You didn't give me enough, Lord! You didn't give me enough patience, enough money, enough creativity, enough stamina to be a good steward. If you had given me more, I could also give more!"

In those moments of despair, we need to take a good look at the life God has given us. We need to look at the trials and the challenges and the shortcomings. The hopes that didn't pan out, the disappointments that keep cropping up. Somewhere therein lies what we need to be the steward God asks us to be, just as St. Therese's own stewardship was defined by the people she simply couldn't stand.

God does not give us all we want. He does not give us all we ask for. He does us one better: He gives us all we need. It's all in the basket.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Frank's Farm Market

The Knights of Columbus are pleased to announce the return of The Harvest Market, now under a new name -

Frank's Farm Market,

In memory of Frank Genovese. Fresh picked vegetables and flowers will be available after all Masses this weekend, and throughout the summer. For an at will donation, you and your family can enjoy locally grown produce!

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

We are considering homeschooling our children. Does this present a problem when it is time for them to receive the sacraments? What must we do?

Answer:

Homeschooling is legal in all fifty states and like other types of education, has its advantages and its drawbacks. There are many factors to consider, and each family has to decide what the best way to educate its children is. With religious education, many dioceses have a formal policy that outlines procedures and expectations, some of which include more than just academic information. Call the religious education office to find out what they are for your area.

In general, though, an appointment with your parish priest to discuss your situation is the best first step. An opportunity to discuss what is available, what the expectations are for each sacrament, and how you can best prepare your child helps make your time of preparation more effective. The priest can direct you to good catechetical materials, parent information classes, and other choices and possibilities for your child. All parents need to be part of their child's religious education, taking a lead in instilling the values and beliefs of their faith.

Communication and information helps us all to teach and preach the Gospel as Jesus did.

Worship

The theme for today's readings is from the refrain of the Responsorial Psalm: "The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs."

In the first readings, the prophet Elisha uses 20 barley loaves to feed a hundred people, despite his servants' doubts. Elisha knows it will be more than enough: "For thus says the Lord, they shall eat and there shall be some left over." The disciples Philip & Andrew are doubtful, like the servant, that the meager amount will be enough. Elisha had 20 loaves, they have only 5. Still, after everyone eats and is satisfied, 12 baskets are filled with leftovers. God has enough to satisfy the desires of all his people.

The miraculous loaves also point beyond themselves to the true bread: Jesus, the bread from heaven, who feeds his people with his body.

WHO SETS UP FOR MASS?

Do you ever think about the people behind the scenes who set everything up for Mass? They are called Mass Stewards here at St. Anne and we could use a few more for each Mass and funerals.

Here's a brief description of their duties:

- Open doors, turn on lights, light candles, process in with cross.
- Set up all vessels, hosts, wine, cloths.
- Assist the priest
- Clean up after Mass.

We will be happy to train you, let me know which Mass you prefer. This is a great opportunity to serve. You can reach me at 248-627-3965 ext. 107 or julie@churchofstanne.org.

Feast of Sts. Anne & Joachim July 26th

We celebrate the feast of St. Anne, our patroness, and Joachim, the parents of our Blessed Mother and grandparents of Jesus. Pray for us St. Anne! That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Have a wonderful week!
