God bless all military, first responders, health workers, and all those who can't be with their families on Christmas Day.

*May the joy of our Savior's birth be with you,
WHEREVER YOU MAY BE.*

Christmas

Today marks the end of the Advent season and the beginning of the Christmas season. We have lighted four candles these past four weeks and asked God to help us be present to our neighbors and friends. Now in the Christmas season we are called to be Christ in the flesh to our world.

Let us pray...

God,
you became human through the obedience of a simple young woman named Mary. Mary is our model of faith. May we be faithful to your word as Mary was. Give us the courage to face each day with the yes that Mary gave to you. We ask this through the incarnate God, who comes to us again during this Christmas season.

Amen.

Fr. Craig's Contemplations

Merry Christmas!

12-24-21

In this sacred time, we have prayed to "make way for the Lord." The Christmas liturgies push us to appreciate each year in a new way the gift God has given to us and we are also reminded how it was prepared for each of us from the beginning of time.

These sacred readings allow us to come to terms with two divine messages, one message directed to King David and the other to Our Lady. Friends, these messages are indeed interconnected, each reminding us that the kingdom Jesus came to build, is a spiritual kingdom which has no end.

In faith, we are invited to contemplate the meaning of the promise God made to King David, a thousand years before the Annunciation, He was already preparing His marvelous gift of Jesus' birth.

Consider the time you have personally prepared to give gifts to your loved one, it's clearly a sign of your affection for the person. God had prepared His great gift for us for centuries. And, Mary, as she received the message of the angel, was able to realize the great depth of God's love, in her prayers and in her thoughts, is the first to see the great plan that had begun so long ago was being fulfilled.

For a moment, I would like to digress and thank the wonderful staff of St. Anne's. Anne Schulz, Julie Neal, Steve Szach, Kim Zernec, Karyn Milligan, Marianne Boesch, Carol Zimcosky, Paul Czarnik and Laura Knaack. ALL of what you see in the beauty of our church is thanks to them. ALL of the pastoral support you receive is thanks to them. If you would, in your prayers, please offer a prayer of thanks for the devoted staff of St. Anne's Parish.

Now, together, with Mary, St. Anne and through their powerful intercession, let us in a new way, lift our hearts to access this great gift that God gives each of us each year at the Nativity of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Feast of the Holy Family

12-26-21

As we just gave thanks to God for the gift of the nativity of Jesus. The very next day, we are called to give thanks for the gift of the Holy Family. Jesus, Mary and Joseph, are said to be the icon of those bonded in love. What can we personally receive in our prayerful reflection of the Holy Family? Consider the grace of the union, with Jesus, Mary and Joseph. That grace strengthens each and every family, certainly each family has challenges and joys, but together families join onto a path of holiness, when they look to the Holy Family for heavenly intercession.

As God continues to show us, families are a gift from God. Yet authentic family happiness is achieved only if we live in love; the love God gives each of us at baptism. Blessed are we to be witness to a family whose members seek NOT his or her own joy, but the joy of the other members. When we are witness to a family that does this, we can be strengthened as witnesses to so great a love. A love that God planted into their hearts at baptism.

May the Lord be with you,

Fr. Craig

A Prayer for our Family this Christmas

Dear Lord, Bless our family.

Be so kind as to give us the unity, peace, and mutual love that You found in Your own family in the little town of Nazareth.

Saint Joseph,

Pray for the father of our family. Obtain for him the strength, the wisdom, and the prudence he needs to support and direct those under his care.

Mother Mary,

Pray for the mother of our family. Help her to be pure and kind, gentle and loving. For the more she resembles you, the better will our family be.

Lord Jesus,

Bless the children of our family. Help them to be good and devoted to their parents. Make them more and more like You. Let them grow, as You did, in wisdom and strength and grace before God.

Holy Family of Nazareth,

By your intercession, love, and holy example, make our family and home more and more like Yours, until we are all one family, happy and at peace in our true home with You. Amen.

33 Days to Morning Glory Marian Consecration

Marian consecration is fundamentally a promise of love and a gift of self that gives all that the Christian is and does completely and directly to the Mother of the Lord, which thereby allows her to unite us to her Divine Son in ways simply not possible without her powerful maternal intercession. Consecration to Jesus through Mary is to give oneself entirely to Mary in a self-donation of love that enables the Mediatrix of all graces to use her full intercessory power to keep a person faithful to his or her baptismal promises to Jesus Christ.

LITURGICAL LIFE

RESPONDING to the Call

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

All in the Family

At first glance, we can often find the image of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph and the Christ Child intimidating — who are we to aspire to that level of discipleship? How could we ever hope to conform ourselves to that mold? Sometimes, it can even be painful — perhaps we hail from a broken family or struggle with a broken relationship within our family, or perhaps we long to be a mother or a father ourselves and that state in life has eluded us.

But the image of the Holy Family is, in reality, a beautiful invitation to us all, no matter our vocation or our state in life, and the example of Mary, Joseph and Jesus is rich with the symbolism of stewardship.

You need not be a biological mother who has carried a child in her womb to be a mother in spirit. Who in your world needs you to love them with the heart of a mother?

The same goes for fatherhood. The Church and the world are crying out for the courageous witness of Christian men like St. Joseph. Who can you love with the steadfast, selfless protection of a father?

Who in your life needs you to love them with the faithful, unconditional love of a son? Who needs your gentle and constant love as a daughter?

We are the Body of Christ, friends. Those of us rejoicing in heaven, those of us suffering in purgatory, and those of us struggling here on earth. We are the great family. Let us love each other well.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

I have been away from the Church for a few years and really want to get active again, not so much for me, but for my children. Is this a bad reason to come back to Church?

Answer:

If you are on your way to the supermarket, and you are forced to detour from your usual route because of road work, does the food you buy taste different? Is the meal less filling? Are the vegetables less tasty? Of course not. In our faith journey, there are many detours called sin. Some are greater than others, some are even a bit longer. But God's grace comes to us in ways we understand and recognize and need. Your children leading you back to the Church is not as important as the fact that you are back.

This is an opportunity for you to renew, strengthen, and deepen your faith. Regardless of how we get to Church, or what draws us closer to God, the fact is we are there. Do what you need to do to get right with God and the Church. Go to confession, begin good family religious practices, and be involved in the ministries your parish offers. Be more than a lukewarm parishioner. Be the kind of Catholic you want your children to be.

FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY

Today's gospel refers to the Holy Family's pilgrimage to Jerusalem for the Passover, but something goes terribly wrong. There's nothing worse than a lost child; we can feel the parents' anguish. While Mary & Joseph agonized over their lost son, Jesus confounded the teachers in the temple with his questions and answers. When asked by his mother, "Where were you?" he replied, "Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?"

Thank You!

I would like to take this opportunity to thank those who helped make our Christmas celebrations wonderful. To all of the lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Mass Stewards and Ushers. To Cathy Genovese at Candy Cane Tree farm, for the beautiful greens. To Joe & Julie Wojciechowski at Wojo's Green House, for the beautiful poinsettias-and delivering them! To all who helped clean the church in preparation. And finally our music ministry, led by Laura and Paul, musicians, and the choirs making the Masses more meaningful with beautiful music. We are such a wonderful and loving parish family here at St. Anne, you know when you are here, you're home. Thank you all so much.

Wishing everyone a happy and healthy New Year!

TWO AWESOME OPPORTUNITIES IN 2022

February 6th we are invited to attend "RISE DETROIT" retreat and conference at Mercy High School. There will be inspirational speakers, live music, relevant workshops, Mass, adoration and Reconciliation. The cost is only $35 and we ask that you turn in your permission slip and money by January 3rd to reserve your spot and t-shirt.

March 12th we have the opportunity to "Be the Change" Through Right to Life-Lifespan. This engaging training for 7th-12th graders takes place at Auburn Hills Christian Center. We will be taught how to advocate for the pre-born, and be equipped with information. Please let Kim know if you are interested by January 15th. BOTH FORMS ARE AVAILABLE IN SOLANUS HALL.

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too.
