The Mission Statement of St. Anne Parish

"We, the people of St. Anne, are a growing Catholic Community with various gifts and talents, and we are open to the Spirit among us. Rooting ourselves in The Word of God, we reach out to all in loving service, witnessing, and celebrating the life of Jesus Christ in our midst."

Fr. Craig's Contemplations

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

For this weekend and next weekend, we will open up the beginning of St. Luke's Gospel. Scholars teach us that St. Luke's Gospel is the only to provide a "preface." You might immediately, think, "what about John's Gospel?" St. John's Gospel contains a "prologue" which is essentially what all of John's Gospel contains. Setting that aside, St. Luke's prologue is very concise and elegantly written, and describes WHY it was written. Which was "to provide an orderly, documented account of the life of Christ, starting right at the beginning."

We learn from the Second Vatican Council, Dei Verbum, "God, then wanted us to have a written permanent, divine testimony providing a firm basis for our faith." St. Luke stresses that there were "eyewitnesses" to the events, Our Lady, Mary; the Apostles, and the holy women and others who shared Jesus' life during His earthly pilgrimage.

And so, the framework, is built on the basis as a sacred text that should remain close to each of our hearts. From this, we "jump" literally into the fourth chapter of Luke's Gospel, which is the ministry of Jesus in Galilee. This is where we can enter both in our thoughts and prayers, this image of our Lord Jesus in the synagogue, reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah. [Isaiah 61:1-2] After Jesus completes His reading of the prophet Isaiah, which is where the prophet announces the coming of the of the Lord, who will free His people. In our Lord Jesus Christ, this sacred prophecy finds its fulfillment, for He is the Anointed, the Messiah whom God the Father has sent to His people in their time of tribulation. Jesus has been anointed by the Holy Spirit for the mission, God the Father has entrusted to Him. {Today, this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing. Ref. Luke 4:21}

Our Holy Catholic Church, as our Holy Father says is the field hospital for the soul, we continue the mission, Jesus began 20 centuries ago. Next month, on the evening of February 11th, St. Anne's will offer for all of the parish, a night of encounter. The evening event is titled, "Come, Encounter Christ." This event has been offered in other parishes throughout the country. It is a beautiful night of prayer and encounter with our Lord. Each of us are called to be on mission, to carry on the work Jesus' began in the time we are living, this for many will help stir up the Holy Spirit in a new way to help us share the light and love of the Gospel. Please prayerfully consider attending this beautiful night.

LITURGICAL LIFE

RESPONDING to the Call

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

Plant Your Works in the Word

One of the things about Scripture is that even the smallest word and shortest phrase can be critical to the overall message. When you take a quiet moment to rest with the Word, you find how quickly the most mundane sentence can reach out and grab you, pulling you into a deeper contemplation of some truth you hadn't even considered until then.

But we often fail to act as the Israelites in the Book of Nehemiah, standing before the Water Gate "listening attentively." Whether it's at Mass during the Liturgy of the Word or at home poring over the Bible, time after time we find ourselves less mindful than we could be. Our ears accept the sounds of the words and our eyes glance over the shape of the letters.

But are we mindful — truly?

The best answer is hopefully at least sometimes. There are always tasks to be completed, problems weighing on our minds that we can't quite give over to God. We lose ourselves in these things instead of in Scripture. We "clock in" with Bible reading instead of "diving in."

We can never forget that the words of the Lord are spirit and life. They are the soil that quickens the seed of all stewardship. There is no mindfulness, no prayer, no graciousness, no gratitude or accountability or sense of commitment unless there is the Word.

So let us pray today for mindfulness, that our every action will be grounded in the law of God — giving it true spirit and life.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

Is it right to sue someone? Isn't it a way of getting revenge?

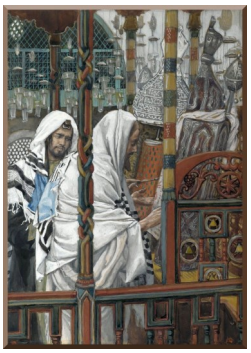
Answer:

Revenge is inflicting harm for harm's sake, the idea of an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, and then some. There is often a fine line between justice and mercy, between compensation and forgiveness. Unfortunately, things can happen to us that cause harm, suffering, and damage, regardless of people's intentions. When someone is hurt, especially in such a way that special care or treatment is required, the cost of that care needs to be paid.

In a perfect world, those with special needs, handicaps, or disabilities would find the help and care they need, including those who are injured or hurt. But justice is not always forthcoming, and people are not always fair. So, using the legal system to right a wrong is sometimes the only option.

In some cases, it is the only way that people can get the help they need and deserve. However, frivolous lawsuits, or 'fishing for money' is not only unfair, but immoral as well. The law is there to protect people and making use of it when necessary is a good thing.

Worship



Jesus returned to Nazareth and entered the synagogue and read from the prophet Isaiah. We can only imagine the puzzled looks of those there as they heard Jesus say after reading from the scroll, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

ST. JOHN BOSCO PRAYER INITIATIVE

Help the Archdiocese of Detroit engage 1,000 volunteers to pray for young people and those who minister to them for the Feast of St. John Bosco. Early in Priesthood John was assigned to minister in the prisons where he met many troubled young men. Moved with compassion, he would become a great evangelist of the young and open numerous orphanages, oratory schools and social programs to minister to the young men. St. John Bosco was canonized less than 50 years after his death-Pope Pius XI bestowed upon him the title of "Father and Teacher of Youth" at his canonization. We ask for his intercession as we join together in prayer from January 30th-February 5th. You, your family, your friends and neighbors are all welcome to sign up for at least one hour during this time to pray. You can sign up through boscoprayer.org. Let's fill in all the slots along with the other churches in our Diocese, all information is on the website. Our High School Youth Group will be taking an hour on Jan. 31st at the end of our Youth Group meeting.

God Bless, Kim
