The Mission Statement of St. Anne Parish

"We, the people of St. Anne, are a growing Catholic Community with various gifts and talents, and we are open to the Spirit among us. Rooting ourselves in The Word of God, we reach out to all in loving service, witnessing, and celebrating the life of Jesus Christ in our midst."

Fr. Craigs Contemplations

18th Week in Ordinary Time

Recently, I was told by an elderly Priest, it would "profit all of us" if we have a bible in one hand and a newspaper in the other. Indeed, it's a valid point, to discern what our ancestors in faith lived through and how it's related to what we live through today.

This weekend, the Gospel begins with a question from a man, attempting to draw our Lord Jesus into a dispute regarding an inheritance. Jesus, steps aside from being an "interpreter" and warns the questioner about the dangers regarding the sin of greed. Jesus doesn't even use the "tough words" of the first reading from Ecclesiastes. (Only once every three years, do we hear the proclamation, "Vanity of vanities! All things are vanity!") {Note: from Hebrew, vanity can mean "fleeting breath."}

Jesus teaches the questioner through a parable of the surplus harvest. The danger of the man with the surplus harvest is that he is living isolated (some may say, he was living in a vacuum.) Jesus' point – as a disciple we can't do this, we must avoid living in isolation (living in a vacuum.) We are called, with a surplus, to consider those who are in need. (The key phrase we must take to prayer, "Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God.")

Indeed, we need to keep our eyes "forward" – that is keep our eyes fixed on Jesus – and "store up" the goods which will help us in heaven. And so, how do we "store up goods" for heaven? In service to those who need the presence of Jesus in their life.

May God be with you this week!
 Fr. Craig

The Everyday Stewardship Vision

As the baptized, we are called to grow in our faith to a point where we respond to the call of Jesus Christ regardless of the cost. This leads us to an everyday way of living, not just a series of activities or good deeds. When we find ourselves truly living a stewardship way of life, we realize that we have transformed, to aid in transforming our parishes and then the world around us.

6 Characteristics of an Everyday Steward

Mindful -Lives in the present, without the baggage of the past, and without fear of the future.

Prayerful -Sees entire day as an opportunity to be in the presence of God.

Grateful -Gives thanks for all of God's blessings, especially the little everyday ones.

Gracious -Receives all of God's creation in a welcoming and hospitable manner.

Committed -Perseveres daily in a way of life acknowledging everything belongs to God.

Accountable -Understands the value of parish community and the role it plays.

HOW DO WE ENTER THE CHURCH?

Actually, there are several ways people enter the Church. Many of us were born into a Christian family and began our entry by receiving Baptism as an infant. We then spent many years coming to know Jesus until we could "confirm" our own personal faith in the Trinity.

But some of us have reached adulthood before seeking a personal relationship with Jesus. For un-baptized adults, we bring them through a process we call the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). We also use this same process for those baptized in another faith and seeking to join the Catholic Church. In this instance we catechize and then one makes a profession of faith.

ARE YOU AN ADULT SEEKING BAPTISM?

If you would like to learn more about how you might be baptized, please give us a call so we can begin your journey with Christ.

ARE YOU AN UN-CONFIRMED ADULT?

Have you been baptized, catechized to the point of receiving your First Holy Communion, but for some reason, have never been Confirmed? Give us a call so that we can help you along your journey into full initiation.

Whatever your circumstance may be, we begin by making an appointment for a simple interview. This interview will help us know how to best serve you and help you along on your personal journey.

A Summer Prayer

Lord God,
Creator of all things,
guide our steps and
strengthen our hearts,
during these months of summer and vacation days.

Grant us refreshment of mind and body. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

What We Store in the Barn

I once knew a godly woman who had truly tasted the bitterness of this earthly life. This woman knew pain. She knew sacrifice. She knew hard labor and loss, including the death of a cherished child. She worked each day at a low-paying job, waiting patiently for her 65th birthday, when she could retire and devote herself full-time to her grandchildren. She crossed off the dwindling days on her calendar like a first grader waiting for Christmas.

Ninety-eight days before she was set to retire, she died suddenly. Her name was erased from the schedule at work and penciled over with that of her replacement hire.

All things are vanity.

I think we all know someone like this, don't we? If the details aren't exactly the same, the outline of the story is: someone labors "with wisdom and knowledge and skill," in the words of Ecclesiastes. And what profit comes to him? Sorrow and grief all his days. The proverbial barn filled with harvest and left to rot.

But I'll let you in on a secret: this isn't a sad story. I've only told you part of it.

This woman heard, daily, the voice of God, and against it she never hardened her heart, whatever news it brought her. This woman loved as hard as she worked. Every action was a form of evangelization. To talk to her was to feel the embrace of Christ.

As much as she waited for that retirement that never came, it was never the harvest in her barn.

This is what it means to be a true steward: to seek what is above.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

Why do the Gospels differ in their details? I was surprised to learn that not all of the Gospels tell the same stories, for example, the Nativity. Doesn't this take away from their credibility?

Answer:

Take any event that happens, from family trips to national politics and ask two or three different people to explain what happened. You will get a different version of the same story. People tend to tell the story from their perspective, and past experience shades what we recall and how we recall it. Our choice of words and what details we leave in or out is also influenced by the audience who is listening to our tales.

The Gospel writers are no different. Each one tells the story of Jesus from their own perspective. Versions differ in some details, not because one is true and the other is not, but because each Gospel writer, or Evangelist, has a different theological point to communicate as well as a different audience for whom he is writing. He picks and chooses the details of his Gospel based on what message he is preaching, what his audience may already know, and what message they need to hear. The various details of the Gospels point more to their authenticity as a record of the church's experience and understanding of Jesus. In a good study Bible, the background notes for each Gospel contain a lot of information that helps us better understand each Evangelist and his message.

Worship

The rich man in the Gospel failed to share his abundance with others. Instead, he looked after only himself, thereby revealing that he was poor in what matters to God. God is rich in love, for God is love itself. The more that God's love fills us, the more we will want to share what we have with others.

Be an Informed Voter

As people of Life, our work for protecting mothers and unborn babies will be more intense as we reach out to inform people what this REPRODUCTIVE FREEDOM FOR ALL is all about. To encourage people to vote for Life not death. This is an urgent time in Michigan history to live out your pro-life values. Will you join us? I hope and pray you will! Strength and dedication to Life has been refreshed once again...and we will work more courageously to do all we can to help in protecting mothers and unborn babies in our state! We can help you with what you need to arm yourself with knowledge/education and provide handouts to people so you can discuss what is taking place. Just contact one of our offices by email or call us. For all those 18 and older who are legal voters, November 8th will be here before we know it. Will Light and Truth overcome the darkness and lies? Will we have a much needed pro-life victory here in our state?
