FR. CRAIG'S CONTEMPLATIONS

Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ

For the Feast of Corpus Christi, we are reading from the "Bread of Life" discourse from St. John's Gospel. We hear the timeless words, He (Jesus) "gave them bread from heaven to eat" (Jn. 6:31). We then hear how the crowds try to follow Jesus after He performs a miracle of the multiplication of loaves and fishes (Jn. 6:1-15). The next day, they catch up with Jesus again. Jesus is explaining "what to eat" means. Jesus is teaching that He is the living bread, and whoever eats this bread will live forever. In faith we know that it is through the Eucharist we are strengthened to have the ability to live with the Lord and our loved ones in heaven. And yet, it is a free invitation that we can choose to accept or reject.

Indeed, the greatest gift in our life is the Eucharist. Yet it takes "faith" to "see" that truth, to "see" that is Jesus. We are living in a time, where so many do not believe that the Eucharist is the body, blood, soul and divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ. And so, throughout the nation, the Catholic Church has brought about Eucharistic Conferences, to again emphasize this fundamental truth.

For our churches to be filled again, we must ask in prayer for the GRACE to be filled with awe at the beauty and power of the Most Blessed Sacrament (the Eucharist.)

On a practical note, it is with great joy we welcome back Father Matthew Chartier. He was ordained a Priest for the Diocese of Marquette, June 2, 2023. Father will offer both Masses on June 11, 2023! I thank God for the people of St. Anne's who were so supportive of Father Matthew in his time with us! Father Matthew will offer Masses at St. Anne's from June 11 through June 16, 2023. If you are able to attend one of his Masses, you will receive a plenary indulgence. {What is an indulgence?} "An indulgence is a partial or plenary according as it removes either part or all temporal punishment due to sin." (ref. #1471 Catechism of the Catholic Church)

Thank you to all who have supported CSA. We have raised over $8,200; our goal is just over $69,000.

So you are all aware, there will be a Eucharistic Procession through downtown Clarkston on June 11, 2023, beginning at about 12:00 (noon) outside of St. Daniel Roman Catholic Church.

Finally, for those who have prayed for my Father Paul, thank you! (We are asked to write these bulletin's early, so I will provide an update in the mid-week through e-mail.) May the Lord be with you!

Fr. Craig

READING REFLECTIONS

First Reading: At the end of their forty-year journey in the desert, Moses instructs the Israelites not to forget how God taught them to depend on Him alone. How might you remind yourself of this important lesson in life?

Second Reading: Paul teaches the Corinthians that through the body and blood of Christ, the community of believers are "one body." Who in your life needs to hear this unifying message?

Gospel: Jesus teaches the crowds that through his body and blood believers will obtain eternal life and be raised on the last day. This is the core of our Catholic belief about Jesus. How do you think we can best celebrate this gift of eternal life?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

The Priesthood and the Eucharist

"These two Sacraments were born together," wrote St. John Paul II of the priesthood and the Eucharist, "and their destiny is indissolubly linked until the end of the world."

The Eucharist is such a beautiful example of how God, conscious of our limitations, bends to meet us. He once came to us cloaked in the flesh, that we might recognize Him. Now He comes as the very means by which we nourish ourselves: food and drink, the most familiar and comforting thing in the world to us. How easy He makes it to fulfill his command that we become one with Him. How generous He is to make such a sacred thing also accessible.

We can say the same of the priesthood, and of the men He calls to its number. How generous of Him to make such an accessible thing — our sons, our brothers, our uncles, our cousins — sacred. How generous of Him to allow these human creations — who share in our own faults — to be the means through which He comes to us in the Eucharist.

Without the Eucharist, we would have no eternal life. Without priests, we would have no Eucharist. On this, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, let's give thanks for our priests, and redouble our prayers that God will send us good and holy ones — manna from Heaven in our wandering exile.

"Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day." — John 6:54

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: How do you explain "Real Presence" to children?

Answer: The first Communion class is filled with excitement to the point of bursting! They are just awestruck by every new thing they learn about Jesus. Their enthusiasm is contagious as they rattle off the names of the things in church, the vessels and vestments used at Mass, and the names of their pastors and priests. Of course, they know Christ can do anything because he's God. He comes to us in Holy Communion because he loves us so much that he wants to be with us. And he comes to us in the form of bread and wine. We really receive him in the Eucharist.

Sometimes it is easier to explain this to children than to adults. Their faith and trust in Jesus is not limited by the questions and doubts that often come with the question of how he does it. Rather, they focus on the question "why," and the answer is something they can easily grasp: love. Christ wants to be with us because he loves us. Nothing is purer in truth or in faith. Not even the theological explanation of transubstantiation, or philosophical reasoning or symbolic references, come close. Christ takes on the form of bread and wine to be simple and approachable so that no one is afraid or turned away. His love for us is complete and total. We try to love him the same way in return. For a child, it is simple. For us adults, we keep trying. "Unless you turn and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven" (Mt 18:3).
