From the Desk of Father Hahn:

Thank you

A big thank-you to Alex Brady, who has served so well as organist and cantor in our parish over the last number of years. Alex began during High School helping out and then after Valerie Tanner moved, he took it full-time and has done a great job. His studies and work in Columbus have now made it too difficult to make the trek every Sunday. We will certainly miss him! Please stop over for a reception in the parish hall after Mass today and express your gratitude for the great job he has done in bringing such beauty to the liturgy!

All Saints and All Souls

A reminder that this Friday, November 1 is a Holy Day of Obligation, the Feast of All Saints. Mass will be celebrated here at 5:30 p.m. on Friday. Saturday, November 2, is the Feast of All Souls – a day to pray for all of our beloved deceased. Mass will be held here Saturday morning at 8:30 a.m.

Altar Server Vesture

You will soon be noticing a slight change in the dress of some of our servers. The boys will now dress in cassock (the black robe) and surplice (the white upper garment) and the girls will dress in the white alb. Why is that? Priests normally dressed in a cassock when they were out in the world. They would then put on an alb when they were celebrating the Mass (with the other vestments going over the alb – as we still do today). Cassocks were (and are – to a degree) the "street" dress of a priest. Boys would traditionally serve in cassock and surplice as a way to help them see themselves as a priest. That is, it would help them to discern the vocation, the way that a boy in the civil air patrol might wear a uniform that in some way resembles the Air Force's in order to identify them and also to help them envision themselves wearing that "permanently." The cassock then for centuries has been exclusively normal male street attire (for priests). An alb was a special set of clothing and used only for the Mass. In recent times when the Church allowed girl altar servers and other lay ministers, the alb was the preferred choice of dress for the Mass for lay ministers – as it is exclusively used for sacred service. At St. Mary, the boys now will wear the "street" clothes of the priest (although with the sacred clothes – the surplice) with the hope that it helps them envision themselves as, and be more open to, a vocation to the priesthood. The girls wear the sacred vestment of the Mass, the alb, since, as female, their unique gifts to the Church do not include the possibility of serving as a priest. It is even more fitting that their white alb matches the white habit of our beloved Franciscan Sisters. What a beautiful vocation to envision themselves in!

In Christ,
Father Hahn

Our religious give countless hours each week for the salvation of our souls. Can we spare an hour to join in prayer for them, current and future?

We are still looking for a Church Photographer and a Church Warden to arrive early for Mass and get things ready, as well as locking up after Mass. Call or email the church office if you can help our parish in this way. Also, Outreach still needs a food delivery person on Wednesday mornings. You can call Autumn at the Outreach for more information at 947-7151. If you haven't volunteered to help with Coffee Hour please see the bulletin board, or stop and talk with Cindy.

2020 Offering Envelopes: Parishioners who wish to keep receiving their annual offering envelope packets need to do nothing. If you want to begin receiving or discontinue receiving the offering envelope packets, please contact the parish office no later than November 17th, 2019. The 2020 envelope packets will be placed on a table at the entrance of the church in mid to late December.

Our Annual Thanksgiving Dinner will be November 17th. After the great success of last year, we will have a Live Auction again. We are looking for new items that can be donated. We are also calling all Crafty Parishioners to make hand crafted items for the auction. See Cindy if you can donate.

Alex Brady will be having a solo saxophone recital on Monday, November 4th at 9:00 p.m. at Capital University in Mees Hall. There is no admission fee and there will be a reception following the concert. Everyone is invited.

Preventing Homelessness Through Mentoring: the GRIT program. The Pike County council of Churches Outreach will be implementing a new program to help the residents moving out of BridgeHaven. Can you help mentor a person to a better life? Contact Jeri Ann Lagnese for details.

Catholic Considerations for Our Earthly Passing

Read the full version at respectlifeprogram.org/end-of-life-considerations.

We prepare for eternal life by choosing to love and follow God. Our journey with Christ includes equipping our consciences to make morally good judgments at the end of life. While no summary can substitute for thorough catechesis, one thing is clear: we are entrusted by God with the gift of life. This obliges us to make use of appropriate, effective medical care. The Church affirms the inviolable dignity of every person, regardless of the duration or extent of the person's incapacity. Nothing diminishes the sanctity of a person's life, or the obligation to protect and care for it. Those who are sick should not be alone, and, even after death, accompaniment continues by praying for those who have passed.

We are entrusted by God with the gift of life.
