THE PRICE OF FREEDOM

Today’s readings promise that if we could escape from the shackles of our attachments we would be happier, freer, more peaceful. Luke’s Gospel begins, “When the days for Jesus’ being taken up were fulfilled, he resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem.” Aware of the opposition and danger awaiting him, Jesus went forward.

Naturally, brave people volunteered to join him. But Jesus cautioned them. Could they give up their attachments to home and possessions, friends and family, conventional responsibilities? A tough challenge, but not unprecedented. Centuries before, Elijah had criticized Elisha for wanting time just to kiss his parents good-bye before following Elijah.

Just where would such a path take Elisha? Or Jesus’ followers? Or us? Paul tells us, “For freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery.” The outcome is freedom, but if the requirements don’t give us pause, then maybe we’re not paying close enough attention.

EL PRECIO DE LA LIBERTAD

Las lecturas de hoy nos aseguran que si somos capaces de escapar de nuestras ataduras seremos más felices, más libres y tendremos más paz. El Evangelio de Lucas comienza diciendo “Cuando ya se acercaba el tiempo en que tenía que salir de este mundo, Jesús tomó la firme determinación de emprender el viaje a Jerusalén”. Consciente de la resistencia y el peligro que le esperaban, Jesús siguió adelante.

Naturalmente, unos valientes se brindaron a acompañarlo. Pero Jesús les advirtió. ¿Serían capaces de romper sus ataduras con sus casas, posesiones, amigos y familias, de abandonar sus responsabilidades normales? Un duro reto, pero no sin precedentes. Siglos antes, Elías criticó a Eliseo por pedirle tiempo para ir a despedirse de sus padres antes de seguir a Elías.

¿A dónde llevaría a Eliseo ese camino? ¿O a los seguidores de Jesús? ¿O a nosotros? Nos dice Pablo: “Cristo nos ha liberado para que seamos libres. Conserven, pues, la libertad y no se sometan de nuevo al yugo de la esclavitud”. El resultado es la libertad, pero si los requerimientos no nos dan pausa, entonces es que tal vez no estamos prestando suficiente atención.
