Are you interested in learning more about your faith and connecting with other women? Join the Holy Redeemer Women's Group. All are welcome - you will meet women of all ages and stages of life. We gather weekly in small groups to study scripture, to share and pray together, and to encourage each other through the joys and challenges of our lives.

The small groups begin the week of September 29. We have many different studies and dates/times to choose from-Registration is free and limited child care is available on Tuesday mornings. For additional information, contact Julie Liotta-jervin.liotta@gmail.com or Janie Worch, janie.worch2@gmail.com

Holy Redeemer's Children Liturgy

As the new school year begins we would like to welcome any and all kids at the 9:30 AM Mass, Kindergarten through Fifth grade, to join in Holy Redeemer's Children's Liturgy of the Word program. This program occurs during the 9:30 AM Mass, right after the introductory prayer and is an opportunity for the children to hear the readings and gospel with other children and talk about what the readings mean to them. We encourage all children in grades K-2 to be a part of the "Little kids" group which meets in front of the baptismal font and grades 3-5 to be a part of the "Big kids" group which meets below the lectern. The program will begin on Sunday, September 21st at the 9:30 AM Mass. If you have any questions you can call or text Emma Arbuckle at 301-651-9426 or email at ereburn1@gmail.com.

Have you, or someone you know, been thinking about looking into joining the Catholic Church? Have you been Baptized in the Catholic Church but never received First Communion and/or Confirmation? Are you a cradle Catholic who would like to gain an adult knowledge of what the Church teaches and why the Church teaches it? Then OCIA is for you. The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) is the process the American Bishops wrote to enable all groups to grow in our understanding of the Catholic Church. Holy Redeemer will have a "Come and See" evening on Wednesday, September 17th at 7:30pm in the Community Room in the basement of the Church. The OCIA process will be explained, and all questions will be answered. If you are interested in perusing OCIA, then we will meet most Wednesday evenings at 7:30pm in the Community Room. There will never be any pressure to join the Catholic Church, just come and see.

Post Cana is an organization for the mutual support of widows and widowers of all ages and faiths sponsored by the Office of Family Life of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Washington, DC. Lives change dramatically after the death of a spouse. Post Cana members engage in spiritual, social, intellectual, and other positive programs that promote and enrich their lives through fellowship. They have a common thread of grief and healing and learn from each other through organized get-togethers.

Are you thinking of joining us? Mary Dugan, President of Post Cana, welcomes you! Call or email: 301-873-3902; marydugan12@yahoo.com
