“Christ Teaching in the Temple”, 11th-c. fresco in the Benedictine monastery of Lambach Abbey in Austria

Then they came to Capernaum, and on the sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught. The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes. In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, “What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!”

Jesus rebuked him and said, “Quiet! Come out of him!” The unclean spirit convulsed him and with a loud cry came out of him. All were amazed and asked one another, “What is this? A new teaching with authority. He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him.” His fame spread everywhere throughout the whole region of Galilee.

The Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time— Year B — January 31, 2021

January 29, 2021

Good morning, St. John Vianney

We are sending an emergency warning to all SJV parishioners alerting you to a scam text similar to the screen shot on the left. We are aware of just one parishioner who this week received a purported text from Fr. David asking for help for music gift cards for cancer patients which was sent as a small personal message from "Fr. David Mayovsky."

This is NOT from Fr. David. The area code is the same as his, but the phone number is not his. Do not follow the instructions, please. We are again taking advantage of this opportunity to assure you that NEVER under any circumstances would Fr. David text any of us asking for money or gift cards.

If you also have received a text, please contact the office so we can keep a record.

Thank you.

Kristen

YES, THAT IS THE OTHER MAYOVSKY WE SOMETIMES SEE ON THE ALTAR
Welcome back to SJV, Fr. Fred.

This weekend while Fr. David is on vacation, Fred Mayovsky, SJ is celebrating Mass for us. Please give a warm greeting to Fr. David's usual sub (and first cousin), Fr. Fred.

 Fr. Fred has to hurry to make his boat after Mass on Sunday, so Communion Distribution will only be from 10:00 to 10:30 this Sunday morning. Thank you.

ARE YOU CELEBRATING AN IMPORTANT ANNIVERSARY THIS YEAR?
LET FR. BLESS YOU AND OUR PARISH CONGRATULATE YOU.

In honor of World Marriage Day, on February 13th & 14th at Mass as a parish we would like to acknowledge and congratulate you for your fidelity to the Sacrament of Marriage. If you and your spouse will have a milestone anniversary this year, please email the office (office@vashonsjv.org) your names, how many years you have been married, and the date and location of your wedding. That Valentine's Weekend, if you will be at Mass, Father will ask you to stand up for your blessing, in addition to announcing all our "significant" married couples during the live-streamed Vigil Mass.

New SJV Zoom Study Group being formed to discuss Pope Francis's newest encyclical, "Fratelli Tutti" - "On Brotherly Love and Friendship"

Thursday evenings at 7:00

Pope Francis's latest Encyclical takes up the topic of fraternal love, social friendship, solidarity, and human dignity, important values of the Gospel, which unite and hold the world together.

After last Sunday's Zoom session with Father David on the encyclical (published in October 2020) some of the participants decided to form a study group to continue reading and discussing this outline for a better world. All in the parish are invited to join, and we hope quite a few of you will.

Below you will find resources for a copy of the document as well as two study guides to assist you in your reading and discussing of Fratelli Tutti. If you need photocopies, please contact the office.

Please consider this worthwhile way to share your faith and learn about our Catholic goals for humane treatment in our small and global communities. The SJV Zoom Study Group will let you do this alongside your fellow parishioners.

God Speaks to Us
January 31, 2021
4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

ARCHDIOCESE OF SEATTLE

At Home with Faith

When God speaks, he speaks in the form of a person: Jesus.
In the words and actions of Jesus, then and now, God speaks to us.

on the Scriptures for this day.

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." (John 1:1) Here the Gospel of John sheds some light on why Jesus' teaching in the synagogue in this first chapter of Mark is so different and why even the unclean spirits obey him.

Jesus isn't just a prophet. He is the prophet. He is God's word in the flesh. This means his words have a power and authority that ordinary human beings do not. If he says "Be healed," we are healed. If he says "You are forgiven," we are forgiven. This means that we need to listen to his words, and follow them.

Deuteronomy 18:15-20

I will raise up a prophet from among you.

Psalms 95:1-2, 6-7, 7-9

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

1 Corinthians 7:32-35

Be free of anxieties!

Mark 1:21-28

Jesus teaches with authority.

Talk

Here are some reflection questions to help you have Great Conversations with the whole family.

Do these things to encourage your child to listen to God:

- Ask your child how he or she thinks God might speak to us. Provide them time to think about the question. Let them offer a couple of ideas.
- Tell them that God is very different from us and speaks differently than we do. Isaiah puts this well when he says “as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways.” (Isaiah 55:9) This means that we should be prepared for God to speak to us in different ways than we speak to each other. It also means it takes time to learn how to listen to God.
- Use an example and tell them God loves them. If your family has a pet dog or cat, you can use an example of how different human speech is from the way animals communicate. We communicate our love to our pets by petting them, walking them and also by taking good care of them. God does something similar for us. Human words can't really capture everything God is saying, but he shows us his love through Jesus—God's Word made flesh.
- Read the Bible with your child. Start with the readings from this Sunday. Encourage your child to read them more than once and really think about what God is saying.

Have you ever noticed how we treat the words of Jesus at Mass?

On Sundays, the first two readings are found in a book called the Lectionary that waits to be read on the ambo. On the other hand, the book of the Gospels is treated differently: we carry it into Mass reverently and place it on the altar. Then, when it comes time to read the Gospel, we all stand up.

This is because the words of Jesus are different than the words of the prophets who came before him or the letters that were written about him. The words of prophets and apostles inspire us, but the words of Jesus transform us.

This makes all the difference in the world. We can count on what Jesus promises in a way that is so different from anyone else. Whatever thing we might fear: danger, death or even the devil himself, Jesus' words are more powerful than all those things. And if we listen to those words and follow them, they will lead us to eternal life.
