Jesus and his disciples set out for the villages of Caesarea Philippi. Along the way he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that I am?” They said in reply, “John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others one of the prophets.” And he asked them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter said to him in reply, “You are the Christ.” Then he warned them not to tell anyone about him. He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and rise after three days. He spoke this openly. Then Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. At this he turned around and, looking at his disciples, rebuked Peter and said, “Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do.” He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it.” Mk 8:27-35

Pastor's Thoughts

The Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time – September 11/12, 2021

Remembering September 11th, 2001

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ & Friends of St. John Vianney:

This weekend, we come to the twentieth anniversary of the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001. People across the United States and around the world will pause to commemorate the tragic events of that day which ended the lives of thousands, and changed forever the lives of their surviving family and friends. Even though more than a generation has passed, emotional scars left behind, remain. As Catholic Christians, it's important that we pray for all who died on that day, and also pray for God's ongoing healing, mercy and peace for surviving family and loved ones.

A familiar phrase synonymous with September 11th is: "Never Forget". Remembering September 11, 2001 is an opportunity for us to never forget the love and mercy of God who calls us to be people of mercy and peace. Any conflict or tragedy is an occasion to reflect upon the evils and injustices in our world which threaten and destroy human life and human freedom. May we never forget and always remember the mercy of God who heals, restores, and forgives.

Lord, Father of our human family,
you created all human beings equal in dignity:
pour forth into our hearts a fraternal spirit
and inspire in us a dream of renewed encounter, dialogue, justice and peace.
Move us to create healthier societies
and a more dignified world,
a world without hunger, poverty, violence and war.

May our hearts be open to all the peoples and nations of the earth.
May we recognize the goodness and beauty
that you have sown in each of us,
and thus forge bonds of unity, common projects, and shared dreams. Amen. (From Pope Francis' Encyclical "Fratelli Tutti", October 04, 2020).

I mentioned at the conclusion of Mass last weekend, the 9/11 Memorial in the Church near the Baptismal Font. The Memorial has pictures and obituaries of all who were killed in the terrorist attacks. The Memorial will remain throughout the month of September. I encourage you to stop, read some of the Obituaries, and offer a prayer, especially a prayer for peace. ...perhaps light a votive candle.

May God's Grace and Peace be Yours,

Fr. David

WELCOME TO SJV, FR. FRED

Fr. David is away on vacation. His cousin Fr. Fred Mayovsky, SJ, is here this weekend and next to celebrate Mass for us.

Fr. Fred, welcome back to SJV, and thank you especially for hassling with the WSF. Enjoy your time on Vashon.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SECOND SUNDAY

Thank you to all of our parishioners who so generously support our St. Vincent de Paul Society; this ministry has not let up with its assistance to Island residents who are especially suffering during the pandemic.

Although in the new online world, we can make our donations 24 hrs. a day, 7 days a week to SVdP (and SJV), we would still like to remind parishioners of our traditional 2nd Sunday SVdP collection. If you are able to help SVdP do its wonderful work on Vashon, please drop a check in their basket at Mass this weekend, or donate via their website. Thank you.

One month until Faith Formation for the whole parish begins.

- + All parish formation offering
- + Every 2nd Sunday of the month, starting Oct. 10
- + Directly after Mass in the Parish Hall
- + Formation and fellowship opportunities for all ages

For the first series of Faith Formation Sundays, we will explore the beauty and history of the Mass and why it's the source and summit of our life in Christ. We will be following the text and video series A Biblical Walk through the Mass by Dr. Edward Sri.

After watching a short video presentation for all, we will break into table groups and have age-appropriate discussions around our tables, then come back together to close the session with a prayer.

Our table groups and classes will be facilitated by SJV parishioners.

We are looking for a couple more people who would like to be table leaders for the adult tables. If you are interested, please get in touch with Mary Lawrence who will let you know how fun it will be to take on this extra role in our All-Parish Faith Formation program. Thank you.

HOLY HOURS OF EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

While Fr. David is on vacation, Daily Mass and our two weekly Eucharistic Adoration Holy Hours are on break. Our next evening Eucharistic Holy Hour will be Friday, Oct. 1st.

As the Lord had done with Israel, so Joseph did with Jesus: he taught him to walk, taking him by the hand; he was for him like a father who raises an infant to his cheeks, bending down to him and feeding him. —Pope Francis, Patris Corde

WOOD STACKING EVENT SEPT. 19TH, 10AM

"FF Students... be ready to stack in the next month. Parents who like to work outside and visit with friends... call the office or Jim Walker to find out when you can help."

—Sound familiar from the Bulletin in August? We hope so, and know you'll be glad to hear that your chance is here. Wood stacking event will be an hour at most, next Sunday right after the 9AM Mass.

Sturdy shoes and gloves are highly recommended.

Please note the wood crew split and stacked. But luckily they have left some work for the rest of us. We will be stacking on the north and south sides of the shed behind the lawnmower garage.

Hope to see many of you on the 19th.
