When Jesus and the disciples drew near Jerusalem and came to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, saying to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find an ass tethered, and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them here to me. And if anyone should say anything to you, reply, The master has need of them.' Then he will send them at once." This happened so that what had been spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled: Say to daughter Zion, "Behold, your king comes to you, meek and riding on an ass, and on a colt, the foal of a beast of burden." The disciples went and did as Jesus had ordered them. They brought the ass and the colt and laid their cloaks over them, and he sat upon them. The very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and strewed them on the road. The crowds preceding him and those following kept crying out and saying: "Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest." And when he entered Jerusalem the whole city was shaken and asked, "Who is this?" And the crowds replied, This is Jesus the prophet, from Nazareth in Galilee." Matthew 21:1-11

SJV 2023 MINISTRY FAIR COME AND FIND A PLACE TO SERVE

Drum roll please.... We had 57 new sign-ups at last weekend's Ministry Fair—a complete success.

Too many names to list, but we plan soon to see them all in action!!!

The Wood Crew was the big winner, with 16 parishioners, younger and older, wanting to join. We also had a lot of enthusiasm for becoming a liturgical minister, and for forming a youth choir—yay!

We would like to thank our current ministry leaders who participated in the Ministry Fair, talking up their ministries and handing over the pen for sign-ups: Jeanette and Ed Block, Maria Carlstedt, Michelle Casad, Jennifer and Mark Charnews, Kristen Elliott, Patti and Mike Kirk, Janis McElroy, Pam McMahan, Barbara Powell, Ann Scafe, Ellen Stewart, Steve Urban, Constance and Jim Walker, and Laura Wishik—your willingness to encourage others to join the ministry you share with our parish was very appreciated. And we know all of you are excited at the new people joining the ranks.

Newly signed up ministers, please watch for communication on training (if required), or possibly you have already received an email asking you to jump right in. In both cases, we welcome all of you to your new jobs and are very grateful for your willingness to offer your time to make SJV a more faithful, cheery, and busy place—we all gain from your participation. All new sign-ups— your names are in the drawings for prizes at the Palm Sunday Masses.

Holy Saturday 10AM-Noon, Work Day for a Beautiful SJV Easter

On Holy Saturday (April 8th) we are asking parishioners to be here at 10:00AM, to share an hour and a half or so with your parish as we prepare SJV for our Easter celebrations.

We will be polishing the sacred vessels, arranging the Easter flowers, helping with the Easter fire set up, and preparing the processional candles. We are spending this time to beautify our Easter surroundings and contribute to wonderful Easter liturgies. Help us make our parish shine for Easter.

Easter Vigil—9PM, Mass begins with the Easter fire out of doors

Easter Sunday 9:30, Easter Sunday Mass

DIVINE MERCY PARISH PICNIC POTLUCK AND PRAYER More information next weekend, but get your RSVP for you and all your family in now, and explore what to bring & share. Thank you to the Richter-O'Connell and Medeiros Families for organizing this Parish Picnic and Potluck for Divine Mercy Sunday. Chaplet at 3PM, party to follow.
