On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe."

Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name. ### EASTER MASSES TAKE A LOT OF TEAMWORK—THANK YOU TO ALL ON A TEAM!

Fr. David worked tirelessly for our Holy Week and Triduum liturgies. Toiling (and this isn't an exaggeration) alongside him was Ellen Stewart, who was the Master of Ceremonies at all the liturgies and prepped ahead of each with Fr. and then also directed the sacristans (Dina Champion and Mike Kirk and Andy Valencia had very amplified jobs!) and altar servers with their extra tasks for these special liturgies. We CANNOT THANK ELLEN ENOUGH for her Holy Week time here. In addition to the time here, Ellen also did a lot of ironing at home—altar linens and Fr. David's vestments.

And more thanks: Matt Lawrence and Alec Pottinger had a spectacular Easter fire roaring for the start of the Vigil. Collin Medeiros was Ellen's co-MC. And there were smiles on the faces of all our altar servers—Miriam, Joshua, Mykah, Collin, Dominic, Peter, Denny, Cormac, and Agnes—even with all their extra work and having to arrive very early for rehearsals. Our goal is that all of us attend all of these special liturgies; those who did saw all this teamwork in action. Easter 2025 is just a year ahead—plan to be at all the Triduum liturgies so you can witness how our liturgical ministers shine!

FR. DAVID HAD THE BRASSO READY FOR THESE AWESOME PARISHIONERS!!!

There was a very nice turn out for the Easter Clean Up & Decorating Party last Saturday morning, but into the afternoon people were still hard at work, including Andrew Casad blowing and topping the list Carol, Irene, and Laura who assiduously were polishing the candlesticks and bells for the “fancy” Easter altar and the return to the consecration bells. A big thank you for the time you put in for our parish to the Holy Saturday Crew: Diane Brenno, the Casad Family, Mykah and Mary, Ann Stewart Linsley, Irene Malli, Fr. David, Ellen Stewart, Carol Tufford, the Valencias, and Laura Wishik.

THANK YOU TO OUR FLOWER TEAM

We would like to express our great appreciation for the flowering plants and arrangements on our Easter altar to

SYMBOLON— THIS SUNDAY

On Formed.org, please watch SYMBOLON Part 2, Living the Faith, Session 10, “Catholic Social Teaching: Protecting the Dignity of the Human Person” for the study group following Mass this Sunday.

Ann Stewart Linsley and Jenny Shields who went “bloom shopping” for the parish. Mary Lawrence was a flower shopper too, and added some Easter lilies, and Maria Carlstedt added hydrangeas to the plan—thank you to all for your efforts for a beautiful SJV Easter .

THIS SUNDAY, APRIL 7TH—DIVINE MERCY PRAYERS & POTLUCK 7TH

Please join us in the sanctuary at 3PM to pray the Divine Mercy chaplet, followed by a potluck celebration on the Feast of Divine Mercy! No need to RSVP at this point. Please plan to come and to bring a dish to share! Please BYODrinks. The fire pit will be open, weather permitting, so feel free to bring food to grill as a potluck item.

Hosted by the O’Connell and Medeiros Families
A parish party and tradition... we hope many can make it!

THANK YOU, VASHON ISLAND COFFEE ROASTERIE...

for donating our regular coffee!! – Lady of the Mountain – A Light/Medium Honey Roast Coffee Blend

A very special coffee—you will have your first taste at Coffee Hour next Sunday. The cup is light, crisp, and refreshing, like the high mountain air of Tarrazu, with a buzz of wild honey. This blend of beautifully fermented beans comes from Costa Rica, from the farms of Luz Marina Stewart, a parishioner and third-generation Colombian coffee grower.

An unusually heavy rainy season on the mountain hillside of her finca washed out the roads and cliffside buildings. Undaunted by this event, Luz Marina rebuilt the roads, cleared the boulder, and renewed her farm. When the weather cleared, the hillside revealed a silhouette of Our Lady of Guadalupe, and the area quickly became a sign of hope and a place of pilgrimage. The jungle is slowly reclaiming the hillside, but the image will be remembered for generations.
