7th Sunday of Easter: A HUNGER TO BE ONE WITH GOD... There is this story about how Jesus once went to a football match with a friend. The match was between the Catholic Bombers and the Protestant Rockets. The Catholic Bombers were the first to score a goal. Jesus cheered heartily. Then in the second half, the Protestant Rockets scored a goal. Again, Jesus cheered heartily. The friend was confused. He asked Jesus which side are you on? Jesus answered, "I am just enjoying the game." Jesus wanted peace unity and peace on all his followers, and he prayed for it. We are all called, Catholic and non-Catholic to bear witness on social justice, human development and peace. So, whatever we do to contribute to fulfil the wishes of Jesus, that we may be one, as he and the Father are one. Just Do It!!

No Mass: There will be NO MASS this Thursday or Friday as Father will be on retreat.

Rectory Repairs: We will be repairing the deck at the rectory and installing a new cabinet in the kitchen on Saturday, June 7. Any and all volunteers are welcome. Contact Dan Schmitz for details

CCD Coordinator Needed: The Religious Ed committee is looking for an individual for the CCD Coordinator position. The current coordinators would begin training next school year. Please prayerfully consider joining our great group of CCD Teachers in educating our youth. If you are interested, please visit with Allison Thiel or Heather Gappert.

2025 Longest Married Couple Project: Worldwide Marriage Longest Married Couple project highlights and honors couples who have very long marriages, in the United States and associated territories. The project was started in 2011 with the purpose of celebrating marriage. The first year the national winning couple was married 83 years and lived in Lordsburg, New Mexico. The presentation was carried live by CNN Radio News. Applications can be submitted between May 15 and September 1, 2025, by going to www.wwme.org/community/sponsored-events/longest-married-couple. The winning couple will be notified by a local WWME couple. For more information, contact Diane and Kennen Huck at 701-527-3265.

Stewardship Thought: We are all stewards – managers of the many gifts God has bestowed upon us. Our challenge as Christians is to make good use of those gifts.
