A Bevy of New Deacons

Within the First Reading (Acts 6:1-7) for the Fifth Sunday of Easter we read about the Apostles as they ordained the first seven deacons of the Church. This was done so that they themselves could be devoted, "to prayer and to the ministry of the word" (Acts 6:4). The deacons — Stephen, Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicholas of Antioch — were all "reputable men, filled with the Spirit and wisdom" (Acts 6:3) and were dedicated to a life of pastoral service. This is providentially fitting since the Greek word "diakonos" means "minister or servant" (www.newadvent.org/cathen/04647c.htm).

Throughout the history of the Church there have been permanent deacons ordained for a life of service. Interestingly, men preparing for the priesthood are also ordained deacons for a transitional period of varying lengths.

God willing, we will have over a dozen men ordained as transitional deacons for the Archdiocese of St. Paul-Minneapolis at the Basilica of St. Mary next Saturday. We hold them up in prayer through the intercession of the earliest deacons that they might live like Christ the Servant in their words and deeds for the greater glory of God!

(As a liturgical factoid, deacons can celebrate weddings and baptisms and preach at Masses and preside at funerals but are not able to hear confessions sacramentally or anoint the sick sacramentally or celebrate the Eucharist or ordain men.)

Thank You!

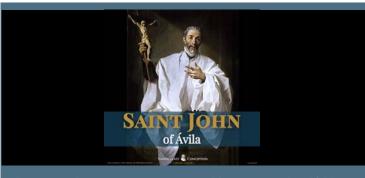

Many thanks to those who have returned their financial commitment to help us raise our $1,555,000 campaign goal to fund much needed ministry initiatives and repairs and improvements to our church and school facilities. This weekend we wrap up the in-church phase of our campaign with the commitment packets available in the pews.

It is vitally important that we have a planned and proportionate commitment from all registered households, and we need your help to achieve two very important goals of our campaign. The first goal is to invite the full participation of all parishioners, non-parishioner school families, and alumni. The second goal is to generate financial commitments sufficient to fund the campaign objectives.

If you have not returned your commitment, please take a packet home and respond based on your blessings and capacity. Return the commitment card in the sealed envelope by mail, deliver it to the parish office or place it in the collection basket next weekend.

Soon we will begin our follow up efforts to contact and invite those parishioners and others that have not responded. Please save us the time, energy and expense of personally contacting you by returning your decision. Thank you for your cooperation! Stay tuned next week for an update on the campaign results. Thank you!

Sunday, May 21, 2023 after all Masses in Fellowship Hall.

A Note of Thanks!

Over 40 parishioners and friends of Immaculate Conception braved the cool temperatures to join us for our Spring Work Day last Saturday morning. It was a joy to see so many people of all ages joining together to help beautify our grounds and clean our church.

The event was so successful we ran out of both projects and food! Now that we know the spirit of volunteerism and teamwork is deeply rooted here at IC, we will be better prepared for our Fall Work Day.

Totus Tuus

Children entering grades 1-6: June 12-16, 9:00 am-2:30 pm Youth entering grades 7-12: June 11-15 from 7:30-9:30 pm

This is our 9th year hosting Totus Tuus! In 2014, we walked away from traditional Vacation Bible School, and we haven't looked back! We realized that kids were learning about their faith and having fun doing it. In this article I'll answer some questions often asked about Totus Tuus.

Who can attend? Any young person grades 1- 6 for the day program and 7- 12 for the evening. They do not have to belong to our parish or, for that matter, be Catholic.

If I register my children, can their cousins be included as part of the family for payment purposes? Yes, they can. Even though the cost of the program is minimal, we don't want anyone to miss out on the opportunity to attend.

What does it cost the parish to provide Totus Tuus? We pay $2,500 to the archdiocese. This covers the cost of four trained college students, including one or two seminary students, teaching for the week and materials.

How does the parish cover the cost of the program? Registration fees don't usually cover our cost and so we depend on generous parishioners to offer scholarships or donations through our Giving Tree – because no student should miss out due to their inability to pay.

In a nutshell, what is Totus Tuus? It is a Catholic youth program dedicated to sharing the Gospel and promoting the Catholic faith through catechesis, evangelization, Christian witness, and Eucharistic worship. The goal of TOTUS TUUS is to help young people develop their relationship with Jesus Christ who leads them to the Father in the Holy Spirit.

How can I register my children? Visit our parish website—ICCSonline.org or call the Faith Formation Office at 763-788-9062.

Reflections

Why Do We Do That?-Catholic Life Explained

Obligation: Mass or Communion?

Question: Are Catholics obligated to attend Mass each Sunday, or receive Communion each Sunday?

Answer: The questions about Mass attendance and the reception of Holy Communion are clearly outlined in what are traditionally called the "Precepts" of the Church. These specific teachings are intended to stand alongside the Ten Commandments as fundamental practices for Catholics and are outlined in the Code of Canon Law. The obligations related to Mass attendance and receiving Communion are outlined in the first and third precepts, which we find quoted in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (no. 2042):

The first precept ("You shall attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation and rest from servile labor") requires the faithful to sanctify the day commemorating the Resurrection of the Lord as well as the principal liturgical feasts honoring the mysteries of the Lord, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the saints; in the first place, by participating in the Eucharistic celebration, in which the Christian community is gathered, and by resting from those works and activities which could impede such a sanctification of these days.

The third precept ("You shall receive the sacrament of the Eucharist at least during the Easter season") guarantees as a minimum the reception of the Lord's Body and Blood in connection with the Paschal feasts, the origin and center of the Christian liturgy.

Rather than seeing these as obligations that are simply to be fulfilled out of a sense of duty, Pope Saint John Paul II reminds us of the grace that is made available to us when we gather for Sunday celebrations of the Eucharist: "Sunday is the day which is at the very heart of the Christian life... Time given to Christ is never time lost, but is rather time gained, so that our relationships and indeed our whole life may become more profoundly human" (Dies Domini, no. 7).

Live the Liturgy-Inspiration for the Week

To those who persist in faith, the truth is a living stone, strong enough to support the weight of real joy. To those who despair of faith, it is a stumbling block. The truth will always be in their way.

Word of Life

Respect Life Reflection

"Without a foundational, practical formation, it is difficult for our consciences to guide us well in concrete situations. As Catholics, we have the immense gift of the teaching authority of the Catholic Church and can turn to it for help forming our consciences. For example, learning about Christian moral principles, reading the Catechism of the Catholic Church, or researching what the Church says about a challenging teaching will help us grow in knowledge of the truth."

You are "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of his own, so that you may announce the praises" of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.

Gospel Meditation

5th Sunday of Easter

If you had to summarize the essential core of the Christian life, what would it be? Mercy, truth, or love, perhaps? The readings today suggest another word which may surprise you. That word is priesthood.

St. Peter says to us, "You are a 'chosen race, a royal priesthood..." To be part of a priesthood is to offer a particular sacrifice in order for the community to survive and thrive. Jesus is the great high priest because he offers the one perfect sacrifice which heals and perfects the entire human race. Peter the Apostle wants us to know that all the baptized share in this priestly ministry. The whole of our lives, including every detail, is meant to become our acceptable offering to God.

The baptized exercise this priesthood in many ways, I'll mention three. At Sunday Mass, in private prayer, and in daily work. At Mass, we offer the sacrifice of our lives with that of the priest, who symbolizes Christ the Priest. In our prayer, a "morning offering" prayer is a great way to offer up all the joys and sufferings of the day to come. In our daily work, we sacrifice our time, comfort, money, and energy to do good for others. All this gives the deepest possible meaning to our lives: we share in the priesthood which saves the world. That's at the core of our faith.

Eucharistic Adoration

"Jesus said to his disciples: 'Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me'."

(John 14:1-2)

Our Eucharistic adoration chapel is available Monday through Friday for adorers to come and pray. Bring your troubles before Jesus who is present in the Eucharist in the monstrance on the chapel altar. He is there and hears all prayers. Come and spend some time in adoration. All are welcome!

We are looking for more scheduled adorers. We have the following open hours: Thursdays at 8:00 am and 6:00 pm, and Fridays at 6:00 pm and 7:00 pm. We are also in need of partner adorers for many more hours. If you would like to schedule an adoration hour, are unable to attend your scheduled hour, or have questions about adoration, please call Sandy at 763-789-3246.

Did You Know?

In 1948, construction began on a convent for the sisters and a rectory for the priests. Both were blessed on the same day, December 12, 1948, which came during the celebration of the parish's 25th anniversary. In 1949, the school had reached its capacity with slightly over 600 children in attendance in 12 classrooms. Kindergarten was dropped in 1950, but by 1953 the school was overflowing with 659 students. In the fall of 1953, building of the addition was underway. At the cost of $286,000 the school was finished by May 1, 1954. The new wing added eight classrooms, a library, an office and lavatory facilities on every floor.

An Invitation to Reminisce

In honor of our upcoming Centennial Celebration, over the course of the next year, we will have various representatives from our parish community share some of their favorite memories and experiences of Immaculate Conception in the bulletin.

If you would feel so moved to contribute a story or anecdote between 100 and 500 words please send your message to Jami Bridgeman (Special Projects Coordinator) jbridgeman@immac-church.org. Otherwise, if you would prefer to talk on the phone and have a conversation about what will be written please feel free to call Jami at 763-788-9062 x221.

We look forward to reading the heartfelt tales of what you are most thankful for from your time here at Immaculate Conception, be it from the liturgical celebrations, academic adventures in the school, or unforgettable moments from communal life.

FORMED Pick of the Week

The 13th Day

In a world torn apart by persecution, war, and oppression, three children in Fatima were chosen by God to offer an urgent message of hope to the world. Based on the memoirs of the oldest seer, Lucia Santos, The 13th Day dramatizes the true story of three young shepherds who experienced six apparitions of Our Lady, which culminated in the final prophesied miracle on October 13.

Building on the Cornerstone

Before I married my husband, I assumed there were "ugly houses" and "pretty houses," and that was that. But Matt is an architect, someone who reads books with titles like "A Field Guide to American Houses" for fun and who uses the term vernacular architecture like he knows what it means.

Through him, I've come to learn a lot about why certain structures simply don't have a pleasing look. There is a logic to ugliness, as it turns out. One of the main reasons a building or a home might strike some of us as ugly is because it has undergone a careless renovation. Whether out of laziness or an effort to be cost-effective, additions are made that depart from the architectural style of the original structure. The result is slapdash, confusing — ugly, for lack of a better word.

What is added on later must somewhat resemble the original. If you want to depart dramatically from the original style of a building, it's better to build a separate structure altogether.

I think of this principle when I consider Christ as the "cornerstone." We know we are called to model ourselves on Christ, to build on his example. But so often we cherry-pick elements of his message and attempt to build on it with additions that make no sense.

When someone looks at us, at our lives, they should be able to tell after whom that life is patterned. We must resemble the cornerstone, if we do not, it will be apparent, unseemly. You can't see God the Father without embracing God the Son. You can't chart the future of a house without any thought for its past.

If Christ is not our inspiration, he will be our contradiction.

"...like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house... to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ." — 1 Peter 2:5
