From the Pastor's Desk

Happy Labor Day Weekend to all! It's the unofficial end of summer and I'm looking forward to having the kids come back to the school! It's been a great couple months here at Immaculate Conception. I've met many incredible people and I am grateful to be here.

As I was reviewing the directives from the Archdiocese for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, I met with our volunteers this past Thursday to share with them how we can be more in line with the archdiocese's guidelines. Going forward, if someone wants to bring communion to the sick or homebound, here's our policy at Immaculate Conception:

- 1. Check in with the sacristan before Mass
  - a) The sacristan will check that your name is on the list of commissioned people
  - b) The sacristan will prepare a pyx on the altar
- 2. The pyx will be in the tabernacle after Mass
- 3. The sacristan or priest will retrieve the pyx for the EMHC
- 4. Place the pyx in a burse
- 5. The pyx must go directly to the visit and back to the parish
  - a) Bring the pyx to the parish office
  - b) Leave with Father or secretary
- 6. The pyx is to be purified by the priest or deacon after each visit
- 7. Keep the pyx in safe place

The idea is that this extraordinary minister of holy communion is going to visit this person on behalf of the pastor. Furthermore, this experience of holy communion is meant to be an extension of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for those who cannot attend Mass. Therefore, the same expectations for Father at Mass also apply to those who act in his name. This will take some getting used to, but once we can all be on the same page, I think it'll become second nature quickly. One of the immediate consequences is that we will no longer be giving communion in pyxes during the distribution of communion in Mass.

If you need to bring communion to a sick or homebound person, please check in with the sacristan. Additionally, if you would like to join us in our outreach to the sick and homebound, please contact Vicki Bazille and we can train you, commission you, and add you to the list of this important ministry. If you have any questions, please reach out. Otherwise, please know of my prayers for you; please pray for me.

God bless you all!

Committee Update

We are grateful for all who donated their time, money, and raffle items, for our Summer Jam 2023! While we do not have final numbers regarding profitability, our expenses continue to rise with a decrease in volunteerism and income. Our committee will be meeting in the coming weeks to rethink our parish fundraising efforts and then reaching out to you to determine what would work best for IC in the future.

Please be on the lookout for an opportunity to share your feedback. In the meantime, should you have any ideas or thoughts, please reach out to our Events Coordinator Jami Bridgeman at jbridgeman@immac-church.org or 763-788-9062 x 221. She will gather the information on behalf of the parish.

Eucharistic Adoration

"Thus have I gazed toward you in the sanctuary to see your power and your glory, for your kindness is a greater good than life; my lips shall glorify you."

(from Psalm 63)

Jesus, present in the Blessed Sacrament on the chapel altar, is there for anyone who comes to Eucharistic adoration. Adorers can look toward Jesus in the monstrance and offer prayers of praise and thanksgiving. Come and experience the peace and power of being in Jesus' presence in our adoration chapel. Our chapel is open Monday through Friday beginning at 7:00 am. All are welcome!

We are looking for more scheduled adorers. We have the following open hours: Mondays at 3:00 pm, Tuesdays at 10:00 am, and Wednesdays at 5:00 pm and 8:00 pm. We are also in need of partner adorers for many more hours. If you would like to schedule an adoration hour, are unable to attend your scheduled hour, or have questions about adoration, please call Sandy at 763-789-3246.

Note: The chapel will be closed on Monday, September 4, for the Labor Day Holiday. It will re-open on Tuesday, September 5.

Choosing the Cross

I've been called a lot of things in my life, but I've never been called "Satan," at least not to my face.

It seems to me the worst name you could call a person, and today we hear it straight from the lips of Jesus. It's just one of the many small reminders strewn throughout Scripture that Jesus preaches meekness, but he is not mild — not when mildness serves no purpose, anyway.

And here, when Peter is trying to deter Jesus from making the right choice, mildness serves no purpose at all.

Can we blame Peter? I certainly can't. I'm sure I would have said the same thing to my own dear friend. He is, in today's Gospel, wholly unwilling to embrace the cross — he's afraid of it, even — but aren't we all, in the end, afraid of our cross? I am. It's no sin, it's only human. Fear is natural. Self-preservation is a reflex.

What Christ speaks of today is a choice, one we are all faced with, again and again, just as Peter is. We will not always respond perfectly; Peter does not respond well today. He does not respond well on Holy Thursday.

But on his last day, on the day of the ultimate choice? On that day, he chooses the cross.

We marvel at first responders who put themselves in harm's way for the sake of others, because to do so is not human, it is divine. I have to believe that if even a firefighter's loved one threw themselves in his way, he would still charge toward the flames, crying, "Get behind me."

Christ runs into the burning building for us, shaking off not only his own fear (and he had it, I promise you — he was human, too) but the fear of everyone who loved him.

"Offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God..."
— Romans 12:1

Church Teaching About Suicide

Question: What does the Church say about suicide?

Answer: Unfortunately, despite the Church's clear teachings in resources like the Catechism of the Catholic Church and the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults, there are still many people who are confused about what the Church teaches regarding the tragic reality of suicide.

While we hold that all life is sacred, we are also all-too aware that psychological, emotional, and even physical illness — as well as extreme anxiety, fear, and abuse — can lead individuals to take their own lives. Speaking to this, the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults reflects, "Although suicide is always objectively sinful, one should not despair of the eternal salvation of persons who have taken their own lives. By ways known to him alone, God can provide the opportunity for salutary repentance. The Church prays for persons who have taken their own lives" (pg. 294). The text also states the reality of illness or other extreme influences can "diminish the responsibility of one committing suicide" (pg. 293).

Parishes and grief support groups should show special care and concern for those families that have lost a loved one to suicide. And communities should always try to be mindful of those who might be at risk of suicide or self-harm.

If someone is contemplating suicide, please know that help is available, including the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline (1-800-273-8255).

Live the Liturgy-Inspiration for the Week

A love of suffering does not come naturally to us as humans. We have no instinct to throw our arms around a rough and heavy cross - no, we shy away from it. But as adopted children of God, crafted lovingly in His image, our inheritance is the grace to do what feels so impossible.

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isn't it easy to relate to Peter? One moment Jesus announces Peter's deep communion with God the Father. The very next, when he rejects the logic of Jesus' suffering and death, Jesus calls Peter Satan. We Christians shouldn't be too shocked when we experience both spiritual highs and lows, when we perceive breathtaking contradictions in our hearts.

Like the great apostle, you and I are recipients of unfathomable graces. God dwells in us, calls his beloved children, and takes care of our every need. And we also continually fail to embrace our sufferings with trust in Jesus. We know the truth of the creed, but we easily scorn the weight of the cross.

The good news is that, like Peter, we are never abandoned by the Lord even at our worst moments. Peter will eventually learn the beauty of the cross when he is willingly crucified. But it took time for him to get there. And it takes time for us, too. This week let's not be too shocked at these divisions in our hearts but accept them and patiently seek to be more obedient to Jesus' cross-shaped plan for us.

IC Summer Jam Spiritual Gift Basket

By Johannes Dupak

The ICC Spiritual Gift Basket had an array of wonderful spiritual gifts that included Bibles, novenas, Catholic faith materials for youth, Rosaries, and much more. The Spiritual Gift Basket was given away in a free drawing during ICC's annual Summer Jam. The idea for the Spiritual Gift Basket came to the family of long time parishioner, Linda (Iolanda) Dupak, as a way of honoring her commitment and passion, in spreading the Word and Good News of Jesus Christ.

The ICC Spiritual Gift Basket was at Summer Jam from 2006 through 2018. In the beginning, Father Thomas Kunnel and Greg Tomala provided support and assistance in getting the Spiritual Gift Basket started at the ICC parish festival.

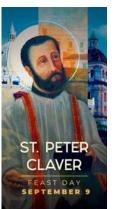

Evangelization was near and dear to Iolanda (Linda) who joyfully shared the Catholic faith by example, and also as a catechist for the young children, and in later years, volunteering annually in the school's basement food area during the IC Summer Jam (then known as Fun Fest) with the many other dedicated volunteers who gave their time and talent to support the Church.

In 2018 continuing to honor their mother's faithful spirit and provide more access to an expanded range of comprehensive Catholic religious materials, the ICC Spiritual Gift Basket format was changed to a more present-day format of digital readers/books that could easily be checked out and accessible to all from the Church office.

(Ephesians 1:15-17) Therefore, I, too, hearing of your faith in the Lord Jesus and of your love for all the holy ones, do not cease giving thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers, that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation resulting in knowledge of him.

Saint of the Week

St. Peter Claver | September 9

Born in Catalonia Spain in 1580, Saint Peter Claver studied at first at the University of Barcelona and then joined the Jesuits. He became friends with fellow brother Saint Alphonsus Rodriguez who encouraged him to be a missionary in the New World. Accordingly, Saint Peter went to Cartagena, a city in present-day Columbia where he was ordained in in 1615.

Cartagena was a center for the slave trade, and the young missionary knew where he could best serve God. As ships would arrive with their human cargo, Saint Peter and a group of interpreters would rush into the hold with food and medicines. When the slaves were moved to pens to await sale, the saint continued to work among them, communicating God's love with acts of generosity and teaching the Catholic faith.
