News from Fr. Reilly's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

The Trinity is the central mystery of our faith because, more than anything we could discover about God by observing the world around us – that God is all powerful or all knowing, for example – the doctrine of the Trinity reveals to us God's inner life: who he is, his "heart of hearts" or his "core," so to speak.

That God is three persons, all truly distinct from each other yet perfectly one, is not something we could have figured out; God had to reveal it. Although he alludes to it in the Old Testament, it was not until the Father sent his Son to become man that he disclosed it explicitly. Jesus Christ praises his Father, speaks intimately with him in prayer, always does his will, and, ultimately, offers himself on the cross out of love for him. By his life, death, and resurrection, Jesus reveals this mysterious relationship between the Father and the Son, the First and Second Persons of the Holy Trinity. And, as we would say that a tree which flowers produces flowers (which are real, tangible things) so these two Persons who love breathe forth, so to speak, Love – the third Person of the Trinity, whom we call the Holy Spirit.

The Father gives himself to the Son and the Son gives himself to the Father in this eternal communion of love. But he does not stop there. God called all of creation – including us – into existence so that we, too, could participate in this loving communion. Goodness pours itself out. God wishes to share with us the joy he experiences in his own goodness. He wants us to know what it is to love and to be loved.

It is impossible to overestimate how groundbreaking this revelation is for humanity. God is not just "out there" controlling the forces of nature and exacting punishment on a whim. God's love is such that it wishes to share itself. And our role as human beings is to receive that love and to respond to it.

Imagine if this perspective – God's perspective – were the lens through which we understood ourselves. Our society insists on independence and autonomy – on the freedom to define the meaning and purpose of our own life. It does not encourage us to offer ourselves as a gift to God and to others without counting the cost; it does not encourage us to sacrifice. Although God will never restrict our freedom, he has most certainly created each of us for a definite purpose: to become holier and holier each day so that, one day, we can be drawn fully into the eternal communion of love that is the Holy Trinity.

God Love Ya!
Fr. Reilly

Happy Father's Day Prayer

Happy Father's Day to all dads', grandfathers' and godfathers'!

As we gather to honor these men, let us remember to also keep them in our prayers.

Dear Lord, we who are fathers need your help. You have placed in us the care of each other and of our children.

Give us the strength and patience to cope with the many ups and downs of family life.

Grant us the grace to be deeply thankful for its laughs, joys and blessings. Let our children come to know of your love through our love for them.

Help us as we try to make ours a home where love dwells, a home like that of Jesus, Mary and Joseph in Nazareth.

When we fail each other and when we hurt each other,
soften our hearts so that forgiveness and reconciliation comes quickly and easily.

Protect this family, Lord, and let it flourish in your light and in your love.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

The Little Sisters of The Poor

Weekend of June 27, 28, 2025

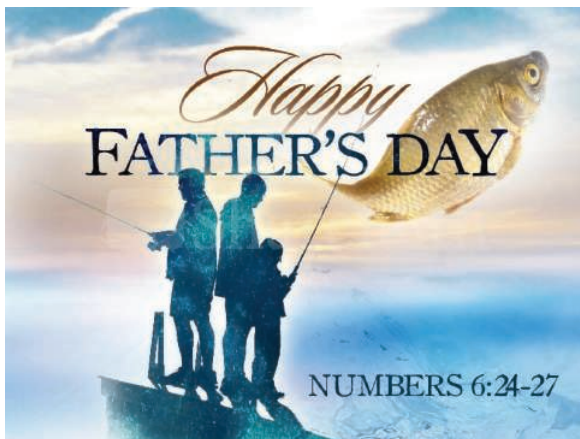

The Little Sisters will be visiting us to seek your assistance in their loving and caring work with the Elderly who come from a minimum source of income—following in the footsteps of St. Jeanne Dugan!

Their principle source of support is through donations/begging as their Foundress expressly discovered as the plan of God in 1839 when she began taking the elderly poor off the streets in France.

In 1869, Archbishop Wood of Philadelphia, invited the Little Sisters from France to come and assist the vast number of elderly poor in the city regardless of race or religious beliefs. Serving the poorest in simplicity, humility and trust in Divine Providence, for over 155 years in Philadelphia through their vows of poverty, chastity, obedience and hospitality, while personally assisting the dying with the firm belief—"It is Jesus Himself who you are serving in the Poor."

JJ

Your support is greatly appreciated and is God's tangible providential assistance to the poor.

Caring For Friends Ministry Needs Your Help!

Our Caring for Friends meal supply is running very low. Please consider picking up some tins from our Freezer Room off the Narthex as you leave today and donating healthy leftovers from your meals to the homebound in our community. Directions are on the Freezer door.

Thank you!

Helping Other People Everyday

HOPE

In the Gospel according to Saint Matthew (Matthew 25:45), Jesus tells us, "Amen, I say to you, what you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me."

The HOPE Ministry at Saints Peter and Paul Parish provides opportunities to reach out and to be of service to our homebound, seniors, or those in need in our parish community.

Do you have a few hours free during the week to drive someone to the doctor or to Mass, take someone grocery shopping or grocery shop for someone? Would you consider being on a list to be called when someone in the parish is in need? Maybe, the Lord is calling you to our HOPE Ministry!

If you are willing to volunteer, would like more information, or have any questions, please call Loretta Bevilacqua (610-529-1991) or Art Mullin (610-639-3607).

Retrouvaille: Rediscover the Love in Your Marriage

August 1 through 3, 2025

Tens of thousands of couples have healed their marriages through Retrouvaille (pronounced Retro-vy). If you know anyone who could benefit from this program, please pass this on. Couples learn to build communication skills and to increase intimacy. It provides help for marriage problems, difficulties or crises. The next program will be held August 1 - 3, 2025 at the Family Life Center in Malvern, PA.

For more information, or to register, visit www.HelpOurMarriage.org or call 215.766.3944 or 800.470.2230. All inquiries are strictly confidential.

Parish Religious Education Program also known as CCD starts tomorrow, June 16th and Vacation Bible School starts June 23.

If you haven't registered, please reach out asap because our PREP format has changed and starts June 16!

PREP is for all parish children in grades 1 through 7 who attend public or non-Catholic private schools.

If your child is behind, we will work with them to catch them up.

Vacation Bible School is offered the following week of June 23rd and is Monday through Thursday 9 AM until 12 PM for children potty trained ages 3 and up.

All Ability PREP

We welcome all children regardless of their age or abilities. Does your child learn differently, as a team, we can work with them. We want all of our children to grow their relationship with our Lord! Reach out to learn more!

Dear Families,

Today is a special day. It is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. What is a solemnity? It is a feast day of the highest rank celebrating a mystery of faith such as the Trinity.

They can only know that, whatever shape the future takes, they will not have to face it alone. They have the Spirit of Truth, who will continue to provide the teaching of Jesus in the future.

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus say to his disciples: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth." What Jesus is telling the disciples and us, is that regardless of what we face down the road, we are never alone. The Holy Spirit is with us. And when God the Holy Spirit is with us, so is God the Father and God the Son.

God is good! All the time! All the Time! God is good!
