News from Fr. Reilly's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Feast Day!

The Greek word for “church” is ekklesia, which has roots that mean “those who have been called.” We, the Church, have been summoned to Christ, called to this place, invited into this special relationship.

This is not a general call, like someone who walks into a room and asks for someone’s help. To the contrary, Scripture tells us that we are called by name – that God knows the hairs on our head and that he invites each person to himself in a unique way. At our baptism, the presider asked who was being brought forward for baptism and spoke our name to make tangible this personal, loving act of God. The rite allows us to hear what has, in reality, happened: God knows each of us as unique persons and has worked to bring us to himself.

On this Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, we remember their courageous response to Christ’s call and the mighty ways God worked in and through these Apostles. We also remember that we, too, have been called; we gather inspiration from these saints’ lives, actions, and love so we can go forth and be instruments of God’s love in the world.

Today’s readings remind us that this call asks something of us. In fact, it asks everything of us. Like Peter, we, too, must respond to Jesus’ question, But who do you say that I am? Like Paul, we will be asked to pour ourselves like a libation for those whom we have been called to love. We are asked to compete well, finish the race, and keep the faith. We may be called to have courage like Saint Peter in our first reading.

In every part of this call, we know that our loving God will give us all we need and more than we can imagine. The angel of the Lord will stand beside us, God will release our chains and lead us to freedom. The Lord will rescue us from all who oppose his perfect will. He will stand by us and give us strength, as he did for Saint Paul. He will rescue us from every evil threat and bring us safely to his heavenly Kingdom.

The God who worked mighty deeds for Saints Peter and Paul speaks to us in the Liturgy of the Word and gives himself to us in the Eucharist. Of whom or what should we be afraid, with our Lord so near? We have been called and will be sent having encountered him in this Mass. Saints Peter and Paul, pray for us!

God Love Ya!
Fr. Reilly

This week we celebrate the 4th of July!! May that day be a day filled with patriotic remembrances and family fun! As always, don't forget to thank God for this day and to help you out here is a little prayer that you might consider saying:

A Fourth of July Prayer

We lift up our hearts, O God,
on this day of celebration
in gratitude for the gift of being Americans.
We rejoice with all those who share in the great dream of freedom and dignity for all.
With flags and feasting, with family and friends,
we salute those who have sacrificed that we might have the opportunity to bring to fulfillment our many God-given gifts.
As we deny all prejudice a place in our hearts,
may we also clearly declare our intention to work for the time when all people, regardless of race, religion or sex,
will be granted equal dignity and worth.
Come, O gracious God,
who led your children Israel from slavery,
keep us free from all that might hold us in bondage.
Bless our country
and join our simple celebration
that we may praise you,
our Source of freedom,
the One in whom we place our trust.
Amen.

God Bless America and God Bless You!

Dear Families,

Over the past few weeks, we have had a lot of special days also known as Solemnities. Today is another exceptional day for our Church and our parish. It is the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. Even though Peter denied knowing Jesus three times, in today's Gospel we are reminded that not only did Jesus forgive Peter. He also asked Peter to build His church upon this rock and gave him the keys to heaven. Talk about someone not holding a grudge. Our Lord, Jesus, extends that same mercy to us when we sin. St. Paul also was a sinner. Jesus forgave him too. St. Paul then became a missionary and shared the Gospel with others.

Today we are reminded that God loves us no matter what and that He will forgive us no matter what. All we have to do is ask and take advantage of the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation that our Catholic faith gives us.

God is good! All the time! All the time! God is good!
