News from Fr. Reilly's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Many of us have likely struggled with understanding the ways that God answers prayer. We have asked for something—healing for a loved one, freedom from a particular vice, or maybe clarity in discernment—and perhaps God's answer seemed to be no...or even worse, nothing.

This is a common experience, and the good news today is that the Sacred Scriptures show us that this is a deeply human experience throughout all of time. From the outcries of the prophets, of kings, of Job, the psalmists, and other ancestors in faith, those who have put their trust in God down through the centuries have felt this longing or frustration or confusion again and again. We are not alone in this struggle.

Fortunately, that is only half of the good news. The Bible is not the story of those who reached out to God, felt frustrated with the lack of response, and then walked away to live in this longing.

No, all of Scripture witnesses to another, much more fundamental truth: God is faithful, God is merciful, God hears our prayers.

In the Old Testament, we see repeatedly how God's people fall short and even complain against God, yet still God is faithful; he responds to our cries when we turn back to him and seek him. Abraham intercedes again and again on behalf of the innocent and God replies with mercy every time. The God of Abraham was radically merciful, and this abundant mercy set him apart from the other deities whom the pagan nations worshipped during that time.

As Christ teaches us how to pray, he likewise exhorts us to be persistent as we ask for the Holy Spirit who guides us. The Father, he assures us, know how to give good gifts.

And so, we can continue to pray with deep trust. Scripture tells us that we may have to keep asking, but something powerful happens in that repetition. As we ask, as we return to the source of mercy and love, we are changed. We encounter God himself, and this is the best possible gift he could give us.

May receiving the Holy Eucharist help us to be persistent—trusting that Christ, who gives himself to us perfectly in the Blessed Sacrament, will give us all we need.

God Love Ya!

New Divine Mercy Group Forming

Tuesday, September 9, 2025 7:00 PM

Here is your opportunity to develop a better understanding of Jesus' Divine Mercy through the eyes of St. Faustina. A new group is forming that will begin a guided journey through The Diary of St. Maria Faustina Kowalska which not only explains the origins of this devotion, but also contains many beautiful conversations between Jesus and his "secretary of Divine Mercy." Our small group will study the diary with the help of the Cenacle Formation Manual, Holy Scripture and the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Before discussing a section of the diary, the group prays for parish intentions and recites the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

Our first meeting is on Tuesday, September 9 at 7:00 PM. The group will meet every other Tuesday (along with other pre-existing Cenacle groups) at the SS. Peter and Paul Parish Center.

If you would like to attend or get more information, please email brmagee@outlook.com.

Lectio: Mark – Faith Not Fear

Join Dr. Tim Gray in this engaging 14-part series as we explore the Gospel of Mark like never before. We'll dive into this action-packed narrative, which reflects St. Peter's firsthand account of Christ's life and teachings.

The study will take place in two sessions—seven weekly lessons this fall and seven in the spring. Each lesson includes a video presentation and discussion using the study guide.

Study materials will be ordered as a group. The cost is approximately $25 per person, or $35 if you would like a leader guide that includes answers to the study questions.

All sessions will be held in the Parish Center, beginning:

- Wednesday, September 17 at 7:00 PM, or
- Thursday, September 18 at 10:00 AM

To reserve your study guide or request more information, please contact:

- Jane Joyce at 610.429.3973 (landline) or jane.joyce@verizon.net
- Marietta Moody at 610.692.6869 (landline) or yettamoody07@verizon.net

A Once In A Lifetime Malvern Retreat

Since 1999 I have enjoyed the company of a fine and friendly group of men and Jesus Christ too during the first weekend after Labor Day at the Malvern Retreat House <https://www.malvernretreat.com/>. I look forward to this weekend every year as an ideal way to wind down summer, kick off fall, and find peace for myself by getting closer to God.

This year's retreat will be a truly unforgettable weekend as Malvern Retreat House will simulcast live the canonization of Blessed Carlo Acutis, the first Millennium saint, early Sunday morning. St. Carlo inspires our young men each of whom are full of life and the foundation for our future retreats. I especially invite them to register and celebrate with us.

I offer to you is the opportunity to share with me and my Malvern friends this special experience by joining us on September 5 to 7 for our annual Nativity BVM retreat. Go to <https://www.malvernretreat.com/events/nativity-bvm-2025/> and register to join us or call me for more info at 610.564.8456 (leave VM please).

It also is a great time to invite family members, friends, co-workers, and fellow Phillies and Eagles fans to come to our retreat with you. For guys age 22 or younger, we have a great rate of only $100 and a special program on Saturday for our under 40 adults.

See you at Malvern!

Restore: Healing Retreat for Women Healing from Betrayal Trauma, St. Mary of Providence Center in Elverson, PA

Thursday, November 13 to Sunday, November 16

This retreat is for women healing from sexual betrayal trauma due to an intimate partner's infidelity, pornography use, or sex addiction.

God longs for us to live from the truth that we are His beloved daughters, carefully created and infinitely loved. The traumas we've suffered and the subsequent emotional and spiritual wounding keep us tethered to identity lies, distortions, and adverse patterns of thinking and relating.

Through unique, facilitated healing encounters, we listen for the Holy Spirit's promptings as He reveals the wounds, the memories, the circumstances that caused dis-integration within us. With Him, we are gently invited into a fully integrated experience – mind, heart, body, spirit, soul. Come...and let Him Restore you!

Retreat Leaders: Father Allen Hoffa of the Diocese of Allentown PA, De Yarrison of You Are Made New Ministry and Laura Ercolino of Hope's Garden

PREP
Parish Religious Education Program

Lord, teach us
to pray.
Luke 11:1

Dear Families,

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives us what we say at each Mass, the Our Father. Through this prayer Jesus tells us to remember that God is sacred and that we should want to be part of God's kingdom. We should desire the Eucharist. We should forgive others when they sin against and ask God for His forgiveness when we sin.

Jesus reminds us to be persistent. To ask and we will receive. Seek and we will find. Knock and the door will be opened. If even a bad person would take care of someone, how much more would God take care of all of us if we only ask.

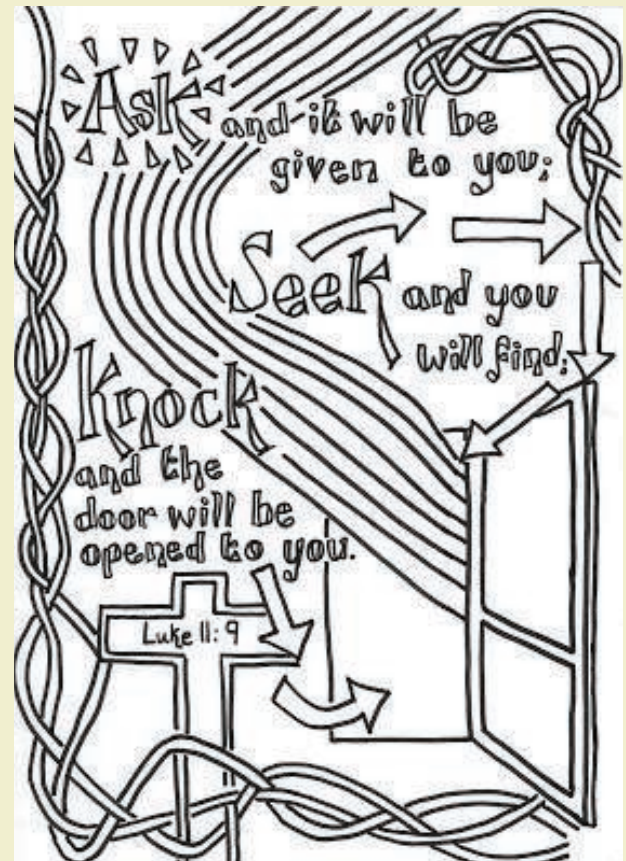

So families, ask and you shall receive!

God is Good, all the Time! All the Time, God is good!

Miss Michele

Jesus is everywhere! He is still in church when you are away. Please visit Him at the church closest to where you are. It is as simple as going to

Thanks to everyone who helped with PREP, VBS, the Children's Mass and Children's Liturgy of the Word this year! Please keep an eye out for upcoming opportunities to help our parish children grow their relationship with our Lord!
