News from Fr. Reilly's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

The prophet Malachi says that the day is coming when the proud and all evildoers will be set on fire like stubble with neither root nor branch left behind. For those who fear the Lord, on the other hand, the sun of justice will rise with its healing rays. Although Malachi was writing before Jesus' birth, we know that the day of which he writes is the day when Christ has promised he will return as judge. This day will dawn like a blazing sun. The blaze will either burn us or heal us depending on whether we have done evil or feared God's name.

The theme of Christ's return can be seen in Paul's Second Letter to the Thessalonians, he addresses a specific problem faced by the community. It seems that there is a group of people that has stopped working because of their belief in Christ's imminent return. Paul tells them to mind their own business and instructs them to work quietly and to eat their own food.

By the time Luke's Gospel is written, "the proclamation of the imminent end of the age has it self become a false teaching" (Catholic Study Bible 1394). Jesus warns his disciples not to follow anyone who says, The time has come. Jesus predicts the destruction of the temple, an event which has already taken place when Luke's Gospel is written. He then tells them that before the temple falls, they can expect to be persecuted, to be handed over to the authorities even by their own friends and families. This, too, has already been fulfilled in the Acts of the Apostles, which Luke writes as a sort of sequel to his Gospel. Luke is showing his readers that Jesus is a prophet – one who speaks for God and knows the future.

We are invited to reflect on the end of the age, when Christ will return to judge the living and the dead, and of our own end, when we will meet him face to face. Jesus assures his disciples and all of us that we will face challenges, trials, and persecutions if we are steadfast in our faith. But Jesus tells them that their perseverance in the face of persecution will secure their lives; this is true for us, too.

If we persevere in faith and humility, then we can hope to experience the healing rays of God's justice when we meet Christ face to face.

God Love Ya!

Helping Other People Everyday

The HOPE Ministry at Saints Peter and Paul Parish provides our volunteers with opportunities to reach out and be of service to our homebound, seniors, or those in need in our parish community.

We can provide meals through Caring for Friends, home visits, and provide rides for grocery shopping, errands, and doctor appointments.

If we can be of assistance, or if you believe the Lord is calling you to join our HOPE Ministry, please call Loretta Bevilacqua 610.5290.1991 or Art Mullin 610.639.3607.

Adult Faith Formation

Thanksgiving Food Drive

Saturday, November 15, 2025

We will begin our annual Thanksgiving Food Drive on Saturday, November 15. This year's recipient will be Mission Santa Maria at St. Rocco's Parish in Avondale.

Please drop off non-perishable, healthy food items in the church library no later than Thanksgiving Day.

Some suggested items include

Canned goods: fruit, vegetables, tomatoes-diced or sauce, spaghetti sauce, beans, tuna. Boxed/ Packaged items: White rice, dried beans (black or pinto), corn oil, cooking oil, pasta, cereal, peanut butter, jelly, macaroni and cheese, crackers, juice boxes, healthy snacks.

Please refrain from an overabundance of canned goods or make sure they are packaged in heavy duty bags....we had many bags break open last year as we loaded the truck.

We would appreciate some help loading on Saturday, November 29 at 9:00 AM. Thank you in advance for your generosity in providing food for the poor!

Christian Meditation Workshop

Monday, November 17, 2025 7:00 PM Parish Center

Enjoy a few moments of peaceful presence with our Lord. Led by a fellow parishioner, Christian meditation teacher, and Catholic author, Jessica Hildebrand. Step aside from your everyday exhaustions, take a seat, and welcome the guidance +space to connect with the Lord

Each session includes brief explanation of Christian meditation practice, 30 minute guided meditation, and time for reflection and fellowship in community.

We hope to have you with us as we allow our minds to rest in the loving presence of God.

Christmas Giving Tree 2025

Weekend of November 22, 2025

The Christmas Giving Tree will be placed in the church narthex on the weekend before Thanksgiving.

Once you take a tag please be sure to return the wrapped item with the tag matched (this is very important by Sunday, December 14).

Please remember that each of the children's gift request tags are matched to a recipient at Mission Santa Maria/ St. Rocco parish. For that reason, we ask that if you take a particular tag, please be sure to bring a gift! We recommend taking a photo of the tag as soon as you take it in case you lose it.

Gift Cards

There will also be gift card tags available for Target, Walmart, Giant and ShopRite. Most of our gift cards will be sent to St. Agnes Day room, serving the needs of the poor in West Chester. Some will also be given to needy households in our own parish.

Gifts and gift cards may be placed in the Monsignor Foley Library (first door to the right as you enter the church narthex) during these times from November 29 to December 14:

- Before and after the weekend Masses
- Before and after the 8:30 AM daily Mass

Please note that the library will remain locked for security purposes outside of the listed times.

We ask that you do NOT leave gifts in the church narthex!

Please do not drop Christmas gifts off prior to November 29 to avoid confusion with our Thanksgiving Food Drive pick up that morning!

Please contact jmagee@sspeterandpaulrc.org for additional questions or concerns.

Thank you in advance for your generosity!

It is almost Advent Time!

Discover the Beauty of the “O Antiphons”

Wednesday, December 10, 2025 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM

As we prepare for the celebration of the birth of our Savior, we will spend time together uncovering the depth and meaning that the ancient “O Antiphons” have to offer for our prayer and reflection. Using music, visual and contemplative quiet, participants will come to appreciate more deeply this rich treasure found in our Advent liturgy.

Cost for the Retreat: $40.00 includes meals

PREP
Parish Religious Education Program

Dear Families,

Although what Jesus talked about in the Gospel occurred a long time ago, it could be applicable today. Wars in other countries. People fighting. Faithful in some parts of the world aren't allowed to pray without fear of retaliation. God promised us then and He promises us now, through it all, He will be with us. As we hear often in the readings at Mass, let's thank God for his many blessings each day. When we wake up and before we go to bed. Always know that He loves us and gives us His mercy.

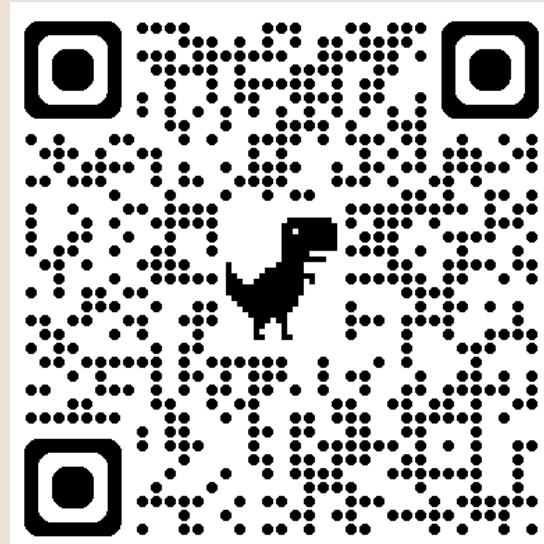

God is good! All the time! All the time, God is good!
