News from Fr. Reilly's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

The Gospel for Mass this Sunday presents two responses to Jesus for our consideration. First, there are those who condemned and crucified him. Among them are the Sanhedrin (the assembly of Jewish leaders); there were also the Romans who conspired in the execution, the soldiers, and the jeering mob. They all had their reasons for rejecting Christ – but for them all, the result was the same: they hardened their hearts against him and cooperated in his death. Pontius Pilate placed an inscription above him which read, Jesus the Nazorean, the King of the Jews, but none of these conspirators were open to the fact that Jesus might, indeed, be a real king.

In contrast, the response of the so-called “good thief” to his encounter with Christ is a softening of heart. Hanging on his own cross, the good thief clearly understands his guilt and realizes that he is being justly punished for his crimes. His repentance humbles him and he is able to see who Jesus really is – a true king – and asks Jesus to remember him when he comes into his kingdom.

If we seek to emulate the good thief, we, too, need to have a clear picture of who we are – a picture which is conscious of our weaknesses and our need for God’s mercy. This requires humility. We must not give in to the temptation to reject Jesus’ kingship and to make ourselves the judges of right and wrong. But we likewise need to have great confidence in the goodness of our king. Saint Paul reminds us in today’s second reading that everything in heaven and on earth is reconciled in Christ; he holds all things in unity, making it possible for us to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light. This is who our king is – he loves us and desires us to share in the inheritance of his kingdom.

For this reason, we can rejoice and have the same boundless confidence of the good thief, even in the face of our own sins and weaknesses. If our response to Christ is receptive, humble, and repentant, then we will not hesitate to seek his mercy and forgiveness so that we, too, might come to share his glory in paradise.

As we celebrate Thanksgiving this week, please note that every day I give thanks for all of you, for you are truly a gift to me in my priestly ministry here as your pastor. Be assured that all of you will be remembered in a special way at our parish Thanksgiving Mass and at my Thanksgiving table. Just in case you are looking for a prayer to use at the Thanksgiving table here is one for you:

God most provident, we join all creation in raising to you a hymn of thanksgiving through Jesus Christ, your Son.
For generation upon generation
peoples of this land have sung of your bounty;
we too offer you praise
for the rich harvest we have received at your hands.
Bless us and this food which we share with grateful hearts.
Continue to make our land fruitful and let our love for you be seen in our pursuit of peace and justice and in our generous response to those in need.
Praise and glory to you, Lord God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Happy & Blessed Thanksgiving!
God Love Ya!
Fr. Reilly

Dear Families,

It is the last Sunday of our Liturgical year and the day we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.

In the Gospel, we hear about Jesus' last hours on earth. Rulers sneered at Him. Soldiers jeered at him. A criminal reviled Him.

Sneers. Jeers. Reviled. All of this and all Jesus wanted to do was give us a gift.

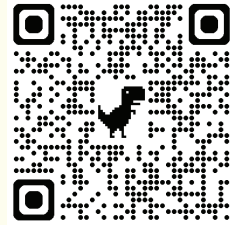

There was another criminal there who defended our Lord. He asked our Lord to remember him when Jesus got to Heaven. Even as Jesus was suffering, He took the time to let the man that He would be with Jesus in Paradise. Our Lord's love and mercy is the gift that keeps on giving.

God is good! All the time! All the time, God is good!

Miss Michele
