News from Fr. Reilly's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Happy New Year! No, I am not losing my mind. The First Sunday of Advent in the Church's calendar is the beginning of the new liturgical year.

So stay awake! The time is now. You do not know the hour, so be prepared, now. The urgency throughout our readings today is unmistakable. Indeed, Jesus uses the example of the master of the house knowing when a robber was coming to the house. If he had known, he would have been fully prepared. Jesus tells us to prepare with similar urgency and expectation, for we do not know when the Son of Man will come.

Of course, we don't have to wonder about the date or hour of Jesus' coming at Christmas! But at the beginning of Advent, the Church doesn't direct us immediately to the manger in Bethlehem. Rather, we are encouraged to contemplate two other "comings" of Christ: namely, his coming at the end of time and his coming to us here and now.

Our preparations for these two "comings" go hand-in-hand. Everything we do to receive Christ with love here and now will form us to receive him at the end of time.

And the good news is that we do not have to take the burden of preparations on by ourselves, which is a good thing because the world around us is seemingly already celebrating Christmas. How can we prepare? We have reminders in our liturgy – for example, violet vestments which, as during Lent, remind us to practice penance in order to fix our hearts on Christ. We can also prepare by acts of service, which carry a special urgency during Advent when so many people around us struggle. We should not neglect the sacrament of reconciliation, either. By our prayers, good works, sacrifices, and efforts to grow in virtue, we heed Saint Paul's words in the second reading: Throw off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light ... put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the desires of the flesh.

Finally, it is helpful to recognize that the Mass is an "advent" and a Christmas in itself. In the Eucharist, Jesus comes to us and we encounter him in a way no less real than Mary and Joseph did in Bethlehem or than we will at the end of time. The more we immerse ourselves in this holy mystery, the more we become attuned to God and, as Saint Paul reminds us, throw off the works of darkness. At each Mass and on every day of this Advent season, may we have the courage to be vigilant and do what is necessary to prepare our hearts for our Savior.

God Love Ya!

Two Month Developing Baby

Keep praying for me! I am 2 months old and about 2 inches long. My mother can hear my heartbeat on an ultrasound stethoscope and you can see my eyes, nose and mouth. I will use them to experience God's world after I am born.

Thanks for your prayers!

Due to space issues, we were unable to get this month's update into the bulletin last week.

Christmas Giving Tree 2025

The Christmas Giving Tree is in place!

Once you take a tag please be sure to return the wrapped item with the tag matched (this is very important by Sunday, December 14).

Please remember that each of the children's gift request tags are matched to a recipient at Mission Santa Maria/ St. Rocco parish. For that reason, we ask that if you take a particular tag, please be sure to bring a gift! We recommend taking a photo of the tag as soon as you take it in case you lose it.

Gift Cards

There will also be gift card tags available for Target, Walmart, Giant and ShopRite. Most of our gift cards will be sent to St. Agnes Day room, serving the needs of the poor in West Chester. Some will also be given to needy households in our own parish.

Gifts and gift cards may be placed in the Monsignor Foley Library (first door to the right as you enter the church narthex) during these times from November 29 to December 14:

- Before and after the weekend Masses
- Before and after the 8:30 AM daily Mass

Please note that the library will remain locked for security purposes outside of the listed times. We ask that you do NOT leave gifts in the Church Narthex!

Please do not drop Christmas gifts off prior to November 29 to avoid confusion with our Thanksgiving Food Drive pick up that morning!

Please contact jmagee@sspeterandpaulrc.org for additional questions or concerns.

Thank you in advance for your generosity!

Upcoming Christmas

2025 Day of Sanctification for Priests

The priests of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia assemble each year for a day of prayers and reflection on the Sacred Priesthood. This year our priests gather with the Archbishop at Mother of Divine Providence Parish on Monday, December 1 for the 2025 Day of Sanctification for Priests. Please pray for all priests of the Archdiocese, especially this weekend and Monday, with the following prayer from the Roman Missal:

*Lord our God, who is governing your people
Make use of the ministry of Priests,
Grant to these men
A persevering obedience to your will,
So that by their ministry and life
They may gain glory for you in Christ.
Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God forever and ever.
Amen.*

The Educational Improvement Tax Credit (EITC) and Opportunity Scholarship Tax Credit (OSTC) programs remain powerful tools, allowing corporations, pass-through entities, and individuals to direct their Pennsylvania tax liability toward educational access and student success. With annual program caps now reached earlier each cycle, timely and strategic participation is more important than ever.

At the Foundation for Catholic Education, we serve as an approved Scholarship Organization, partnering with accountants, attorneys, and financial advisors across the Commonwealth to simplify the process for your clients. Our team manages all compliance, reporting, and school disbursements, ensuring contributions directly benefit students in need at more than 100 Catholic elementary schools.

PREP
Parish Religious Education Program

Dear Families,

Advent is all about preparing for Jesus's birthday and His eventual second coming. During this time, we should pray more, give more and receive the Lord's mercy by going to confession.

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives us an example of a time when people should have prepared but didn't. Anyone remember Noah's Ark? Did you know that before the flood, people were hanging out right up to the day that Noah got on the ark? Unlike Noah, they weren't ready for the flood and got hurt.

Today, if we hear about a storm, we close our windows and bring anything in that could blow away. In our home, we lock our doors so no one can break in.

Just as we prepare for situations like that, we should try to be the best we can be each day. How?? By praying, helping others and going to confession so we have a clean slate. And really, not just during Advent and Lent. This should be an ongoing thing. Advent just reminds us to focus on these things especially if we haven't been doing so. For we do not know the hour that we will see Lord again. And when that time comes for us to meet our Lord and savior, we want to be as close to perfect and ready that a human can be.

God is good! All the time!! All the Time, God is good!!!
