News from Fr. Reilly's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family, and we seek to follow the example of Saint Joseph, the Blessed Mother, and the Christ Child, as they sought to live the life of a holy family. They offer our families an example of what it means to live in holiness and faith.

The first thing we should note is that the Holy Family knew its own share of heartache, challenge, and hardship. They were forced to travel far from home during the riskiest time of Mary's pregnancy, leading to their son's birth in a rough place and in conditions less than ideal. Shortly after the birth of Jesus, they are told that they must flee for their lives and for the life of their newborn son. They travel in haste to a distant land until they receive the message that it is safe for them to return. Their challenges resemble the challenges we experience in our own family lives.

The second thing we should note about the Holy Family is that in faith they listen for, and are open to, God's guidance in their lives. Both Mary and Joseph receive mysterious angelic visitors who share stunning and challenging news with them. Their trust in and openness to God are models for us to follow. Their family is guided by God, and they teach us to do the same.

One final thing we can note about the Holy Family is that they demonstrate the importance of the values held up for us in the second reading. Healthy doses of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience must have been theirs as they adapted to changing circumstances, new surroundings, and unseen challenges.

This Feast of the Holy Family holds up for us their example of simple trust and openness to God, and the faith which they shared. They show us that our families, even in times of challenge or uncertainty, can also be holy families – settings in which each of us can grow in kindness, humility, gentleness, and peace. With faith and trust in God, we, too, experience family life in all its uncertainty and its wondrous beauty.

A Prayer for Families

Jesus, our most loving redeemer,
You came to enlighten the world
with your teaching and example.
You willed to spend the greater part of Your life in humble obedience to Mary and Joseph in the poor home of Nazareth.
In this way, You sanctified that family,
which was to be an example for all Christian families.
Graciously accept our family, which we dedicate and consecrate to You this day.
Be pleased to protect, guard, and keep it in holy fear, in peace,
and in the harmony of Christian charity.
By conforming ourselves to the Divine model of Your family, may we attain to eternal happiness.
Amen.

Happy New Year! I pray and hope that this year will be a blessed one for you and your family. As with all those new year resolutions we make and begin this week, maybe we can add another one on to the list: how about inviting someone to come back to church. I know that it may seem like a huge request, but what a great opportunity to invite someone to begin this year by inviting the Lord back into their life as well as coming to pray with us as a parish family each Sunday. Here's a little prayer to help you begin this year as a prayerful one:

Prayer for the New Year

O God of new beginnings and wonderful surprises, thank you for the gift of a new year.
May it be a time of grace for me, a time to grow in faith and love, a time to renew my commitment to following Your Son, Jesus.
May it be a year of blessing for me, a time to cherish my family and friends, a time to renew my efforts at work, a time to embrace my faith more fully.
Walk with me, please, in every day and every hour of this new year,
that the light of Christ might shine through me,
in spite of my weaknesses and failings.
Above all, may I remember this year that I am a pilgrim on the sacred path to You.
Amen

God Love Ya!

PREP Parish Religious Education Program

Dear Families,

Merry Christmas! Today is the Feast Day of the Holy Family. Mary, Jesus, and Joseph are role models for us. They remind us to be compassionate, caring and faithful.

The Blessed Mother and St. Joseph said Yes to God even though they were scared when they were each told about Jesus impending birth. And again when St. Joseph was told to flee from Herod. Jesus asked God to "take this cup from me" when He knew that He was going to suffer for our sins but then said, "not my will but yours be done."

The Holy Family are examples of leaning on each other and having faith in God. We should follow in their footsteps and help each other, pray to our Lord and trust in our Lord. His will not ours be done.

St. Padre Pio once said, "Blessed is the crisis that made you grow, the fall that made you look to heaven, and the problem that made you look for God."

Never stop looking to God. He is Good! All the Time!
Merry Christmas!

CALL FOR A Hero

Brett Wenger, born and raised in Delco (Upper Darby PA) - a proud member of the St. Lawrence and Highland Park community - needs our prayers and the help of a hero. Many know him from his years with the Highland Park/Kirkland Athletic Association, where he followed in his father's footsteps. He's the proud husband to his wife Solange and loving dad to his two sons, Tyler and Matthew. Brett has been recently diagnosed with liver failure and is now in need of a living donor to save his life. The wait for a deceased donor can take years and time is our biggest enemy, however there is hope.

Scan the QR code for additional information on how a Living Donation Works. If you chose to help, use this QR code to begin the process. Please be sure to note Brett Wenger as the liver recipient.

Share Brett's story,
Pray for Brett, Solange, Tyler and Matthew Let's help Brett get healthy again with his family, friends, and his church. Together we can find the hero he needs.
