News from Fr. Reilly's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Jesus was anointed with the Holy Spirit in his baptism to bring us his healing, freedom, and light. After John initially objects to Jesus' request for baptism, Jesus says to John, allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness. Jesus' words lead us to ponder what exactly is being fulfilled in Christ whom we meet in the Scriptures and in our Mass today.

The prophet Isaiah says that Christ was called for the victory of justice, to be a light for the nations, to open the eyes of the blind, to bring out prisoners from confinement, and from the dungeon, those who live in darkness. These are promises not only for those who came before us in salvation history, but for each of the baptized.

Matthew's Gospel invites us to consider how the Lord brings these promises to fulfillment in our lives. Where we fail to see as God sees, God comes to give us new vision. By the gift of his Spirit, he brings new insight and hope. When we are prisoners, stuck in sin and ways of living that hold us back from the fullness of life God desires for us, Christ gives us his mercy and the grace to walk again in freedom. When we find ourselves in darkness, God comes with his Spirit to bring comfort and light.

Jesus brought his healing to us through his baptism. We might wonder why Jesus was baptized, since it was a symbol of repentance and he was without sin. But our tradition tells us that as Jesus enters the river Jordan and the Spirit is poured out upon him, water itself is forever changed. Jesus, through his baptism, makes water capable of being the instrument of our baptism. What is more, Jesus unites himself to all who would ever be plunged in the waters of baptism. And so, in the waters of our baptism, Jesus' presence and power are made available to and poured out upon each of us.

Having received the gift of Jesus' life within us in baptism, we, too, are empowered. We have been given all we need to participate in Christ's work to bring light, life, and freedom to all whom we meet. As we approach this sacred table, let us bring all our needs to his loving power. In the Eucharist, Jesus, fulfills these promises to us. May our hearts be opened to receive his grace and blessing poured out on us today.

God Love Ya!
Fr. Reilly

Monday Morning Gatherings: "Jesus' Healing Presence in the Gospels"

Monday, January 12, 26, 2026 (continued in February)

Presenter: Sister Marie Gipprich, IHM

9:30 AM to 12:00 noon

Stipend: $20

"What do you want me to do for you?" This is a question Jesus asks of a blind man in Mark's gospel. This question and the man's answer indicate, not only Jesus' desire to help those who are suffering, but the need for people (us) to reach out to God for healing of all kinds. We will explore familiar stories about people in the gospels who have encountered Jesus through physical healing and discuss the implications of the results of those healings for them and for us.

This charming account of a period in the life of author J.M. Barrie reveals the real relationships and events that served as a basis for the author's most iconic work, "Peter Pan." After Barrie develops a platonic relationship with the widowed Sylvia and her four sons, he is inspired to write a play about a group of children who don't want to grow up. The work proves a hit and winds up bringing Barrie and the children together in a way he had never expected. Starring Johnny Depp and Kate Winslet.

Parish Religious Education Program

St. Teresa of Avila tells us that Christ has no body but yours, no hands, no feet on earth but yours.

Yours are the eyes with which He looks compassionately on this world. Yours are the feet with which He walks to do good, Yours are the hands, with which He blesses all the world.

Our parish families are trying to be Jesus boots on the ground by coming together to make 43 large casseroles & 38 small dinners this past fall. This doesn't include the large number of meals that families did at home and dropped off. Others also donated food at Thanksgiving and bought gifts for families in need from our tree. This is on top of other Works of Mercy that they do outside of our parish.

On January 26th, we plan to meet again in the church Hall. This is for families. It is not a drop off event. We need all hands to help. If you are interested, please sign up:

Dear Families,

Today is one of my favorite Gospels! Yes, I know I say that a lot of the Gospels. Each one teaches me something new. Do you know what stands out in today's Gospel to me? In this Gospel, we can visualize the Holy Trinity together which is sometimes hard to do.

When John the Baptist, baptized his cousin, Jesus, God the son, Heaven opened up and God, the Holy Spirit, came down. We then hear God, the Father in Heaven, say, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." This visual touches me each time I hear it.

God is good!
Miss Michele

Please join us at SS. Peter and Paul's newest Mom's Group: Friends in Faith

We meet every other Friday. Our next meetings are January 16 and 30 from 7:30 to 9:00 AM in the Parish Center.

Join us before work or after you drop the kids off at school. Kids aren't in school yet? Bring them! You can only stay for a bit? That is fine! This is a time of togetherness and calm for us moms! Take a few moments to sit, sip, and connect with a community of like-hearted mamas. Stop in for as little or as long as you can! No sign up is necessary.

CALL FOR A Hero

Brett Wenger, born and raised in Delco (Upper Darby PA) - a proud member of the St. Lawrence and Highland Park community - needs our prayers and the help of a hero. Many know him from his years with the Highland Park/Kirkland Athletic Association, where he followed in his father's footsteps. He's the proud husband to his wife Solange and loving dad to his two sons, Tyler and Matthew. Brett has been recently diagnosed with liver failure and is now in need of a living donor to save his life. The wait for a deceased donor can take years and time is our biggest enemy, however there is hope.

Scan the QR code for additional information on how a Living Donation Works. If you chose to help, use this QR code to begin the process. Please be sure to note Brett Wenger as the liver recipient.

Share Brett's story,
Pray for Brett, Solange, Tyler and Matthew

Let's help Brett get healthy again with his family, friends, and his church. Together we can find the hero he needs.
