News from Fr. Reilly's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

"I'll know it when I see it." How many of us have uttered this phrase at one time or another, indicating that while we might not be able to describe something in precise terms at this very moment, we know that we'll be able to recognize what we're looking for as soon as we see it?

Sometimes what we consider to be an innate sense of what we're looking for is evidence of the Holy Spirit's work in us. In the Gospel, we see that God had been preparing John the Baptist to recognize the coming of Christ. John says twice in our Gospel today that I did not know him, and yet as soon as Jesus started coming toward him, he immediately said, Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world. John was able to recognize Jesus as the one sent by God because God had revealed to him that on whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain, he is the one. Having listened to the voice of God, John was able to recognize Jesus immediately as the one sent by God.

Like John, we have been given a supernatural ability to recognize the presence of God in our midst. In confirmation, we received the Holy Spirit's gift of knowledge. This gift helps us to "know it when we see it" – to be able to recognize the presence and action of God in the midst of our daily lives.

The Gospels don't tell us whether John was aware that his cousin Jesus would be the one for whom God was calling him to prepare the way. But they show clearly that God told him what to watch for. God sometimes gives us a sense, an inkling, or some insight that helps us to recognize his presence or his work in our lives, especially when it shows up in unexpected places.

As we come to the table of the Lord, may this Eucharist we share open our hearts to receive all the many ways that God makes himself known to us, so we can bear witness to him more effectively in our lives.

God Love Ya!
Fr. Reilly

Monday Morning Gatherings: "Jesus' Healing Presence in the Gospels"
Monday, 2, 9, 2026

Presenter: Sister Marie Gipprich, IHM
9:30 AM to Noon
Stipend: $20

"What do you want me to do for you?" This is a question Jesus asks of a blind man in Mark's gospel. This question and the man's answer indicate, not only Jesus' desire to help those who are suffering, but the need for people (us) to reach out to God for healing of all kinds. We will explore familiar stories about people in the gospels who have encountered Jesus through physical healing and discuss the implications of the results of those healings for them and for us.

He approaches the interview with skepticism as he finds it hard to believe that anyone can have such a good nature. But Roger's empathy, kindness and decency soon chips away at Vogel's jaded outlook on life, forcing the reporter to reconcile with his own painful past.

PREP

Parish Religious Education Program

Dear families,

As the Christmas season and the Liturgical year moves to Ordinary Time, we hear John the Baptist remind us that Jesus is the "Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world."

Sin of the World. Sin that started with Adam and Eve. Sin that separates us from God. God doesn't want to be separated from us. He wants to be close to us.

Sin of the World. That means my sins. Your sins. The gentleman at the diner. The woman at Giant. People we know. People we don't know.

This is such a great gift that our Lord gives to us so let's be like John the Baptist and prepare the way for others in our community to meet Jesus and have a relationship with Him.

God is good! All the time! All the time, God is good!
Miss Michele

"Behold!
The Lamb

of the world!"

John 1:29

This is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those who are called to the supper of the lamb. Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

CALL FOR A Hero

Brett Wenger, born and raised in Delco (Upper Darby PA) - a proud member of the St. Lawrence and Highland Park community - needs our prayers and the help of a hero. Many know him from his years with the Highland Park/Kirkland Athletic Association, where he followed in his father's footsteps. He's the proud husband to his wife Solange and loving dad to his two sons, Tyler and Matthew. Brett has been recently diagnosed with liver failure and is now in need of a living donor to save his life. The wait for a deceased donor can take years and time is our biggest enemy, however there is hope.

Scan the QR code for additional information on how a Living Donation Works. If you chose to help, use this QR code to begin the process. Please be sure to note Brett Wenger as the liver recipient.

Share Brett's story,
Pray for Brett, Solange, Tyler and Matthew
Let's help Brett get healthy again with his family, friends, and his church. Together we can find the hero he needs.
