News from Fr. Reilly's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

It is natural to hope to experience God's presence at special times in our lives – the joy of family occasions, at a shrine, on pilgrimage, or even in times of quiet prayer. Many who go on a spiritual retreat will find that away from the busyness of their regular lives, the presence of God can appear to be more tangible and real. Throughout the Gospels, Jesus would often escape to a deserted place to listen to the voice of the Father. Today, he climbs the mountain and teaches his disciples what we now know as the beatitudes.

In our desire to encounter God we can fall into the trap of thinking that a genuine meeting with God must be accompanied by particular emotions. Our emotions then become the proof we rely on to affirm that we have indeed had an authentic encounter with him.

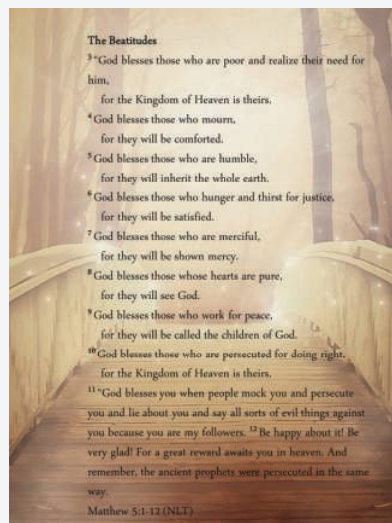

But the spiritual life isn't always accompanied by consoling feelings or emotions. Instead, it can consist largely of routine prayers and rituals and even include as much suffering and grief as there is joy and celebration. Therefore, today's Gospel gives us hope and reassurance that God's presence with us is not dependent upon how we feel at any given moment.

Indeed, the beatitudes remind us that God is there for us at all times of our lives – from moments when we are faced with trials to great moments of gladness and hope. It is in those unexpected places and moments when God draws near to us. No matter what we do or don't do, God is always there with us. In Psalm 139 the psalmist asks, Where can I go from your spirit? From your presence, where can I flee? He then runs through a list of possible places to escape – the heavens, the ends of the seas, the darkness, even in the womb, and yet he ultimately knows that God is there in each and every place.

In the eyes of the world, those listed in the beginning of the beatitudes – the poor in spirit, those who mourn or hunger for righteousness, the persecuted – are more likely to be perceived by others as God-forsaken rather than as blessed. But Jesus reassures us that God, who is the source of all blessedness, meets us in our weakness, our sadness, and our hunger for salvation, as well as in our attempts to do what is right and just.

At every Eucharist we should give thanks to God for his faithfulness – that he comes to dwell with us not only in our emotional peaks but also in our emotional valleys.

God Love Ya!

February Poor Box

Sisters of Life

The poor box collection for February will benefit Sisters of Life, a contemplative/active Roman Catholic community of women religious, who profess the three traditional vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience, and a fourth vow to protect and enhance the sacredness of human life.

It serves in several cities in the U.S. and Canada, including Philadelphia. Its missions include serving women who are vulnerable to abortion, giving them the support and resources to be able to choose life for themselves and their children; hosting weekend retreats; evangelization; and helping women who have suffered after abortion to encounter the mercy and healing of Jesus Christ.

Please be generous in your prayers and donations to Sisters of Life during the month of February.

Christian Meditation Workshop

Monday, February 9, 2026 7:00 PM

Enjoy a few moments of peaceful presence with our Lord. Led by fellow parishioner, mediation teacher, author, Jessica Hildebrand.

Step aside from your exhaustions, take a seat, and welcome the guidance and space to connect with the Lord.

You will receive the support to calm your busy mind and peaceful opportunity to deepen your connection with Jesus.

The sessions includes brief explanation of the meditation practice, 30 minute meditation, and time for reflection & fellowship.

Open and accessible to all, no experience needed.

We hope to have you with us as we allow our minds to rest in the loving presence of God.

Lectio: Mark – Faith Not Fear

Join Dr. Tim Gray as he helps us explore the Gospel of Mark like never before. We'll dive into this action-packed narrative, which reflects St. Peter's firsthand account of Christ's life and teachings.

We are covering the first 7 lessons in the Fall of 2025 but there is still plenty to discover as we complete the final 7 lessons, with no meetings during Holy Week. Each meeting includes a video presentation and group discussion.

Study materials will be ordered as a group. The cost is approximately $25 per person, or $35 if you would like a leader guide that includes answers to the study questions. By ordering through the parish, you will save on sales tax and shipping! If you purchased a study guide in the Fall, you will not need another! You are welcome to check it out without purchasing a study guide, if that appeals to you!

All sessions will be held in the Parish Center (the building between the Church and Boot Road). Choose between two group meeting times:

- Wednesday, March 18 at 7:00 PM -or-
- Thursday, March 19 at 10:00 AM

To reserve your study guide or request more information, by Monday, March 9, please contact Jane Joyce at 610.429.3973 (landline with voicemail) or jane.joyce@verizon.net.

18th Annual Man Up Philly Men's Spirituality Conference

Saturday, February 28, 2026

Pick Up Your Cross and Follow Me

The men of our parish are invited to join Catholic men from throughout the Archdiocese for the 18th Annual Man Up Philly Men's Conference on Saturday, February 28, 2026, at Cardinal O'Hara High School.

Speakers include Father Douglas McKay, Archdiocesan priest and founder of Our House Ministries; Chris Gheysens, Chairman and CEO of Wawa; and Kevin Reilly, former NFL player and inspirational Catholic speaker. Back by popular demand, Mark Forrest, internationally recognized Irish tenor, will lead our time of prayer and reflection. The Sacrament of Reconciliation will be available, and the Conference will conclude with Mass celebrated by our Archbishop, the Most Reverend Nelson J. Pérez.

For more information and to register go to the website: www.manupphilly.com

We have posters, flyers, and banners available for promoting the conference in your parish. Please contact Ed Klenk with any questions - 215.436.0956 or catholic4men@gmail.com

Archbishop Nelson J. Pérez has proposed a bold vision for the future of the Catholic Church of Philadelphia in his pastoral letter, Trust and Hope (more information can be found at TrustandHope.org). The Catholic Church of Philadelphia is not defined by its structures, but by its greatest treasure – it's people. To plan its future, the Archdiocese is working with the Steier Group, a national Catholic fundraising firm, to conduct a campaign planning study. Please accept the invitation to share your feedback on the the Church of Philadelphia's proposed plans. This is our moment to renew the Catholic Church of Philadelphia – to strengthen parishes, form missionary disciples, and bring Christ to a world in need. YOUR VOICE MATTERS! Impact our future by taking our survey at: <https://forms.office.com/r/9fcs95U5B4> or scan the QR code.

Parish Religious Education Program

Dear Families,

Today, Jesus reminds us that with hardships come blessings.
 Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
 Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted.
 Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land.
 Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied.
 Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.
 Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God.
 Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.
 Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
 Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.

Our reward will be in Heaven! God is good! All the Time! All the Time, God is good!

CALL FOR A Hero

Brett Wenger, born and raised in Delco (Upper Darby PA) - a proud member of the St. Lawrence and Highland Park community - needs our prayers and the help of a hero. Many know him from his years with the Highland Park/Kirkland Athletic Association, where he followed in his father's footsteps. He's the proud husband to his wife Solange and loving dad to his two sons, Tyler and Matthew. Brett has been recently diagnosed with liver failure and is now in need of a living donor to save his life. The wait for a deceased donor can take years and time is our biggest enemy, however there is hope.

Scan the QR code for additional information on how a Living Donation Works. If you chose to help, use this QR code to begin the process. Please be sure to note Brett Wenger as the liver recipient.

Share Brett's story,
Pray for Brett, Solange, Tyler and Matthew
Let's help Brett get healthy again with his family, friends, and his church. Together we can find the hero he needs.
