News from Fr. Reilly's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

As we get closer to the season of Lent, Jesus continues his Sermon on the Mount, telling his disciples that they are the salt of the earth and the light of the world. Elaborating further, Jesus explains that this light must shine with good deeds.

For those of us who want more specifics about these good deeds, we can look to Isaiah's prophetic words: Share your bread with the hungry, shelter the oppressed and the homeless; clothe the naked. Hopefully these sound familiar. When Jesus speaks about the last judgment when the Son of Man will separate the sheep from the goats later in Matthew's Gospel, works such as these mentioned in Isaiah are the litmus test. These charitable actions are the basis for the works of mercy that call us to address the physical and spiritual needs of our neighbors. Jesus tells us that these works of mercy should be a constant, visible, perhaps even central aspect of our life of discipleship. Hearing Jesus emphasize that these should be visible to others, not just done in secret, might make some of us uncomfortable. Aren't we supposed to be humble? This doesn't sound humble. But it is. For it is not us that should be visible but the works themselves and, as Jesus goes on to say, these works of mercy will speak to those who witness them about God and lead them to give God praise.

There are many people in our community and around the world who are in need of food, clothing, shelter, hospitality, and visiting. Let us reflect on how we are meeting these needs and consider how and whether God is inviting us to do more this Lenten season. We might consider whether we are cultivating a merciful heart – one that is attentive to the needs of those around us, one that would notice if a family member, co-worker, or neighbor was suffering or going through a difficult time and is ready to step in as needed.

In addition, in our day and age, we would also do well not to overlook Isaiah's call to remove from your midst ... malicious speech. Although most of us do not intend to be malicious in our speech, let us take care so that our words to others do not come across as thoughtless, unkind, or hurtful. Such words have no place in our life as disciples called to shine the Lord's light through good deeds. As we receive the Lord in the Eucharist, let us ask him to illuminate our hearts that we might discern how he is calling us to live the works of mercy, especially as we prepare to move into the Lenten season.

God Love Ya!
Fr. Reilly

40 Hour Devotion

February 15, 16, 17, 2026

What exactly is Forty Hours Devotion?

Forty Hours Devotion is a special period of continuous prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, which is the real and true Presence of the Lord. This solemn Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament reminds us of the 40 hours that Christ's body rested in the tomb before His Resurrection.

Forty Hours Devotion begins with an opening Mass which concludes with Exposition. The Blessed Sacrament remains exposed on the altar in a monstrance for 40 hours, while people gather for quiet prayer in adoration of our Lord. Forty Hours concludes with Mass, benediction and final reposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

In many parishes, the forty hours are interrupted during the night and the devotion extends over three days. These days are similar to a parish retreat with a guest priest and evening prayer, but the focus is always on the Blessed Sacrament.

History: St. Anthony Mary Zaccaria introduced this devotion in 1527 in Milan; it was later spread by the Jesuits under St. Ignatius, and approved by many Popes. In 1853, St. John Neumann introduced 40 Hours Devotion in America when he was Bishop of Philadelphia.

The 2nd Vatican Council in 1964 stated that the Holy Eucharist is "the source and summit of the Christian life" (Lumen Gentium, #11). Although Mass is the central act of worship for Catholics, the Council encouraged adoration of the Blessed Sacrament outside of the Mass.

Mark your calendars for Sunday February 15 through Tuesday, February 17. Forty Hours Devotion will begin at the end of the 11:30 AM Mass and continue each day. Evening prayer will be held at 7:00 PM on Sunday and Monday; closing Mass on Tuesday at 7:00 PM.

PREP Parish Religious Education Program

Dear Families,

In today's Gospel, Jesus ask us again to follow in His footsteps and be a light of the world by using our gifts from Him. Remember our gifts and talents are from God. If we don't use our gifts just like if we don't use salt while it is good, it becomes useless. We must not hide. We must be like our Lord and help others and shine while doing so. This way, it will inspire others to do the same and it brings glory to our Lord.

This little light of mine, I am going to let it shine. God is good! All the Time! All the time, God is good!

MATTHEW 5:13-16

Jesus said to his disciples: "You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned? It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot.

You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house.

Just so,

your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father."

CALL FOR A Hero

Brett Wenger, born and raised in Delco (Upper Darby PA) - a proud member of the St. Lawrence and Highland Park community - needs our prayers and the help of a hero. Many know him from his years with the Highland Park/Kirkland Athletic Association, where he followed in his father's footsteps. He's the proud husband to his wife Solange and loving dad to his two sons, Tyler and Matthew. Brett has been recently diagnosed with liver failure and is now in need of a living donor to save his life. The wait for a deceased donor can take years and time is our biggest enemy, however there is hope.

Scan the QR code for additional information on how a Living Donation Works. If you chose to help, use this QR code to begin the process. Please be sure to note Brett Wenger as the liver recipient.

Share Brett's story.
Pray for Brett, Solange, Tyler and Matthew
Let's help Brett get healthy again with his family, friends, and his church. Together we can find the hero he needs.
