News from Fr. Reilly's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

As much as we may be tempted to look back on the Israelites and wonder at their doubt, if any of us have ever been truly thirsty, we will be moved to greater empathy for their plight. There are few things more troubling than not having enough water. We can go some amount of time without food, but water is a very urgent human need. And so, confronted with the horrific reality of being in a desert with no water, wondering if God has abandoned them no longer feels so surprising.

We often grapple with moments we feel spiritually dry and begin to question God's providence. Especially in our modern context, we, too, are in a desert – not a physical but a spiritual one. We live in a world where sources connecting us to that deeper, richer inner life can feel hard to notice, hard to get to, hard to find. Sometimes it can seem as though the number of people in our midst who are plagued by spiritual thirst is very high. And in these moments of suffering and longing and need, we may find ourselves asking the same question as the Israelites in our first reading: Is the Lord in our midst or not?

In this season of Lent, we are invited to bring our spiritual thirst to the Lord. We see in the Gospel that Jesus himself is the source of the living water that satisfies the spiritual thirsts in our lives. Whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst, Jesus says. Just as God provided for the Israelites in the desert, so, too, he provides for us through his Son, Jesus, from whom blood and water poured as a fountain of grace. At Mass, Jesus' self-offering on the cross becomes real and present to us. In the Eucharist, he continues to pour out his abundant life to refresh our souls.

But Jesus doesn't only give us himself. He also gives us the gift of his Spirit. Saint Paul reminds us that we will find our peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, and in the love of God that has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit. When we receive the love of God through the Spirit, we are, to borrow a phrase from Pope Francis, "set free from sin, sorrow, inner emptiness and loneliness" (Evangelii Gaudium, 1). Through the gift of the Spirit, we receive life-giving water in abundance. Here in this sacred place, in this sacred time, let us acknowledge our thirst and our need for God. Let us not mask it or hide it with distractions or goods which cannot ultimately satisfy. We are invited today to bring our thirst to God and, like the Samaritan woman, simply ask: Lord, give me this water.

Just as the Lord was waiting for the woman at the well, Jesus will meet us in our need and provide life-giving water for all our spiritual thirsts.

God Love Ya!
Fr. Reilly

Fr. Reilly's Liturgical Tidbit THE GATHERING SONG/ENTRANCE HYMN

What is the function of the gathering song? The gathering song serves to form us into a community, preparing us to worship as a unified body. It is the first formal act of the liturgy that we do together as the Body of Christ gathered for worship. The singing together, even breathing together as we sing, helps us to become the one body that is gathered for worship. It focuses us on what we are about to do. It frequently brings to our awareness the focus of the day's celebration. Like the homily, the intercessions, and the prayers, the music is chosen to reflect the readings of the day. The gathering song is part of the Introductory Rites that begins our celebration of the liturgy. Only when we have gathered physically and spiritually, can we enter into the important action of the liturgy of listening to the Word of God. The gathering song should help us to become aware of ourselves as a unified community gathered for worship.

March Poor Box Collection

Good Saint Anne Runaway Homeless Youth

The poor box collection for March will benefit Good Saint Anne Runaway Homeless Youth, a charity founded by one of our parishioners. Good Saint Anne provides resources necessary to get youth off the street in Philadelphia, Delaware County, and Chester County areas. It is committed to serving those who are affected by hunger, homelessness, addiction, domestic violence and sex trafficking. Its goal is to identify and communicate with youth who have no way of getting off the street themselves and get them the help they need to reach their highest potential. Sadly, homelessness can have many disastrous consequences as predators take full advantage of these youth. Through its street outreach program, Good Saint Anne is able to provide youth the resources they need to get off the street or assist them in receiving the support they need, which might include rehab. Good Saint Anne rescues pregnant homeless mothers. It is able to put them in temporary accommodations for however long need be, and provide them with the resources they need. It provides them with a safe and comfortable place to stay until they get adequate housing and a safe environment for them and their baby. Please pray for these youth and give generously to Good Saint Anne through this month's poor box.

Caring For Friends in Need Again!

We hope everyone is settled into Lent. Providing extra meals is a big necessity to meet our obligations to our elderly Seniors.

They look forward to our weekly visits bringing them nourishing high protein meals and delicious hearty soups, along with some needed companionship.

Over the last two weeks we only received a total of two and ten meals. We provided over forty meals to meet our clients needs. The result is that we used up most of our stock. I am not happy unless we have four full shelves of stock.

I know it is a busy time for everyone. Please take some extra time to help us continue sharing our good will with our friends that require support and assistance to meet their food security.

Please make an extra effort to help keep our freezer full.

God Bless!

Parish Religious Education Program

Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water." John 4:10

Dear Families,

In today's Gospel, Jesus ask a woman for water. She didn't understand why He would ask her water as they were strangers. Jesus replied, "If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink, 'you would have asked him and he would have given you living water.'" She was astonished by what Jesus said and asked for this living water. Through further discussion with Jesus, she realizes that He is the Messiah and told others about Him. Just like the Women at the Well all those years ago, we are also asked to evangelize and tell people about Jesus.

This Gospel also shows God's mercy. Jesus didn't care about her past. He cared about her future just like He cares about all of our futures. He wants us in Heaven with Him. That is why our Lord gave us the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation at Pentecost.

Use this Lenten season to go to confession, pray more and help others. For those who haven't gone in a while, SSPP is having its Lenten Penance Service on March 24th. I will be there and are more than happy to help you prepare. I know if can be overwhelming. Think of me as a Confession buddy. I have a few myself and we go to confession together at times. Please reach out anytime!

Remember our Lord wants us to be close to Him. That is why He suffered and died for us. That is why Jesus gave us the Sacraments.

Give thanks to the Lord for He is good!
His mercy endures forever!
