News from Fr. Reilly's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

As we continue our journey through the Easter season, the gospel throughout this season focus on that triumphant Easter morn and the days that follow. During these days we hear and find the disciples fearful in a locked room. And into this scene Jesus comes, stands among them, and says, Peace be with you. As Jesus shows them his pierced hands and side, the disciples rejoiced.

The situation outside those walls had not changed; the disciples could still be arrested when they left the confines of that room. But the situation inside had certainly changed. Peace and joy prevailed within – not fear. And it was an encounter with the risen Lord that had changed things.

In our own lives, so many things can leave us feeling anxious or fearful – finances, career, family tension, health problems. At any time, but especially when we might be feeling anxious or filled with stress, an encounter with the risen Lord can bring us the same peace it brought to the disciples and stir a joyful response in our hearts. Even if the doors to our hearts are locked in some way (as were the doors in that room), the Lord can still come and bring us peace. Indeed, every time we gather to celebrate the Eucharist, the Lord comes in our midst and brings peace to our hearts.

But there are also deeply personal reasons we might experience turmoil and anxiety. When we act in ways contrary to God's law – when we sin – our conscience begins to trouble us and takes away our peace. We all have ways of trying to quiet our consciences, but none of them really work.

Thankfully, the Lord has given us the sacrament of reconciliation as a way to deal with our sin that brings lasting peace. In this beautiful sacrament, we are given an encounter with the Lord's infinite mercy. As we hear the words of absolution, we know that our sins have been truly forgiven. And the peace that floods our souls at that moment is a gift of the Lord that brings immense joy.

Peace and joy. Who among us doesn't want peace and joy in their heart? As we celebrate this Sunday of Divine Mercy, let us give thanks to the Lord for the gift of his redemption, especially through this sacrament he left us on the night of his resurrection. How blessed are we that the Lord, in his infinite mercy, continues to come to us and fill our hearts with the peace only he can give. That's something worth rejoicing about!

God Love Ya!
Fr. Reilly

Prophetic Word

All prophets of the Bible bear the word of God. They and their message are frightening because they disturb our complacency and demand of us far more than we may be willing to give. At every Mass we hear the prophetic word. The question is: will we listen? Or will we dismiss what seems too familiar to deserve our attention? Sometimes it may be hard to hear the message; sometimes we may just not pay attention. But the word of God never ceases to call us. God can send us God's message through readings, homilies, hymns, prayers, persons, events, or even simple experiences. God never gives up trying to break through our deafness so that we might hear and live.

Parish Religious Education Program

Dear Families,

Today is the Second Sunday of Easter also known as Divine Mercy Sunday. We don't just celebrate Easter one day, we have an entire Easter Season on our Liturgical Calendar. Today, we hear about God's mercy when we sin and the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation that He gave us to receive His forgiveness each time we go to Confession.

We hear Jesus come down to visit His disciples and said, "Peace be with you." This peace is shared with us at each Mass. He then breathed on them which gave them the ability to forgive sins in His place. This was all part of God's plan to give us Sacraments like Penance and Reconciliation to heal us when He was no longer on earth with us. Jesus said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

In addition to the gifts of Mercy and Peace, Jesus also reminds us how blessed we are they we believe in Him even though we haven't see Him in the flesh, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

We were hear a variation of this Gospel again in a few weeks. Do you remember when? On Pentecost, the church's birthday!

Give thanks to the Lord for He is good! His mercy endures forever!

Miss Michele

Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed

CALL FOR A Hero

Brett Wenger, born and raised in Delco (Upper Darby PA) - a proud member of the St. Lawrence and Highland Park community - needs our prayers and the help of a hero. Many know him from his years with the Highland Park/Kirkland Athletic Association, where he followed in his father's footsteps. He's the proud husband to his wife Solange and loving dad to his two sons, Tyler and Matthew. Brett has been recently diagnosed with liver failure and is now in need of a living donor to save his life. The wait for a deceased donor can take years and time is our biggest enemy, however there is hope.

Scan the QR code for additional information on how a Living Donation Works. If you chose to help, use this QR code to begin the process. Please be sure to note Brett Wenger as the liver recipient.
