News from Fr. Reilly's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

In this story of two disciples on their way to Emmaus, we hear that Jesus himself drew near and walked with them. Since they did not recognize Jesus, they explained to him all of the things that had been happening regarding Jesus the Nazarene. And then Jesus, beginning with Moses and all the prophets interpreted to them what referred to him in all the Scriptures.

Throughout salvation history, God in all his power draws near. God, having called Abraham to a new land, draws near to promise him that he will be the father of a great people. God, having drawn the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt, draws near to his people to give his commands and lead them in the pillar of fire. God, having given his people the judges and King David, draws near to speak to his people through the prophets. God, having promised a Messiah, draws near to his people in the Incarnation. Christ, having defeated death, draws near to the disciples as they journey.

Jesus meets the disciples in their confusion and pain and speaks to them, interpreting the Scriptures so they can see God's plan and God's work more clearly. God has spoken to his people through the prophets, and now he speaks through his very Son. The disciples respond, begging Christ, Stay with us. Christ joins them at the table, takes the bread, says the blessing, breaks it, and gives it to them. They recognize him in the breaking of the bread and then he disappears. They share with each other how their hearts were burning within them, and they hurry to share this Good News with others.

At every Mass, Christ gives himself to us in the breaking of the bread. Now, the question remains: Will we recognize him? Will we notice our hearts burning within us? As Bishop Barron says in his Word on Fire Bible commentary on this Gospel passage: "The Eucharist is Christ himself, personally and actively present ... This is why it is through the lens of the Eucharist that Jesus comes most fully and vividly into focus."

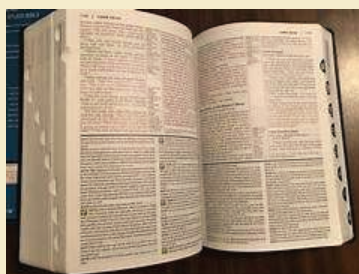

So let us turn our focus to Jesus, who draws near to us as He is truly present in every liturgy – surrounding us in the community gathered, speaking to us in the Scriptures proclaimed, giving himself to us in the Blessed Sacrament.

God Love Ya!
Fr. Reilly

Fr. Reilly's Liturgical Tidbit

Response

The readings from Scripture form the main part of the Liturgy of the Word. It is through the word proclaimed that God speaks to us and nourishes our spirits. It is through our response to the word in song and in silence that we make God's word our own. The response to the First Reading (usually from the Old Testament or the Acts of the Apostles) is a song which uses a psalm as its source. The nature of the response is a reflection of the first reading, a time to let God's word "take root" in our hearts. It is for that reason that silence is really the first response to the readings followed by a song that calls us to listen reflectively. The refrain is meant to be simple and direct, something that does not distract us from the original message but adds to it or helps clarify it. The question for us as we listen to the word is always an invitation: "What is God saying to me today?" The invitation always demands a response: "How will we respond to God's invitation?"

Parish Religious Education Program

Dear Families,

Today we hear about a walk to Emmaus where a few disciples were talking about what had happened. Jesus eventually walked with them but they didn't realize that it was Jesus. They thought He was a random man and shared what happened to our Lord— His suffering and dying and then the angels announcing that He had risen.

Jesus said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are! How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?" Then Jesus talked about all of the prophets and Scriptures that referred to Him.

The disciples asked the 'stranger' to stay with them so He did. In the evening, He took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. (Sound familiar? This occurs at Mass with Father) As Jesus said these words, they realized the 'stranger' was Jesus. Then Jesus disappeared.

The disciples went to tell the ones who weren't with them that the Lord has risen indeed and that they saw Him

Alleluia! Alleluia! He is risen indeed!
Miss Michele

PREP, Parish Religious Education Program,

Also known as CCD, starts the week of June 15. All children going into first grade and up are welcome! Click on the QR code to register!

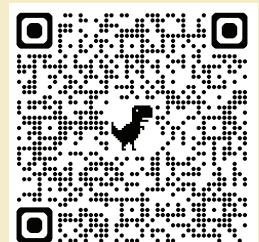

PREP is for rising 1 through 7th graders in public, non-Catholic private schools or children who are homeschooled. Please save the week of June 15 through June 19.

Our format: One week in June, 4 Sundays, 4 Spiritual Activities and 4 Works of Mercy, aka, Service Activities throughout the year.

Children receiving their Sacraments, will meet additional 3 times to focus on the Sacrament as well as attend a retreat with parents.

Returning families received a link via email. New families can click on the QR Code or go to the Parish Website to register.

If your child hasn't started PREP yet, we would love for them to join us now! Please spread the word to your friends who may not be aware of our program.

CALL FOR A Hero

Brett Wenger, born and raised in Delco (Upper Darby PA) - a proud member of the St. Lawrence and Highland Park community - needs our prayers and the help of a hero. Many know him from his years with the Highland Park/Kirkland Athletic Association, where he followed in his father's footsteps. He's the proud husband to his wife Solange and loving dad to his two sons, Tyler and Matthew. Brett has been recently diagnosed with liver failure and is now in need of a living donor to save his life. The wait for a deceased donor can take years and time is our biggest enemy, however there is hope.

Scan the QR code for additional information on how a Living Donation Works. If you chose to help, use this QR code to begin the process. Please be sure to note Brett Wenger as the liver recipient.

Share Brett's story,
Pray for Brett, Solange, Tyler and Matthew
Let's help Brett get healthy again with his family, friends, and his church. Together we can find the hero he needs.
