News from Fr. Reilly's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

In the Gospel, the disciples on seeing the vast crowd that has been listening to Jesus' teaching all day, come and say to him, "This is a deserted place and it is already late; dismiss the crowds so that they can go to the villages and buy food for themselves." The disciples probably felt they were being compassionate in making this suggestion to our Lord; they saw the hunger and weariness of the people and wanted them to be able to find something to eat.

But in the economy of grace, God doesn't ask physically or spiritually hungry people to go and find something to feed themselves. Whether people are physically or spiritually hungry, God simply provides for their needs and draws his disciples to see that they are to do the same.

Like the disciples, how often are we tempted to sidestep responsibility for our neighbors in need, wanting them or God to handle it on their own? But Jesus says, give them some food yourselves. Of course, the food we're called to give our neighbors is not really from us, but from the Lord. He simply needs people willing to step forward and be instruments of his generosity.

Jesus' invitation for his disciples to feed the masses isn't about pragmatism – about the practicalities of distributing loaves and fish to the thousands gathered. It's about transformation, about drawing them and us to become active participants in the outpouring of God's lavish love. It's about transforming our hearts so that, rather than looking for excuses, we feel a burning responsibility to meet the hungers of others.

What is on display in the Scriptures is the burning desire of God's heart to feed those who hunger. And God doesn't want to just feed us in a bare-minimum way. He desires to feed us lavishly, regardless of our ability to repay him. Through the words of the prophet Isaiah, he beckons all who are hungry to come and eat: All you who are thirsty, come to the water! You who have no money, come, receive grain and eat; Come, without paying and without cost, drink wine and milk!

Heed me, and you shall eat well, you shall delight in rich fare.

God always provides for our needs in abundance. When the prodigal son returned home, the father slaughtered the fattened calf. When the crowds were weary, the Lord fed them, with enough leftovers to fill twelve wicker baskets. The God who commands us to invite to our own tables those who cannot repay us, shows us the way before he ever commands it. The overwhelming generosity of God is what gave Paul the confidence to say that nothing will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus. As we come to Mass and go up to the table of the Lord, to feast on the richest of foods – his own Body and Blood – may this manifestation of his immense love transform us into disciples who will wholeheartedly give of ourselves to feed the physical and spiritual hungers of our world.

God Love Ya!
Fr. Reilly

That Man Is You!

Wednesday, September 16, 2026

Men, mark your calendars for That Man Is You! which is coming to Saints Peter & Paul parish starting Wednesday Septmeber 16.

That Man is You! gives men an opportunity to have honest discussions about the challenges and issues men face in our modern culture, especially those relating to our roles as husbands and fathers.

The weekly program blends current social and medical science with the teachings of the Church and the wisdom of the saints to develop the vision of man as he was meant to be.

This early morning program is open to all men. Breakfast provided! Register using the QR code below. See more details on the parish website.

CYACC - Chester County Catholic Young Adults

August 12, 2026 7:00 PM @ IHM, East Whiteland, PA

"Win, Build, Send a Vision for Evangelization in the 21st century" - Max Luckenbach currently serves with FOCUS Catholic as the Team Director at Lehigh University. He will be talking about FOCUS' Win-Build-Send model for evangelization and our role as Catholics for evangelizing others.

August 15, 12:00 PM @ Marsh Creek State Park, Downingtown PA - CYACC goes Kayaking - It's that time of year again—our annual CYACC Goes Kayaking event! Join us for a fun day of fellowship, outdoor adventure, and great food. We'll enjoy a potluck picnic/BBQ, spend time kayaking, paddleboarding, boating, hiking, playing lawn games, praying together, and simply enjoying the day with friends. Please sign up to bring a dish or item for the potluck:

<https://m.signupgenius.com/#!/showSignUp/60B0A4BAAAB2DA31-64828800-cyacc?useFullSite=false>

Bring your own kayak, paddleboard, or boat, or rent equipment on-site (bring your ID and payment if renting). Rentals include kayaks, motorboats, and other watercraft. Remember to bring comfortable clothes, a change of clothes, sunscreen, water, and anything you'd like for the day, such as outdoor games, a hammock, or your favorite water gear. Friends are always welcome!

ISSUE 004

SCHOOL NEWS UPDATE

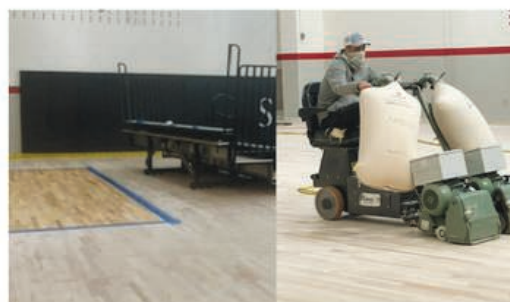

Summer has been a busy time working on the operational parts of our school building. The air conditioning units in several of the classrooms have been tuned up and the installation of the new boiler is on track for later this summer. The school will be cozy regardless of season soon!

POLISHING UP CLASSROOMS

The painting of all classroom walls is well underway and the annual refinish of the floors has begun. All will be shiny and new for the August start of school.

SAVE THE DATE! - 10/10/26

NEW GYM FLOOR UNDERWAY

At long last, the new gym floor installation is well underway. The old floor was stripped out in June, and the new hardwood has been installed. Sanding is now underway, with painting and sealing to come next. Expectations are that the floor will be ready to go for the return of the students at the end of August. What better way to kick off the 25th anniversary of the Crusaders than with a new gym floor?!

SCHOOL SECURITY ENHANCED

Dollars raised at the Spring Fundraiser are being put to work with the installation of the Zero Eyes AI monitoring program. Wiring and upgraded cameras have been installed outside the school. The software program is on track to be in place before the start of the school year. With this program in place, we will be able to address security concerns before they can come into the building.

PREP

Parish Religious Education

Dear Families,

In today's Gospel, we hear that even when Jesus was mourning the death of His dear cousin, John the Baptist, He took pity on the crowds that went to see Him. Jesus put His feelings aside and fed them. He took five loaves and two fish that were available and looked to heaven, said a blessing, broke the loaves and gave it to His disciples. The five loaves and two fish turned into so much food that it fed over 5,000 people with food to spare.

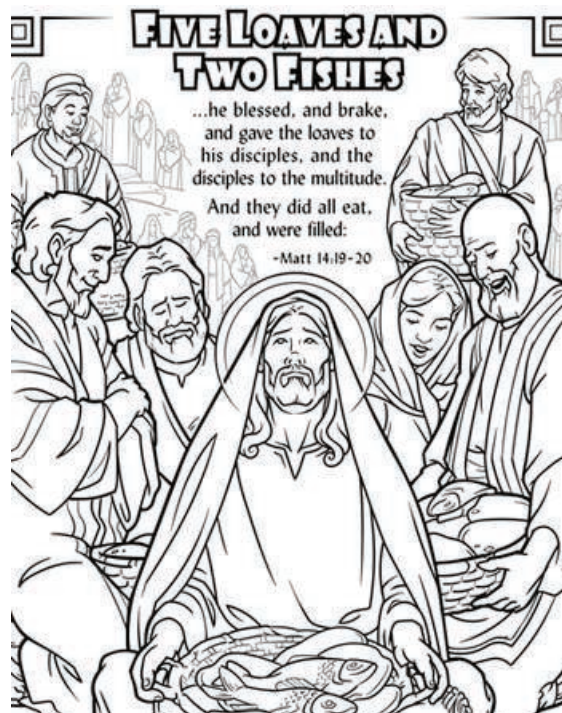

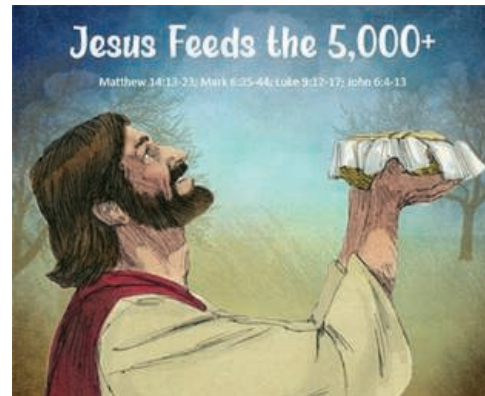

This should sound familiar. At Mass, Father takes the bread and gives a blessing. We are then fed Jesus' body, blood, soul and divinity in the Holy Eucharist.

God is Good!! All the Time! All the Time, God is Good!

Miss Michele

If you are new to the area and/or you weren't aware that PREP started in the Summer, please reach out so we can give you options as to how to proceed. Same thing if your child hasn't never attended PREP but would like to be Catholic.

Saints Peter and Paul All Ability Prep

Welcomes families with children who have learning differences. During the school year, we meet once a month after the 9:30 AM Mass but are open to meeting after school if that is better. This is in addition to PREP. These meetings gives our families a chance to share experiences and meet other families. Lessons include fun, hands-on activities as well as Bible teachings in a relaxed, casual environment. Our hope is to grow our special needs ministry and promote inclusion of all our children and families with additional needs. Reach out if interested! We look forward to seeing you!
