Founders' Day! October 12th

Celebrating Blessed Louis Brisson, OSFS!

On October 12, the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales celebrate Founders' Day, a day in which we remember the first Oblates beginning their novitiate. On this day in 1873, Bishop Ravinet of Troyes, France, presented the Oblate religious habit to Fathers Brisson, Gilbert, Rollin, Lambert, Lambey, and Perrot as they began their novitiate. This day is also the Feast of Father Brisson since his Beatification. Of course, the two go hand in hand!

When he was a diocesan priest, Father Brisson was assigned as chaplain to the monastery of the Visitation of Holy Mary in Troyes. Mother Marie de Sales Chappuis, Superior, was convinced that it was the will of God that their humble chaplain start a religious congregation of men to follow the spiritual legacy of Saint Francis de Sales. Brisson responded and founded the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales, a congregation dedicated to spreading the optimistic, inspired-common-sense wisdom of Saint Francis de Sales in a variety of ministries and apostolates in 1875. Father Brisson was beatified, at the authorization of Pope Benedict XVI, in 2012, in Troyes, France. The cause for his canonization remains active.

"'Cheer up.' For us (Oblates), this expression should carry great weight because in the mind of Saint Francis de Sales it really meant something - it meant a lot. 'Cheer up.' After all, it's courage, the right kind of courage that will be your prop always and in every circumstance, and it's a real test of strength of mind. It takes a lot of courage to keep up a solid front, hard work, and good judgment on an even keel... Just as yesterday I told you that we must do our work passionately well, so today, I would tell you to 'cheer up' in every phase of your life. And this sort of courage will be proof that you are a real Oblate of St. Francis de Sales." (Retreat Instruction, August 19, 1890)

Contact: Maryeross06@gmail.com, or Denirostocki@comcast.net with questions.

During this time of giving, a QCD from your IRA is a great way to give back to the church.

The IRA Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) allows taxpayers 70 ½ or older to donate up to $100,000 from their individual retirement accounts (IRAs) directly to charitable nonprofits. When a taxpayer reaches age 72 (old rule 70 ½) they have to withdraw a required minimum distribution (RMD) from their IRA each year, which is taxable income. However, if the taxpayer donates up to $100,000 of their RMD to a qualified charity, via a QCD, the RMD is not taxable income, which could be more beneficial than getting the charitable deductions for the actual donation. See your tax or financial advisor to discuss further how this could benefit you. If you have questions, you can also contact your fellow parishioner, Sue Morgan at isawsam19@aol.com.

WORD OF LIFE – October 9, 2022

"An old Irish proverb says, 'It is in the shelter of each other that the people live.' Indeed, we are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when family members or friends approach life's end, we may not know how best to 'shelter' them. Here are some concrete ways we can compassionately care for them: usccb.org/end-of-life-care."
