Second Sunday of Ordinary Time

January 18 & 19, 2025

'Let's forget to hope'

Yes, you read that title correctly! It does, however, need better punctuation to convey the proper meaning, which a saint with local ties can provide. The church has recently begun the celebration of Jubilee 2025. The year of festivities takes up an ancient tradition of pardon and restoration, first highlighted in the Jewish biblical tradition and later inaugurated in the Christian era in the Holy Year of 1300. Celebrated every twenty-five years since 1470, the jubilee seeks to turn our collective attention to the Lord in a particular way so as to re-focus our faith on the great things the Lord has done and continues to do for us.

"Hope does not disappoint" is the central message proclaimed by Pope Francis for Jubilee 2025. In a world today where so many people can easily be "discouraged, pessimistic and cynical about the future, as if nothing could bring them happiness," an intentional focus on hope intends to offer an opportunity for renewal. Learning to forget is one way to make that happen. This doesn't mean denying reality but choosing to embrace an even greater state of affairs. St. Leonie Aviat (1844-1914), who co-founded the Oblate Sisters of St. Francis de Sales and whose feast is celebrated Jan. 10, exemplifies how to do that.

Visitation monastery in Troyes (France), where young girls from the countryside came to live and work in the town's textile factories, young Leonie was affected by their plight. Father Louis Brisson, who had opened a center to keep these young people safe and also educate them in the faith, convinced Leonie to establish a religious congregation to continue this apostolic work.

On the day of her religious profession, the future saint made a resolution that would become her life's motto: to forget myself entirely. She would do so as a matter of hope. Leonie appropriated the understanding of hope lived and taught by St. Francis de Sales (1567-1622), whose name she would take in religious life.

We can forget all that by choosing, instead, to remember the God in whom we believe: the Father who created us out of goodness and for goodness, the Son who redeemed us the sin that wounds our human nature, and the Holy Spirit who breathes within us and inclines us toward union with God forever. In Salesian spirituality, hope arises from this understanding of who God is to us and for us. More than merely an optimistic outlook, this religious hope "gives inward direction and purpose to the life of believers," as Pope Francis reminds us.

In this Jubilee year, we have the opportunity to redirect our lives by experiencing again the mercy of God that grounds our everyday hope. Through pilgrimage and prayer, we can come once more to know what the saints knew – that in the midst of all the contrary things happening around us (or within us), "hope does not disappoint, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us" (Romans 5:5).

St. Leonie Aviat's apostolic work flowed from the hopeful resolution "to forget myself entirely." As Pope John Paul II preached at her canonization, this self-forgetting in favor of God-remembering can also serve us as "an invitation to go against the current with respect to egoism and easy pleasures and open us up to the social and spiritual necessities of our time." Our time, our world needs hope, the Christian hope that does not disappoint.

As a new year begins and the Jubilee continues, let's forget to hope; that is, let's forget ourselves so as to hope in the one whose coming among us we just merrily celebrated, the Emmanuel who remains always with us.

Oblate Father Thomas Dailey holds the John Cardinal Foley Chair of Homiletics and Social Communications at Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, where he also directs the new Catholic Preaching Institute.

If anyone is getting rid of their Keurig machine and is interested in donating it, the church could use them.. Please drop off to the parish office. Thank you.

During this time of giving, a QCD from your IRA is a great way to give back to the church.

The IRA Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) allows taxpayers 70 ½ or older to donate up to $100,000 from their individual retirement accounts (IRAs) directly to charitable nonprofits. When a taxpayer reaches age 72 (old rule 70 ½) they have to withdraw a required minimum distribution (RMD) from their IRA each year, which is taxable income. However, if the taxpayer donates up to $100,000 of their RMD to a qualified charity, via a QCD, the RMD is not taxable income, which could be more beneficial than getting the charitable deductions for the actual donation. See your tax or financial advisor to discuss further how this could benefit you. If you have questions, you can also contact your fellow parishioner, Sue Morgan at isawsam19@aol.com.

GREETER MINISTRY

Are you looking for a fun way to participate at Mass? Do you enjoy opening doors for your fellow parishioners, giving them a genuine smile and saying "Welcome"? Then we want you to join our Greeters Ministry. It only takes 15 minutes before mass and everyone will enjoy and appreciate your warm welcome. Contact Susan Worton at (302)832-1250 if interested.

January 24th
Feast day of
St. Francis de Sales, patron of the Diocese of Wilmington and the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales.

One of his beautiful teachings that can help us in our times is that we need to slow down so that we can pay attention to beauty, to what matters, to develop a calm spirit. Why? So that no matter what happens in our day we will not be overcome by anger, impatience, frustration, or worries. He writes: "Never be in a hurry; do everything quietly and in a calm spirit. Do not lose your inner peace for anything whatsoever, even if your whole world seems upset." How can we maintain an inner peace?

Word of Life

January 19, 2025

"There is such a wide spectrum of issues involving the protection of human life and the promotion of human dignity. Good people frequently disagree on which problems to address, which policies to adopt and how best to apply them. But for citizens and elected officials alike, the basic principle is simple: We must begin with a commitment never to intentionally kill, or collude in the killing, of any innocent human life, no matter how broken, unformed, disabled or desperate that life may seem. In other words, the choice of certain ways of acting is always and radically incompatible with the love of God and the dignity of the human person created in His image."
