From the Pastor's Desk...

You may have noticed that you have not seen your pastor in a few weeks. That is because I had a partial knee replacement on both of my knees on Thursday, December 29. After the surgery, I spent a couple of nights in Northwestern Hospital, in Huntley, IL. I then had in-home physical therapy for the first 2 weeks of my recovery, as the physical therapists came right to the rectory. Dr. Daniels and the Physical Therapists have been pleased with my recovery.

My initial expectations were that I would be returning to work within a couple of weeks. My doctor, the physical therapists and my body have all made it clear that those were unrealistic expectations, especially after having an operation on both knees. So, as I write this column on Martin Luther King Day (January 16), it is my sincere hope that I will be back for Mass on Sunday, January 22. So, I am praying for a great deal of healing to happen this coming week.

I have been very faithful to my PT exercises twice each day, resting, elevating my legs and icing. I have done my best to manage pain medications, but I have felt sick to my stomach the past few days, and I believe it is due to the effects of the medication. Now, I hope to wean myself off of these meds so that my system begins to return to normal. I had PT and a doctors visit this morning and now I am extremely tired, so I am going to rest.

Please keep me in your prayers and hopefully I will see you this weekend.

Peace, love and joy,

Fr. Bob Jones

St. Marianne Cope | January 23

Barbara Koop, later Mother Marianne Cope, was born in Germany on January 23, 1838, and immigrated with her parents to New York when she was 2 years old. In August of 1862 she went to the sisters of the Third Order of Saint Francis in Syracuse, New York and took her vows the next year. Her early religious life saw her working as a teacher and administrator for local Catholic schools until she was called upon by the bishop to use her administrative skills as superior of St. Joseph's Hospital in Syracuse, New York. She devoted herself to the care of the sick and infirm and the hospital flourished under her leadership. As the Provincial Mother of her order in Syracuse, Cope, along with six other sisters, she answered a call made by the Hawaiian government to run the Kaka'ako Branch Hospital on Oahu that served as a receiving station for people suspected of having leprosy.

Of the more than 50 religious communities in the United States and Canada who were asked by the government to help the suffering communities and hospitals for those with leprosy (Hansen's disease) in Hawaii, Mother Marianne and her sisters were the only ones to answer the call. They immediately got to work transforming the hospital environment for those with leprosy and their families. Of this mission, she said —

"I am hungry for the work and I wish with all my heart to be one of the chosen ones, whose privilege it will be to sacrifice themselves for the salvation of the souls of the poor Islanders.... I am not afraid of any disease, hence, it would be my greatest delight even to minister to the abandoned 'lepers'."

In 1888, Mother Marianne and two sisters took on an even more challenging assignment and went to the Hawaiian island of Moloka'i, a leper colony, to open a new home devoted to the protection of girls and women with leprosy as well as to take charge of the home that her friend, Saint Damien de Veuster, had established for men and boys. She helped improve life on the island by introducing pride, cleanliness, and a little fun to the colony. She often provided bright scarves and dresses for the women she served and cheerfully carried out her mission until she died on August 9, 1918. While in service, she was awarded the Royal Order of Kapiolani by the Hawaiian government for her selfless love and care of those in need and never contracted leprosy. She was canonized in 2012.

Prayer for St. Marianne Cope's intercession

Lord Jesus, you who gave us your commandment of love of God and neighbor, and identified yourself in a special way with the most needy of your people, hear our prayer. Faithful to your teaching, St. Marianne Cope loved and served her neighbor, especially the most desolate outcast, giving herself generously and heroically for those afflicted by leprosy. She alleviated their physical and spiritual sufferings, thus helping them to accept their afflictions with patience.

Her care and concern for others manifested the great love you have for us. Through her merits and intercession, grant us the favor which we confidently ask of you so that the people of God, following the inspiration of her life and apostolate, may practice charity towards all according to your word and example.

Amen.

Hay un paso muy importante para obtener la paz y es la actitud de conversión de la persona en su totalidad. Desde el fondo del corazón, girar el pensamiento hacia lo positivo y caminar a la conquista del reino de los cielos. La invitación es lanzada por el mismo Jesús. ¿Quién desea responder a su llamado? En su tiempo respondieron unos hombres sencillos y humildes que, dejando sus redes de inmediato, lo siguieron y deciden caminar con Jesús. Ellos son los primeros modelos a seguir y enseñan lo que significa convertirse. Ahora, la conversión debe llevar a ver dónde se está y hacia donde se quiere llegar. Existen riesgos y se deben asumir con la seguridad de que Dios camina a nuestro paso en el proceso.

El centro del mensaje del Evangelio de hoy es no cerrar el corazón al llamado de Dios. Nunca es tarde para revisar y reorientar la vida hacia el Señor. ¿Cómo me llama Jesús hoy? ¿Qué desea que haga? ¿Quizá me llama al sacerdocio, o vida religiosa? ¿Tal vez a formar una familia? Cualquiera que sea, debo estar atento para responder con firmeza. El salmo de hoy nos anima a dar esta respuesta: "El Señor es mi luz, mi salvación, ¿de quién tendré miedo? El Señor es mi refugio, ¿a quién temeré? (Salmo 26). Señor, se mi baluarte para mi conversión, que sea responsable de las tareas encomendadas en la vida cotidiana para, así, responder a tu llamado diariamente y seguirte, cumpliendo mi deber como padre/madre de familia, como estudiante y trabajador. ¡Que así sea!

Drop Your Nets and Be Free

There are times I wish I had no obligations. It would be great to take my wife's hand, hop in the car, and drive into the sunset. Where we were going would not matter as much as the fact that we would have nowhere we had to be. There would be nothing we had to do. No bills. No commitments. No problems. Freedom!

Life doesn't work like that, however. When Jesus came along and asked some fishermen to drop their nets and follow him, they did just that. Wow! In some ways, they experienced true freedom. That is what Jesus offers all of us. Yet, true freedom looks quite different than my dream scenario.

In living in the true freedom that Jesus offers, there are things we must do and places we must go. That is because freedom only exists in following God's will, not our own. We are called to be and called to give ourselves completely to God without reservations. We always have the free will to not respond to His call, but we will find that a negative answer may complicate our lives even further. God's path for us calls on us to give freely of what we have been given. Saying no to that call means we carry the weight of those gifts. We were never meant to keep them. The path of God's will may seem long and winding, but it is the one that leads us into that sunset. It is the way to true freedom.
