From the Pastor's Desk...

Jesus is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia! This is what we proclaim on Easter Sunday and on every Sunday when we celebrate Mass. As we do this, it is important for us to reflect on just exactly what we are doing and saying when we make this proclamation.

This Easter Sunday is not simply an anniversary of that first Easter morning. Nor, is this Easter simply a memorial of that first Easter Sunday morning. Today is Easter. Today is the day the Lord has made. Today, He is Risen. It is important to note the present tense of the words TODAY IS EASTER! THIS IS THE DAY! We need to hear and celebrate the present tense of these words.

We are not simply recalling what happened to Jesus a little over 2,000 years ago, on that first Easter morning. We are not simply spectators noticing the reactions of the three disciples that were present that morning – Mary Magdalene, Peter and John. Rather, this Easter Sunday is our sharing in the triumph and victory of God. Everything that Jesus did was to fulfill the will of His Father, and ultimately it was all for our benefit. So, this victory is one that we are all called to share in. That is a reason for us to be a people of JOY, regardless of whatever circumstances we may currently be facing in our lives.

In reference to Easter, Jesuit poet Gerard Manley Hopkins once wrote, “Let Him Easter in us.” Today let us allow that victory and triumph to touch our lives. Today let that victory refresh and renew us with the Joy that emanates from Christ whom no tomb could hold in death. Today may we embrace anew our Baptismal commitment and arise with Him from the Baptismal waters emboldened and strengthened by our Catholic faith. Today let us allow the Light of Christ to shine in and through us to remind the darkness of this world that in the end it can never win out.

An ancient Christian symbol for Christ is the anchor. You can see this symbol on the bottom of the big stained glass window by our Baptismal Font. The anchor steadies the vessel. The anchor safely holds the vessel in the boat. We are the vessels that Christ longs to comfort and steady when life gets rough. Christ holds us connected to God when the waves of life come crashing over us. Jesus Christ is our hope and joy for He is Risen. He is Risen Today! Let Him Easter in us!

Please know of my daily prayers for the people of St. Thomas the Apostle Parish, here in Crystal Lake. May your Easter faith guide and sustain you throughout the year. I would also like to extend a sincere welcome to all who are visiting us this weekend from other parishes or parts of the country. “This is the day that the Lord has made, Let us rejoice and be glad in it!”

Peace, love and joy,

Fr. Bob Jones

Saint Thomas the Apostle Parish Presents

The Broken Mary Project

Tuesday, April 25

7:00 PM

451 W. Terra Cotta Ave, Crystal Lake

Questions: phaviland@stthomascl.church

Kevin Matthews shares his story of brokenness and healing

Broken Mary is Matthews' story of his early years in radio, stand-up comedy, his successful career, his struggle with MS, and, importantly, his chance encounter with a broken statue of Mary left next to a dumpster and all that happened as a result. Told with Matthews' signature good humor, this confession of the brokenness of mankind is touchingly honest, personally inspiring, and full of hope.

Easter Prayer of Thanksgiving

Good and gracious heavenly Father, we come before you on this Easter Sunday with full and grateful hearts for the gift of the Paschal Mystery that you showed us in the life, death, and resurrection of your Son, our brother by adoption, Jesus Christ.

Bless us and all those who profess belief in your saving love.

Bless also those who have yet to profess belief in you.

You are God for all.

We ask all this in Christ's name.

Amen.

Why is the Easter season so long? And should we be doing something special for it?

You've probably noticed the priest continuing to wear white vestments at the Sunday liturgy. While we celebrated Christ's resurrection several weeks ago, the Easter season extends fifty days — just over seven weeks — from Easter Sunday to Pentecost. For most of that time — about six weeks — Jesus is still with the disciples, teaching and encouraging them. The Easter season isn't just a celebration of when Jesus is with us. At the Last Supper, Jesus promised to send an "advocate" or "counselor" when he left. At the Ascension, he directs the disciples to await "power from on high" — the coming of the Holy Spirit. The Ascension completes the Paschal Mystery, beginning with Jesus' suffering and death and continuing in the resurrection. But the Holy Spirit ushers in a new era for the Church.

After spending weeks in prayer, fasting, and service during Lent, it may seem odd that we don't widely have similar practices for Easter. That doesn't mean you can't embrace the season! Commit to taking moments of little joy throughout the weeks, like random acts of kindness towards others. Consider reading the Acts of the Apostles to learn more about the early Church or picking up an Easter devotional to pray with. He is still risen indeed!

St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church

It is always worthwhile.

A Recollection is a time set aside specifically for a Christian to seriously go deeper into his or her relationship with God. It is an opportunity to spend a couple of hours in prayer and conversation with God guided by meditations of a priest of Opus Dei, and an examination of conscience before the Blessed Sacrament. It also offers a short and practical talk on topics about family life, professional work, social activities, and virtues.

El mensaje de Pascua: ¡Cristo ha Resucitado! se repite en cada una de las lecturas de la Eucaristía. Señor, gracias por abrirnos las puertas del cielo. No te quedaste en la tumba, saliste victorioso de ella para nuestra salvación. “¿Qué has visto de camino, María, en la mañana? A mi Señor glorioso, la tumba abandonada, los ángeles testigos, sudarios y mortaja. ¡Resucitó de veras mi amor y mi esperanza!” (Secuencia de la mañana de resurrección). Por consecuencia debemos ir perdiendo el miedo a la muerte. Las tumbas son lugares de reposo y son provisionales. La muerte ha sido vencida.

¿Crees esto? ¿Cuál es tu esperanza en esta Pascua del 2023? Creer en la resurrección, no es solo reflexionar en lo que pasó en aquel momento lejano, sino estar seguros que en cada momento difícil de nuestra vida presentimos y descubrimos la resurrección. El mensaje de Pascua para todos los que sufren es el siguiente: estén seguros de que Dios no abandona a sus hijos e hijas y que saldrán vencedores como su Hijo. Alegrémonos y no tengamos miedo, busquemos siempre la presencia de Jesús en las tribulaciones y estemos seguros que su presencia real resucitada está presente en la Eucaristía. La Pascua de Jesús, se hace presente entre nosotros en cada persona que hace labores de amor y de justicia en la familia, la comunidad y en la sociedad. Cristo resucitado, que tu Espíritu nos anime y sostenga para vivir como verdaderos bautizados.
