From the Pastor's Desk...

"The cross is not the suffering tied to natural existence, but the suffering tied to being Christians," wrote Dietrich Bonhoeffer, a German theologian who was martyred under Hitler. Jeremiah, St. Paul, and Jesus likewise emphasize in today's readings that authentic fidelity to one's call from God will inevitably entail struggle and sacrifice. True discipleship, while offering peace of soul and occasional consolation, may also mean facing opposition, rejection, persecution, betrayal, ridicule, humiliation, and in some cases, even death.

Why? God's ways are often in direct opposition to the world's ways of thinking and acting. Despite the prevalence of today's "prosperity Gospel," Christian life does not mean a comfortable, secure existence marked by health, honor, and material abundance. Those things may be present at times and good in themselves, but they are not a measure of one's faith.

Rather, the Christian disciple imitates and follows Jesus regardless of circumstances and does not deviate when the inevitable cross appears.

This may seem grim at first glance, but God is good and wishes to give us only what is best for us. Struggle and sacrifice in this life, when united with Christ, carry eternal rewards. Out of love, dedicated parents will do without to provide for their children. Activists struggle peacefully for causes they see greater than their individual well-being. Christian discipleship is similar, but with infinitely higher stakes. Through grace, won by Christ's own suffering and death, the cross offers divine transformation by means of his Resurrection.

Following Christ may not require as dramatic a sacrifice as that made by many prophets, apostles, and saints (though it may!), but the "little daily deaths" can still be challenging. These may entail sacrificing one's ego by forgiving someone, relinquishing one's plans or perceptions, or doing what one knows is right and just, regardless of others' opinions.

We all have our individual and collective crosses to carry. That said, I hope and pray that this Labor Day Weekend we will all be able to make some time for a little break from our daily labors. I trust and pray that we will be able to carve out some time to spend with family and friends. We all need these times, which are good for our body, mind and soul.

Please mark your calendars for some fine community gatherings that are coming this month of September. Next Saturday, September 9, we will have our PARISH PICNIC, out by the corner of the Oak Street parking lot where the Gazebo sits. The Picnic will begin immediately after the 4:30 pm Mass. Our Knights will be providing the food, and our Way Band will be providing the music. There will also be games and fun for the children. On Saturday evening, September 23, our St. Thomas School Alumni are hosting an OCTOBERFEST Celebration in the School Courtyard. All the proceeds will go toward school families who need some extra assistance with tuition and school fees. This was a tremendous help to many families last year. It was also a very enjoyable evening for all who were in attendance.

A final note of gratitude to our Hispanic brothers and sisters. The Gran Kermas that was celebrated on July 30th, netted over $50,000! All that money is going toward the facelift that the Pierson Street Church is currently experiencing. Any extra contributions you can put in your monthly Building Repair envelopes will also help us in this regard.

Peace be with you,      Fr. Bob Jones

La Liturgia de hoy muestra cómo el maligno había entrado en el corazón de Pedro, y cómo fue reprendido por Jesús, por estar fuera de la voluntad del Padre. Así es nuestra vida, no podemos descuidar la voluntad de Dios, porque inmediatamente estaremos cambiando de pensamiento y obra. Para estar del lado de Dios, hace falta una profunda conversión personal y comunitaria. Apartados de su amor, es imposible ser justos y mucho menos ser testigos de su Palabra y dar testimonio de su amor. Hoy, se nos presenta el reto de conocer a profundidad la misión de Jesús y la de sus seguidores.

Ser cristiano comprometido tiene su condición y su consecuencia: “El compromiso de tomar la cruz se convierte en participación con Cristo en la salvación del mundo. Pensando en esto, hagamos que la cruz colgada en la pared de la casa, o esa pequeña que llevamos al cuello, sea signo de nuestro deseo de unirnos a Cristo en el servir con amor a los hermanos, especialmente a los más pequeños y frágiles. La cruz es signo santo del Amor de Dios, es signo del Sacrificio de Jesús, y no debe ser reducida a objeto supersticioso o joya ornamental” (Papa Francisco 08/30/2020). ¿Qué piensas de este mensaje que dice el Papa Francisco? Crees que vale la pena perder la vida por Jesús y su misión de propagar su Reino a pesar de las circunstancias. Vivir de manera decidida por el Evangelio causa lo que el Señor dijo en su Bienaventuranza: “Felices ustedes, cuando por causa mía los insulten, los persigan y les levanten toda clase de calumnias...” (Mateo 5:11).

What Are You Looking For?

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It has been so great settling in and meeting so many of you the past couple months; thank you so much, sincerely, for welcoming me into the parish as readily as you have. As has been announced at Mass, I wish to invite each of you to the opening event of our parish's year-long Eucharistic Revival. I will be giving a talk at the Oak St. church on Tuesday, September 26, starting at 7:00 PM. Here's a little something about the event and what to expect for WHEN you come!

Primarily, this is a kick-off event. We have a lot of amazing opportunities planned for the year that will be offered monthly to revive our parish community by re-centering us on the Presence of Christ-among-us in the Holy Eucharist. This event is an introduction to a year-long journey of faith we think the Lord is calling all of us to make and that we hope to make with all of you.

At 7:00 PM, I will be giving a 30-40 minute talk in the church about the Eucharistic Revival, titled "What are you looking for?", preparing us for this journey the Lord is calling our parish to make together this year. After that, all are invited to the Community Room for fellowship and an opportunity for further table discussion (with some prompting questions, if the table needs it). Around 8:00 PM, I will be available for some Q&A time, to answer any questions that come up throughout the evening from the talk or table discussion. We'll close the night with a prayer and blessing.

I understand it is a "school night" but I want to encourage and invite families to come, because the Lord desires to renew, reach, and give life to our whole parish community, not just the adults. On that note, I also encourage each of you to be a missionary and invite someone who hasn't been to Mass in a while, or might be a little out-of-practice in how they live the faith, to come to this event; the Lord isn't done with any of us yet.

I truly believe that the events planned monthly for this year, beginning with this talk and fellowship-discussion, can be opportunities for Jesus to enter into our lives in a new and powerful way. "The Lord delights in His people" (Ps 149:4), in you and me, and desires us to live full lives, to have a lived experience abundant with meaning. It's possible for us by living a dialogue with Him, the Answer to our hearts, tangibly present among us in the Eucharist; that dialogue is what He is re-proposing to us and inviting us back into this year, starting the evening of Tuesday, September 26. I hope to see you there!

Know of my daily prayers for you; please pray for me.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. James Linkenheld
