From the Pastor's Desk...

The aggressive prosecuting attorney in a homicide case was grilling the defendant mercilessly. Suddenly deviating from his line of questioning, he turned toward the witness and snapped, "Do you remember where you hid the murder weapon?" The hapless defendant blurted out, "No." He then stammered, "I mean, I didn't even hide the murder weapon," and finally found the wherewithal to say, "I mean, I never had the murder weapon." The prosecutor knew by the jurors' glances at each other that he had sown doubts in their minds about the defendant's innocence. His question had thoroughly discredited the poor fellow on the witness stand.

The lawyer's tactic is a perfect example of what we call a "loaded question" or "begging the question," asking something that contains a false assumption or subtly imputes guilt; its sole purpose is to trap the person who is being interrogated. For example, if someone asks, "Have you finally stopped cheating on your taxes?", you would be in trouble whether you answered "yes" or "no".

In today's Gospel, Jesus is hit with a loaded question designed to trap him. There appears, at least initially, to be no good answer. Jesus avoids the trap by posing questions of his own that turn the tables on his hostile interrogators. They are silenced by the subtle, devastating theological challenge in Jesus' response.

Jesus does not directly engage the political question about refusing to pay the tax as a way of protesting Roman occupation. Jesus recognizes that falling into this trap could lead to his arrest on charges of insurrection or sedition. By allowing Caesar "his due", Jesus opposes both Zealots and Pharisees by acknowledging – even accepting – the practical reality of the Roman tax.

Jesus does not, however, wholeheartedly endorse the position held by the Herodians who question him. The dynasty of the Herods (there were three first-century rulers by that name) survived, even flourished, by appeasing and currying favor with Rome. The Herodians acceptance of the coins with Caesar's image rankled the Zealots and the Pharisees. When Jesus recognizes that the Herodians are "trying to have it both ways," he exposes their hypocrisy. Jesus is not offering, in his reference to the two "renderings", a kind of 50/50 proposition between God and Caesar. Jesus doesn't specify exactly "what belongs to Caesar". He will let others figure that out. Civil society, with its political machinery, may make legitimate demands on us and provide necessary services made possible by our tax dollars. As for the question of what belongs to God (from whom, we believe, every good gift flows), one suspects that Jesus' answer would be simple and unequivocal: everything. Shouldn't that determine what we render back?

In our weekly celebration of the Eucharist, we are meant to offer our great prayer of thanksgiving. All that we have and all that we offer are to be gratefully rendered back to God, who is our source and our sustenance. We thank and praise God to whom we owe everything.

St. Thomas Mental Health Ministry

Thank you to all who attended Mary Fuller's presentation on "The Art of Accompaniment" on October 10 regarding mental health challenges. We would like to continue the conversation and how we at St. Thomas the Apostle Parish are called to respond to this ministry.

We invite you to attend our next meeting to be held this Tuesday, October 24, at 7:00 pm, in the lower level of the Oak St. Church. Please bring your ideas and fellow parishioners to this open meeting. We hope to have as many people attend as possible as we begin planning and forming this critically important ministry at St. Thomas the Apostle Parish.

¿Cómo le pagaremos al Señor todo lo que ha hecho por nosotros? Trabajo, hogar, comida, familia, educación, salud y muchas cosas más, que si las nombráramos no terminaríamos. Cada uno debe agradecer a Dios las maravillas de su amor, y de su cuidado especial. En la Liturgia de hoy, ante la trampa que le ponen a Jesús en este Evangelio, nos da una gran lección. El impuesto debido al César:

“Devuelvan, pues, al César las cosas del César, y a Dios lo que corresponde a Dios” (Mateo 22,21).

Darle lugar a cada quien sin engañarnos con imágenes falsas. Por lo tanto, si Dios nos ha dado todo, lo menos que podemos ser es ser agradecidos.

“Y con esta respuesta, Jesús se sitúa por encima de la polémica. Jesús siempre más allá. Por una parte, reconoce que se debe pagar el tributo al César --- también nosotros: hay que pagar los impuestos---, porque la imagen sobre la moneda es la suya; pero, sobre todo, recuerda que cada persona lleva en sí otra imagen --- la llevamos en el corazón, en el alma ---, la de Dios, y por tanto es a Él, y solo a Él, a quien cada uno debe la propia existencia, la propia vida” (Papa Francisco 10/18/2020). Ante este mensaje, solo queda pedirle a Jesús, que nos ilumine con su verdad para distinguir lo que es civil y lo que es religioso, a no mezclar los campos, a no caer en trampas que nos alejen de la verdad que libera y hace justicia.

Thank you to all committee members and their families, our Sponsors and the Knights of Columbus for all of their work on a successful Oktoberfest. The funds from the event will be used for tuition assistance at our wonderful school. Thank you also to alumni, former parents, current parents, teachers, parish staff and parishioners for your support! Our winner of the raffle generously donated the entire $5000 back to the school and the 2nd place winner donated 50% back. We are truly blessed to have such a wonderful community supporting us.

Have you thought of joining the choir, but can't commit to weekly rehearsals? Give us a try with our very first CHRISTMAS CHOIR! This is a wonderful time for those who cannot commit to weekly rehearsals, to sing with the 9am choir on a temporary basis. We will begin rehearsing Christmas Music on 11/9 – however, you only need to commit to coming to a minimum of 3 rehearsals from then until Christmas! Any adult or High School Student is welcome to join us. We will be singing at Midnight Mass & at the 9am Mass on Christmas Day (you are not required to sing at both). You will also have the option of singing Sundays with us and/or joining us as we Christmas Carol in the community.

We rehearse Thursday evenings from 6:45 to 8:00 in the Church. If you are interested in joining or have questions, please contact our Music Director, Julie Hermann at hermannjulieann@gmail.com or 815-690-9096. We will want to have a folder prepared for you.
