From the Pastor's Desk...

"I urgently appeal, then, for a new dialogue about how we are shaping the future of our planet. We need a conversation which includes everyone, since the environmental challenge we are undergoing, and its human roots, concern and affect us all" (Laudato Si', No. 14).

These were the words of Pope Francis ten years ago, when Laudato Si' was promulgated. By the time this column is viewed I am quite aware that we may very well have a newly elected pontiff in place. It is my sincere hope that the new pontiff will build upon this urgent appeal. Pope Francis was not the first pontiff to comment on the importance of the environment. However, recognizing the humanitarian and natural disasters that have been occurring with increasing regularity and severity, Pope Francis spoke up more boldly and consistently on the topic.

Pope Francis repeated his message in the 2023 apostolic exhortation Laudate Deum, in which he reflects on what has happened since he first promulgated Laudato Si'. This was written because the call to action in Laudato Si' needed reinforcement for several reasons. The most important of these reasons was the failure of nations, international bodies and corporations to make meaningful changes in the years between the two documents.

Exploitative economic systems and market trends did not appear overnight, and they will not disappear in a decade. However, as Pope Francis informs us, "there are no cultural changes without personal changes" (Laudate Deum, No. 70). We cannot underestimate the power of one crying out in the wilderness (Is 40:3) proclaiming the will of God. Each of us must take personally the responsibility for the care of his creation, as it has been entrusted to us since the first man and women stood upon it (Gn 2:15).

Are there any easy answers. No! Yet, for as complex and as confusing as the world may be, the answer that comes out of Laudato Si' is clear and simple: "We must regain the conviction that we need one another, that we have a shared responsibility for others and the world, and that being good and decent are worth it" (No. 229). We need to remember what it means to be in communion with one another. In our own lives, in the lives of our friends, family, parish and diocese, we cannot lose sight of the Gospel. The urgency of Pope Francis' appeal for a "new dialogue about how we are shaping the future of our planet" remains with us today and always, for it is the urgency with which we are called to spread the Gospel.

Peace, love, and joy,

Fr. Bob Jones

The Tradition of Genuflection

Why do Catholics genuflect?

Genuflection is an act of devotion that literally means “to bend the knee.” For many Catholics, it’s an almost automatic gesture that we perform before entering our pew or row of seats at Mass. But, like many of the symbols and gestures of our faith tradition, genuflecting can also be an invitation for deeper reflection.

The practice of “bending the knee” is an ancient way of recognizing the presence of someone greater than we are. It has been said that the practice dates back to the time of Alexander the Great, but it became a common part of etiquette in the royal courts of the Middle Ages. From throne rooms and palaces, it was a small step to genuflecting becoming part of the devotional lives of Christians, who used this secular gesture as a way of recognizing the presence of the One who is King of Kings, especially in the Eucharist.

Today, Catholics are asked to genuflect in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament (whether in the tabernacle or exposed on the altar during eucharistic adoration). So, while it has become second nature to genuflect before entering your seat in church, we should pay attention to where the Blessed Sacrament is kept in each church or chapel that we visit, and genuflect in the direction of the tabernacle where the Blessed Sacrament is kept. In churches or chapels in which the tabernacle is in a separate space, we are invited to simply bow toward the altar.

In addition to genuflecting before the Blessed Sacrament, we are also instructed to genuflect before the cross used for veneration on Good Friday (during the solemn celebrations of the Lord’s Passion) and any time a relic of the True Cross is displayed for veneration. This long-standing tradition is a way of honoring the cross as the great sign of our salvation and of showing devotion to the passion of Jesus.

"Ven y Adora, Él espera por ti"

Hoy Jesús nos revela que formamos parte de su rebaño. Son muchas ovejas, pero el Pastor trata con especial cariño a cada una de ellas, las conoce, cuida y protege del enemigo. Nunca olvida a ninguna de ellas, las ama y trasmite su amor. "Nuestra vida está totalmente segura en las manos de Jesús y del Padre, que son una sola cosa: un único amor, una única misericordia, reveladas de una vez y para siempre en el sacrificio de la cruz. Él es nuestro guía, nuestro maestro, nuestro amigo, nuestro modelo, pero sobre todo nuestro salvador. A veces Jesús nos llama, nos invita a seguirle, pero tal vez sucede que no nos damos cuenta de que es Él" (Papa Francisco).

¿Te das cuenta de cuándo Jesús te ha llamado? ¿Escuchas su voz o te haces el sordo? En la sociedad actual, vale la pena reflexionar sobre lo siguiente: ¿Qué voces nos dan confianza? ¿Cuáles nos hacen sentir seguros? Sobre todo, los niños y los jóvenes están muchas veces tan confundidos al escuchar voces que los llaman solo para perderlos, atacándolos con falsas promesas. Sin embargo, hay voces buenas que llaman a la unidad y a la paz, co-

Diocesan Annual Appeal
"That All May Be One"

The theme for this year's Appeal is "That All May Be One." Bishop Arthur O'Neill began the Diocesan Appeal in 1975. Bishop O'Neill's intent was for us to understand and recognize more deeply the importance of what it means to be a Diocesan Church, and for all of us to be more connected to its life and mission.

Pledge envelopes are available in the Narthex. Completed pledge envelopes can be dropped in the Tithe box in Narthex. You can also donate online. Our Parish Target Goal Amount is $207,957.00 (this is a decrease from our 2024 target amount of $222,140.00). Through your generosity and prayers, we have continually made our target goal amounts. Once our target amount has been reached, our parish will receive the overpayment amount. Thank you for your support and prayers so "that all may be one."
