From the Pastor's Desk...

Our Memorial Day was originally known as “Decoration Day,” an opportunity to decorate many graves of the over 600,000 men who died in the Civil War. It was, by far, our nation’s costliest war in terms of human life, about 2 percent of the entire population. Today, that would translate into 6.5 million people. Memorial Day honors all who have died in military service to our country since its inception. But why should we, as a nation and as Catholics, remember something so grim?

It was September 2006. The rooftop was sweltering. Three U.S. Navy SEALs were in an “overwatch” position on a Ramadi home with two Iraqi soldiers. It had been an eventful morning, but it was quiet at the moment. From below, without warning, someone lobbed a grenade. It bounced off Petty Officer 2nd Class Michael A. Monsoor’s chest, then clattered on the deck. Penned together, all five were easy prey for the grenade’s deadly spray of shrapnel. At point-blank range, it couldn’t miss. Monsoor yelled, “Grenade!” and made a snap decision that would mark him for all time. He flung himself onto the device, smothering it with his torso, just in time to absorb the blast. The result was predictable; he lived only 25 minutes before dying of his injuries. His companions escaped with only scratches and minor wounds.

Because of the configuration of the rooftop, only one of the five men had a pathway of escape, had he chosen to use it. Yes, that man was Michael Monsoor. For his stunningly self-sacrificial action, he received the Medal of Honor, our nation’s highest military honor, posthumously. As is written in his official Navy Summary of Action, “Monsoor’s actions that day could not have been more selfless or clearly intentional.”

This story of great heroism has been shared with recently commissioned Catholic Marine officers. They have been challenged to recall who, further back in history, perfectly embodied a sacrifice that “could not have been more selfless or clearly intentional.” The answer of course: Jesus Christ. What our Lord did to save us could not have been more selfless or clearly intentional. “Do this in memory of me” (1 Cor 11:24).

We know from his official biography that Michael Monsoor “devotionally” attended Catholic Mass prior to his missions. Apparently, he was a man who intentionally sought to integrate his faith with his daily life of military service. How many times did he hear the words following the consecration, “Do this in memory of me”? Please take some time this weekend to remember the brave sacrifices of those who have paid the ultimate price for the freedom we enjoy.

Peace, be with you,
Fr. Bob Jones

Altar Flower Donations

Please help us keep our altar beautiful throughout the Easter season! If you would like to donate a blooming/flowering, colorful plant to help decorate our altar, please put it by the St. Thomas statue in the Narthex. Thank you for your generosity and help!

Youth Ministry Envelope Fundraiser

Our young people have many options, opportunities, and stresses today. At St. Thomas, we strive to offer a wide range of ministry events to give our teens an opportunity to feel welcomed, grow in their faith, meet new friends, have a safe place to gather, pray, have lots of fun and of course snacks.

We offer weekly youth ministry for both our High School and Jr. High Students with social events, retreats, peer ministry team, service, confirmation, summer camp and conferences.

We are asking for your help to continue offering these opportunities and allowing more of our young people to attend.

In the Narthex, we have a board of brightly colored envelopes with dollar amounts from $1 to $100. Take an envelope with the amount on it you would like to give. Place the filled envelope in the Tithe Box, the collection basket or return it to the church office by June 8th. There is also a prayer intention box for us to bring your prayers with us and offer them up as we encounter and learn more about Jesus.

THANK YOU for your Support!!!

What a wonderful night full of beautiful traditions! It is so important to celebrate this milestone together as a class that has experienced so much together! Many of these students have been together since they were in preschool! We pray their connection continues to grow as they move into high school. We also love that our 7th graders were there to serve this dinner, a beautiful tradition and symbolism of the leadership they will soon take on.

Our Lady of Perpetual Help

Our Lady of Perpetual Help refers both to a title conferred upon the Blessed Mother as well as to a corresponding icon that dates to the late Middle Ages.

Painted on wood, the original icon has a Byzantine style and depicts the Blessed Mother holding the Christ Child. She is flanked by St. Michael and St. Gabriel, who hold the instruments of Christ's passion, including a spear, nails and the Crown of Thorns. In the image, Christ seemingly leans into his mother's embrace for comfort and strength as he contemplates these objects.

The icon is thought to have originated in Crete, but for 300 years was venerated in the Church of San Matteo in Merulana in Rome. Blessed Pope Pius IX entrusted the image to the Order of Redemptorists, who moved it to the Church of St. Alphonsus. He later established the Feast of Our Lady of Perpetual Help on June 27.
