From the Pastor's Desk...

A couple of challenging questions arise from the Easter-time Scripture readings. Each question deals with the subject of “where” being asked by a close follower of Jesus. “Where have they put him?” and “Where are you going?”

In Scripture, a question is often answered with another question. In both these instances, the where-questions are responded to with why-questions.

The first reframed, where-question in Luke’s Gospel is on Easter: to Mary of Magdala and the other women to their question of “where have they put him?” Why do you look for the living among the dead? Jesus is not a body to be anointed with spices.

Jesus is very alive and quite well.

The second re-framed question, “Where are you going” (from Peter in John’s Gospel) is answered in today’s Gospel with another why-question: Why do you stand here looking up to heaven? You are looking in the wrong place. Jesus is Emmanuel, meaning “God with us”.

The question, “Why do you look for the living among the dead?” is an important one for us in our day. We are called to believe that Jesus is alive. This is the message of Easter. Our challenge is to be spiritual people. Our challenge is to listen to spiritual people and be inspired by the Holy Spirit. Jesus has not left us orphaned. We must not seek the living among the dead. This is also evident in the gift of the Eucharist, our central Sacrament. Jesus feeds us with the very gift of Himself so that He can more fully reside within us.

There is a separate challenge to the second question, the one we heard in our Gospel, “Why do you stand here looking up to heaven.” To intentionally mix our metaphor, we are not to stand here sitting on our thumbs. We are called to do something, to be alive as a follower of Jesus, to become the person we called to become.

There was not distance but closeness to Jesus after the Ascension. The gift of presence is part of the blessing that Jesus gave to his disciples and to us as he left. He fulfills his blessing to be here in Eucharist, in our community, among friends and families.

This weekend, we are blessed to welcome two new priests into our diocese and three new transitional deacons. Please offer your prayers and thanks for Fr. Ryan Noorae and Fr. Ian Ordonez, and our new deacons, Patrick Glanville, Bailey Peterson, and Mike Wojnarowski. We also congratulate Bill Kearly from St. Mary in Woodstock who is being ordained for the neighboring diocese of Madison, Wisconsin.

Peace, be with you, Fr. Bob Jones

Congratulations!

We are pleased to announce on Saturday, June 7, 2025, at the Cathedral of St. Peter in Rockford, Illinois:

Deacon Ryan Nooraee and Deacon Ian Ordonez will be ordained priests for the Diocese of Rockford, and Bailey Peterson, Patrick Glanville and Michael Wojnarowski will be ordained transitional deacons.

On Sunday, June 8, 2025, at St. Thomas the Apostle Oak Street Church, at the 10:30 am Mass, Ryan Nooraee will celebrate his first Mass as a priest. A reception will follow in the Community Room after the 10:30 am Mass. Ryan lived in Crystal Lake as a youth and where he first heard Christ's call to the priesthood. Ryan entered the seminary right after he graduated from Crystal Lake South High School in 2017.

We congratulate these men, who have all been a part of St. Thomas the Apostle Parish. Godspeed.

Prayer After Meals

Just as praying before a meal, praying after a meal is meant to inspire in Christians an attitude of thanksgiving and an acknowledgment of our dependence on God.

Though it is a less common practice in the modern world, early Church fathers like Tertullian and St. Jerome extolled the importance of praying after a meal, and the Christian poet Prudentius composed hymns for before and after meals ("ante cibum" and "post cibum").

There are no "official" prayers for after a meal, but the most common one said by Catholics is this: "We give thee thanks, almighty God, for all your benefits, who lives and reigns forever and ever. And may the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God rest in peace." It is a benediction which recalls our perpetual fellowship with the entire Body of Christ, including those who have passed from this life.

The St. Thomas the Apostle conference of St. Vincent de Paul would like to thank you for your constant support for our friends in need within our parish boundaries. Since the beginning of 2025, with your donations we have helped 231 people with $31,395.09 in assistance. Assistance can be in many forms, most is rental assistance, some is utilities, and still other forms include medical and transportation. We assist with what people need. Over 100 home or telephone visits have taken place this year alone. This assistance has been done by members of our SVdP conference. People you see in church every week. If you would like to help volunteer please contact Ralph LaBrack 630-294-3319. If you need help, call 779-800-6742. If you would like to donate, use the faith direct online parish payment portal, <https://membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/IL1116/50319> or drop your donation in the "poor box" located in the church narthex. Again, thanks for all you have done and will do for our friends in need within our St. Thomas parish boundaries.

Community

We were created for community. Human beings are not meant to be alone. As each of us grows in our relationship with Jesus, we find ourselves drawn further into community. Our stewardship never reflects just on us, but on the Body of Christ to which we belong.

When speaking to his Father, Jesus always spoke about all of us as a whole. Jesus has a unique relationship with each and every one of us, but he also sees us collectively as one. When the Holy Spirit was sent to assist us until the Second Coming, she ascended upon a multitude, not just one person at a time.

We are called to live a fruitful stewardship way of life. It is by that fruit that we can tell if we are really giving of ourselves in a generous manner. However, the fruits that result from my stewardship and your stewardship will never amount to more than what we can produce together.

As you try ever harder to cultivate what God has given you and offer it back to Him with an increase, what does your relationship with your parish community look like? How has your stewardship helped enable your community to become a clearer reflection of God? It is important to reflect on these things because we can sometimes find ourselves drifting away from community if we are not careful. We are always stronger together. We never want to wake up one day and find ourselves alone.

LPI -Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

That the World May Believe

I love today's Gospel because, in it, Jesus prays for me.

And you.

And the guy sitting next to you at Mass. And the priest, and the altar server, and all the people in all the churches in all the towns in all the world who woke up this morning and headed to Mass because, while it's true that God is everywhere, the Body and Blood of Jesus is only found in one place.

And he prays for the barista who will sell you your coffee later today and see your crucifix and hear you say, "God bless," and think, "That's a weird necklace, and I don't believe in God," but who will one day, at her lowest point, wonder if anyone ever truly loved her, and remember the sight of that broken and bloodied Corpus.

Today, Jesus prays for the person you passed on the way into the parking lot this morning, the one who doesn't go to Mass anymore but who always walks his dog on this street, on this morning, for reasons he can't explain.

He prays for your great-great grandparents and your great-great grandchildren.

"Those who will believe in me through their word." That's me. That's you. That's us. We're the ones who believe through the word of the Apostles, who bore witness to the life and death and Resurrection of the God-Man, Jesus Christ, and whose testimony to that life is an eternal flame illuminating the understanding of every human being who will ever say, "I believe."

But if we listen to what Jesus says today, we must understand: it's not just the Apostles' job, and it's not done. It's not a book that is closed. It's a mission that is alive and ongoing, and it's as much ours as it was theirs: that the world may believe that you sent me.

Youth Ministry Envelope Fundraiser

Our young people have many options, opportunities, and stresses today. At St. Thomas, we strive to offer a wide range of ministry events to give our teens an opportunity to feel welcomed, grow in their faith, meet new friends, have a safe place to gather, pray, have lots of fun and of course snacks.

We offer weekly youth ministry for both our High School and Jr. High Students with social events, retreats, peer ministry team, service, confirmation, summer camp and conferences.

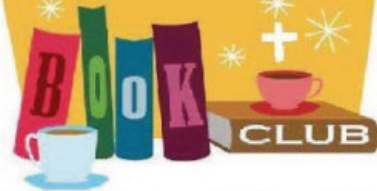

We are asking for your help to continue offering these opportunities and allowing more of our young people to attend.

In the Narthex, we have a board of brightly colored envelopes with dollar amounts from $1 to $100.

Take an envelope with the amount on it you would like to give. Place the filled envelope in the Tithe Box, the collection basket or return it to the church office by June 8th. There is also a prayer intention box for us to bring your prayers with us and offer them up as we encounter and learn more about Jesus.
