From the Pastor's Desk...

The Holy Spirit is the One who surrounds us while we are busy looking for God. The Holy Spirit comes, as the account of Pentecost tells us, like fire and wind.

Fire is a good symbol for the Holy Spirit. We understand warmth and light and energy. We know a well-kindled fire can spread. We have moments of “being on fire” with faith. The Holy Spirit’s spark has on occasion illumined our minds so that we recognized our common humanity and acted compassionately.

Wind is a good symbol for the action of the Holy Spirit. There is the uncontrollable nature of wind. Anyone who sails knows you have to master the art of working with the wind. What may seem to be pointless meandering is in fact the only way to reach your destination. The Holy Spirit, like the wind, may indeed take us off our previously planned course, but the journey is the important thing.

The problem of Pentecost is not that we don’t understand the gift of the Holy Spirit, which may be true. However, the bigger problem is often that we’re just not certain that we want the wind and fire in our lives. There is no doubting from the symbols used that this gift is not for our manipulation. The Holy Spirit is not something for us to possess. We must be open the Holy Spirit taking control of our lives. Fire and wind can be frightening, but our belief is that we are not at the mercy of some hapless elements, but being moved by a loving God. The trouble is, we’d often rather be drivers than riders. We hesitate to turn over the controls, even to God. What will happen if we do?

St. Paul tells us what will happen in the second reading: “To each person the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good.” If we accept the gift of the Spirit, we will serve others. The common good will take precedence over personal goals and glory. The Spirit’s vision of the common good will guide us so that our sometimes culturally-tainted earthly visions must yield to God’s vision of the Heavenly Kingdom.

This weekend, we celebrate the gift of five young men being ordained for our diocese! Two men will be ordained to the Priesthood; Fr. Ryan Nooraee and Fr. Ian Ordonez. Three men will be ordained to the Transitional Diaconate; Patrick Glanville, Bailey Peterson, and Mike Wojnarowski. I am convinced that it was the movement of the Holy Spirit that led them to this day. May we pray that they always remain open to this Spirit in their future ministry. And may we pray that we all remain open to this Spirit, as well!

Peace, be with you,

Fr. Bob Jones

Este día de Pentecostés tenemos la oportunidad de pedir al Espíritu Santo que abra las puertas de nuestro corazón, nos regale la paz, y que seamos portadores de ella a dondequiera que nos presentemos. Hoy en día, el mundo, más que nunca, necesita la paz. Hay guerra y destrucción en varios países, dando como resultado vivir deseando la paz. La gente sufre atrapada en la incertidumbre y el miedo. Ojalá que hoy escuchemos este mensaje y se hagan realidad para muchas personas estas palabras: “Jesús les volvió a decir: ¡La paz esté con ustedes!” (Juan 20:21). El Espíritu Santo se manifiesta para el bien común, es decir, no es para unos cuantos, es para todos.

En una de sus catequesis sobre el Espíritu Santo, San Cirilo de Alejandría explicaba lo siguiente: “De igual modo el Espíritu Santo, siendo uno solo y siempre el mismo e indivisible, distribuye a cada uno sus gracias según su beneplácito. Al igual que un árbol seco, al recibir agua germina, de una manera semejante el alma pecadora al recibir al Espíritu Santo, el don del arrepentimiento produce frutos de justicia. Siendo siempre igual y el mismo, produce diversos efectos según su beneplácito de Dios y en el nombre de Cristo. De hecho, se sirve de la lengua de alguno para comunicar sabiduría. A otro le ilumina la mente con el don de profecía. A otro le da el poder de arrojar demonios. A aquel le da el don de interpretar las Escrituras”. ¡Ven Espíritu Santo, y llena nuestros corazones de amor!

Congratulations to our Kindergarten and 8th Grade Graduates!

Kindness Challenge

During the months of April and May all STS students participated in the 'Kindness Challenge'. Students earned strips to build the chain for each kind act. The school accumulated a total of 1,713 kindness chains! That's nearly 1,800 charitable acts, what a beautiful gift to give back to each other! We hung them proudly in the cafeteria to celebrate this accomplishment!

Why do we use incense at Mass?

The use of incense in religious ceremonies and worship is a practice that predates Christianity, and which is also found in many other religious traditions today.

Incense, which is made from resin infused with aromatic spices and oils, is one of those fundamentally human symbols that incorporates more than one of our senses, helping us to reflect on realities that transcend the everyday details of our lives.

The use of incense in the Church's liturgy — in the Mass, as well as in devotions to the Eucharist and the Liturgy of the Hours — is inspired by the use of incense in the Jewish tradition. In the writings of the Old Testament, we hear about incense being used in the worship of the temple, and Psalm 141 asks, "Let my prayer be incense before you; my uplifted hands an evening offering" (vs. 2). The image here is that, as the incense gently rises to heaven, our prayers also rise to God as something sweet and pleasant.

Another ancient use of incense that has also become part of our Catholic tradition is the idea that when we incense something, it's because it is something special or sacred. This is why the Book of the Gospel is incensed during the Liturgy of the Word and the bread, wine, priest celebrant, and congregation are incensed at the presentation of the gifts. To this, we can also add the incensing of the Blessed Sacrament during eucharistic adoration and benediction, and the body of the deceased at the end of the Mass of the Resurrection (the Funeral Mass).
