A Note from Father Downing...

Next weekend, our St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church family will celebrate the Solemnity of Corpus Christi – the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ – with a procession on the church grounds.

Processions have long been a part of our rich Catholic tradition. Even in the Old Testament, we see pilgrimages being made to Jerusalem to observe holy days. These processions were an outward witness to their faithful devotion. Eucharistic processions become our own public witness to the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

While processions have, in recent years, declined in popularity, the Corpus Christi procession has mostly been retained. Steeped in tradition, this procession allows us to evangelize through this public witness of bringing Jesus to the world.

After the noon bilingual Mass next Sunday, Father Jones will place the Holy Eucharist in the monstrance ahead of our procession. This sacred vessel exposes Jesus to the faithful for Adoration, prayer, public devotion, Eucharistic Benediction, and public processions such as Corpus Christi.

As we process out of the church, we will stop at four altar stations where, along with continuous adoration, Gospels will be read, and prayers will be said. As we accompany Jesus, we will stand as witnesses to the real presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist.

The National Eucharistic Congress ignited a movement three years ago. Last year, four pilgrimage routes carried the Eucharist across the United States – along highways, over waterways, through the countryside, alongside busy streets, across school playgrounds, and inside churches – and millions of men and women experienced a personal encounter with Christ. This Eucharistic Revival reaffirmed the decree established by the Council of Trent in 1551 that the Most Blessed Sacrament be honored in extraordinary festivity and procession.

I encourage you and your families to join us as next weekend in our procession. Please let your children wear their First Holy Communion attire if they have received the Sacrament this year. As we celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi, may we seek the Bread of Life, be satisfied in the Eucharist, and recognize our Lord in the breaking of the bread.

From a theological standpoint, we are all pilgrims on a journey. Especially in this Jubilee year, when we are called to be Pilgrims of Hope, you are encouraged to evangelize through this beautiful and sacred tradition.

Come, be Pilgrims of Hope – and bring our Lord to others.

Father Downing

Happy Father's Day!

Thank you Jesus for the gift of all of our fathers!

Heavenly Father, you entrusted your Son Jesus, the child of Mary, to the care of Joseph, his foster father. Bless all fathers and grandfathers as they care for their families. Give them strength and wisdom, tenderness and patience, give them ability to love in a way that reflects your love.

Support them in the work they have to do, protecting those who look to them, as we look to you for love and salvation. Help us to love them in a way that would bring honor to You and them.

THANK YOU!

To everyone who helped make Teeing up for Trojans a success! !
