From the Pastor's Desk...

This column is devoted to some of the main reasons for choosing Catholicism.

1. Only the Catholic Church can trace its roots back to Christ Himself. Within a few short years of the Resurrection, the followers of Jesus began calling themselves “Christians” (cf. Acts 11:26), and by the end of the first century, the word “catholic” – meaning “universal” was applied to the Church.
2. The Eucharist – the Real Presence of Christ – is not found in other denominations. While other denominations see the Eucharist mainly in symbolic terms, the Catholic Church has consistently taught that it is truly the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Christ. There would be no Church without the Eucharist and Ordained Priests.
3. Catholics have a fully sacramental understanding of God's saving activity. Our faith is “incarnational” and “sacramental”. We believe in a system instituted by Christ where He used visible signs and sources of God's grace in 7 specific ritual actions.
4. The Magisterium provides assurance of our beliefs as divinely revealed truths. Jesus came to proclaim God's truth (John 18:37), and He entrusted this teaching authority to His Church, through a careful examination of Sacred Scripture and Tradition.
5. The Catholic Church, more than any other, gives fitting honor to the Mother of God. We rightly honor the Virgin Mary, for she plays an irreplaceable role in God's plan of salvation. It is only right to honor her (not worship her) and provide due veneration.
6. The Catholic Church takes Scripture Study most seriously. The Catholic Church is concerned not just with quoting the Bible, but with the original intent of those who were divinely inspired to compile its timeless wisdom and inspiration.
7. The Church has survived and thrived for over 2,000 years. This is true in spite of almost every form of persecution, opposition, and difficulty. No mere human institution could possibly withstand such circumstances.
8. Catholicism has the most accurate and complete understanding of human nature. This truth pertains to 3 areas in particular: reconciliation (ongoing process), ritual (need for communal celebrations), and role models (living mentors and saintly intercessors).
9. Catholicism reflects the nature of heaven most accurately. This can be seen in 3 different ways. First, the Church and Heaven have a hierarchal structure. Second, the Church and Heaven are universal. Third, all members are united and yet preserve their individuality.
10. Catholic Christianity is rooted in human history and also transcends it.

Peace, be with you,

Fr. Bob Jones
