From the Pastor's Desk...

The Jubilee Year of Hope enters the dog days of summer during August. The Sunday readings present images and experiences that reveal where hope can be found and how it can be cultivated to give “inward direction and purpose to the life of believers” (Pope Francis, Spes Non Confundit, No. 18). Our readings today confront us with a challenge to life’s purpose and point us toward a graced response.

Ecclesiastes (also known as Qoheleth) states the perennial problem: Life seems absurd! We spend years learning “wisdom and knowledge and skill.” We labor for most of our lives (all our days “under the sun”). But what good (“profit”) does that do us if, in the end, we die and must leave it all behind? That experience and others prompts the frustrated author to groan that life is a “vanity of vanities”. Clearly, the passage states a human struggle for meaning where in the face of much that seems futile.

Today’s Gospel depicts this reality sharply. Jesus speaks of a rich man with a bountiful harvest. He is a model of economic, and therefore social success. He has sufficient treasure to “rest, eat, drink, and be merry”. He has all the pleasures that seem to make life meaningful. Yet his accumulated wealth cannot stave off the demands of mortality. When his life abruptly and unexpectedly ends (“this night”), all that he has built for himself is left to someone else. So, one might be tempted to ask, “What is the point?”

The Gospel reaffirms hope by shifting our focus to a very different notion of riches. The Gospel shifts our focus to “what matters to God,” who is not subject to mortality. Treasure for our Lord and His Gospel message derives not from labor or wealth, but from belief. St. Paul reminds the Colossians of their baptism – in which they “have died” and “were raised with Christ.” We too are called to reflect upon the meaning of our own baptism into the life of Jesus Christ. Transformed by grace, we are to seek hope not in empty promises of passing worldly success (“what is on earth”) but from “above” – where new life “will appear with Christ in glory.”

The reality of death calls into question the meaning of life. It also reminds us of the great reason for our faith in God who spoke all life into being. The grace of our baptism directs us to find hope in the One who is seated at the Father’s right hand. The grace of our baptism redirects our attention away from earthly and passing treasure (vain pursuits) to a greater treasure that is envisioned above (the true fulfillment of our hopes and dreams).

Peace, be with you,

Fr. Bob Jones

A todos nos gusta hacer planes, tener metas y llegar a ellas. Eso nos pone contentos porque nos va bien en la vida y pensamos: "Qué bien, he luchado tanto que ya puedo disfrutar de lo que tengo". Pero nos olvidamos de lo más importante: en las metas nunca contamos contigo. Nos olvidamos de que sólo Tú, Señor, nos darás la auténtica libertad y felicidad. No está la vida en poseer bienes. "Eviten con gran cuidado toda clase de codicia, porque, aunque uno tenga todo, no son sus posesiones las que le dan vida" (Lucas 12:15).

Vale preguntarnos: ¿Cuál es el centro de tu vida? ¿Cuál es la meta en tu vida? ¿Está tu felicidad en lo que posees, en tu estatus social, en lo que dirá la gente de ti? Cuidado, nos advierte Jesús: "Esta misma noche vas a morir. ¿Quién se quedará con lo que has preparado?" (Lucas 12:20).

"Jesús percibe nuestros problemas, nuestras debilidades, nuestras necesidades; invita a convertirnos a la fe en la Providencia, saber compartir lo poco que somos y tenemos, y no cerrarnos nunca en nosotros mismos" (Papa Francisco). El tener muchos bienes y prestigio no es malo, lo que Dios desea es que aprendamos a ser desprendidos, es decir, generosos. No equivoquemos el proyecto de nuestra vida; la abundancia es pasajera, todo se queda al morir. Solo las riquezas espirituales serán eternas. "Esto vale para toda persona que amontona para sí misma en vez de acumular para Dios" (Lucas 12:21).

Learn About TMIY Aug. 16 and 23!

For 12 years That Man is You (TMIY) has been held at St.

Thomas. Have you ever wondered what TMIY is all about? It's a Men's Ministry developed by Paradisus Dei and is currently being offered in over 1,000 parishes. TMIY is designed to meet men wherever they are in their spiritual lives and help them take one step further.

TMIY honestly addresses the pressures and temptations that men face in our modern culture, especially those relating to their roles as husbands and fathers.

If your inner spiritual voice is telling you to "do more" or "be more," take some time on two upcoming Saturday mornings and see for yourself.
There will be special presentations on Saturday,
Aug. 16 (Spiritual Headship) and another on Saturday, Aug. 23 (The Mystery of the Holy Family).

Both days will be held at the Oak St. church. Coffee and donuts are served at 6 a.m., video starts at 6:30 a.m., followed by small group discussions. We conclude by 7:30 a.m.

Please come and join us. We believe that you will find it worthwhile. Learn more about TMIY on the link on the parish website or contact Carl Marhoefer at cmarhoefer@gmail.com.
